

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3040

“I’m rich!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he saw the immortal level plants in the valley.

In the immortal world, you could buy some immortal-grade herbs on the market. However, not only were they expensive, but there were also very few types.

Many of the plants in front of him could not be found on the market.

He examined them carefully. After confirming that there was no danger, he collected these plants one by one and placed them in his portable medicine garden.

“And ...”

After collecting this Valley, they entered the next Valley to take a look. The ground was filled with immortal herbs and immortal trees.

“I’ve really struck it rich!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

There were so many immortal level herbs. If he were to cultivate them himself, how much immortal water would he have to spend and how much time would he have left?

He walked forward excitedly and collected these plants one by one.

“This mountain range was probably full of immortal Qi in the first place. This purple Qi is also a bit strange. It contains an amazing Taoist connotation, which accelerated the growth of these plants. Moreover, because of the name of the forbidden land, no one has dared to come in all these years, so no one has discovered it.”

He continued forward and found more immortal level plants, which he collected.

“What is this?”

After about two hours, he arrived in front of a wall.

This was a wall formed by some kind of purple crystal, and the aura was the same as the purple Qi that filled the mountains.

“It’s so hard!”

Tang Hao knocked on it and even scratched it with the spear, but it did not even leave a mark.

He walked along the wall for a while.

The wall seemed to be curved, bending inward.

“It should be a cover that covers the world inside. It doesn’t seem to be formed naturally. It should be deliberately laid down by someone.” Tang Hao pondered.

He tried to bombard the purple crystal wall again.

But in the end, he couldn’t even make a scratch with his mid-stage heaven immortal cultivation.

“It must be set up by a golden immortal, and not an ordinary one at that.”

Tang Hao was shocked.

After walking along the wall for a while, he had the intention to retreat.

With his current cultivation, it was impossible for him to break through the crystal wall and enter. It would be better for him to explore the outside, collect all the plants, and leave. It would not be too late to come back when he reached the Golden immortal realm.

With this in mind, he turned around and was about to walk out.

However, at this moment, he saw a crack in the crystal wall in front of him from the corner of his eye.

He was stunned and stopped moving.

“Let’s go and take a look!”

After a moment of hesitation, he walked toward the crack.

In the crack, there was no more purple Qi, only chaos, and nothing could be seen clearly.

He first sent a wisp of his soul inside to check it out. After making sure that there was no danger, he then stepped in.

Inside, there was a deathly silence, so quiet that it was a little scary.

The inside and outside of the crystal wall were like two different worlds.

“What a huge world!”

They walked for a long time in the chaos, but they saw nothing. Tang Hao was certain that this was a different space from the outside, but it did not seem like a small world either.

“Let’s use our Dharma eyes to take a look!”

He took out his spirit eyes and started to scan the surroundings.

About half an hour later, he made a discovery. In the distance, his Dharma Eye detected a blurry figure.

However, before he could see it clearly, the scene turned dark and nothing was left.

“What’s going on?”

He then activated his Dharma Eye and scanned over there, but the result was the same.

“There’s something over there!”

He looked in that direction and frowned.

The situation was a little strange, and he didn’t know if he should continue.

“Since we’re already here, let’s go and take a look!”

He hesitated for a moment, but still walked forward.

After walking for more than ten minutes, he saw two figures appear in the chaos in front of him. They were both shrouded in bright divine light.

They seemed to be in a confrontation, their palms pressed together.

He squinted his eyes and took a closer look. Tang Hao’s mouth fell open, and he was stunned.

Not them, it was them!

They were two women. They were not wearing a single piece of clothing, and their perfect bodies were revealed just like that. Through the resplendent divine light, one could vaguely see their soul-stirring, full, and graceful curves.

The woman on the left had an even hotter figure. Her curves were abnormally exaggerated, and she was more demonic than a demon.

The one on the right was not as exaggerated, but it was also extremely hot.

Tang Hao looked up and saw their faces.

He was stunned again.

The one on the left had an extremely seductive face and a Red Lotus mark between her eyebrows.

Although his eyes were closed, there was still a peerless disdain and overbearing aura between his brows.

At the same time, there was also a trace of evil charm.

The one on the right was completely different. She had a perfect, flawless face, and a dreamy beauty.

Her body exuded an extremely noble aura.

Tang Hao stood there and stared at the screen for a long time.

He was a little confused.

How could there be two peerless beauties in this place?

It looked like they were fighting, but what was the meaning of not wearing any clothes?

“What is that?”

By the time he came back to his senses, he noticed that between the two girls, there were illusionary images. It was a scene of stars colliding and exploding with boundless brilliance.

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat as he stared at it.

These phantoms couldn’t be real, right?

The two of them looked like they were fighting here, but in fact, they were fighting in another space. Furthermore, they were constantly using stars to attack each other. It was obvious that their divine abilities were at an unbelievable level.

“These two are definitely not ordinary people!”

“This place might have become a forbidden land because of the fight between these two people. They fought for thousands of years, and both of them are monsters!”

Tang Hao’s scalp went numb when he saw the two of them.

He couldn’t even tell what cultivation level they were at. Golden immortal? Perhaps it was an even higher zenith heaven?

At this moment, he shuddered.

When Immortals fight, mortals suffer!

In front of these two people, his puny heaven immortal cultivation base was probably the same as that of a mortal. Those people who had entered before might have been involved in their battle and were strangled to death.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao shouted in his heart and turned to leave.

He still had a chance to escape before the two of them noticed him.

However, he had not gone far when the woman on his right suddenly furrowed her brows and her expression changed. She had clearly sensed Tang Hao's presence.

In the next moment, her expression changed and she let out a muffled groan.

The moment she was distracted, her opponent immediately gained the upper hand.

Between the two of them, a monstrous aura instantly burst out and spread out. Her body trembled and she flew backward.

The seductive woman's body only shook, but she didn't retreat.

Tang Hao's expression changed drastically when he sensed the aura erupting from behind him.

Motherf * cker! He was too late!

He cursed in his heart.

It was too late to escape. He could only grit his teeth and activate the clear sky armor on his body. At the same time, he took out all the defensive treasures on his body.
