

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3042

“What are you doing?”

The woman’s expression changed as she scolded.

“Didn’t you want to kill him? Can’t I be kind and save his life?” The seductive woman glared at him and said provocatively.

“I won’t kill him!”

The woman’s face darkened and she said, “he is from the heaven desolate Hall. What does it have to do with you? let him go!” Don’t even think about kidnapping him!”

This little fellow from the heavenly desolate Palace was indeed a talent. How could he be taken away by this fellow!

“Yo! What are you so anxious about? you’re not from the heavenly desolate Hall, so why do you care?” The seductive woman sneered, “little guy, tell your sister. Do you want to leave with me?”

Then, she leaned close to Tang Hao’s ear and whispered.

“Ahem!”

Tang Hao coughed lightly. He felt immense pressure.

Of course, he couldn’t leave with this fellow. She hadn’t discovered the immortal Emperor’s Supreme treasure in his body yet, but once he went out and she heard about him, she would know.

Facing such a terrifying old monster, he had no power to resist at all.

At that time, the treasure would be gone.

However, he didn’t dare to refuse.

What if she fell out with him the moment he rejected her?

“Stop bewitching him! He won’t go with you, let him go!” The woman became more and more angry as she scolded.

“I’m not bewitching him. I’m sincerely thinking for him, unlike you, who wants to kill him for no reason!”

The seductive woman laughed.

“I didn’t want to kill him!”

The woman took a deep breath and said angrily, “we haven’t even decided who’s going to win the duel and you want to leave? Let him go, we’ll continue. ”

“You still want to continue? Alright! I’ll beat you until you’re convinced!”

The seductive woman’s face turned cold as she shouted.

“Little fellow, you should obediently leave first. After big sister has defeated her, I’ll come and find you!”

Her devilish body leaned against Tang Hao’s and she whispered into his ear.

She flicked her palm lightly, and Tang Hao felt his body sway. The void around him began to change.

When he came back to his senses, he was already surrounded by purple Qi.

“Hu!”

He was stunned for a moment, and then he gasped for a few breaths.

Just now, he really thought that he was done for.

The cultivation of those two beautiful women was unimaginably high. According to his estimation, they might be at the Grand Luo immortal level. In the immortal world, such figures were the top powerhouses. He simply didn’t have the power to resist them.

But fortunately, he still came out safely.

“This is really good stuff!”

He took out the token of the heaven desolate Hall and sighed.

This thing had already helped him twice, and this time, it even saved his life.

“Two seniors, you two have to fight for a while longer. It would be best if you could fight for another thousand years!” He faced the crystal wall and put his hands together.

“We can’t just leave like this, we have to loot everything here!”

He didn’t leave immediately. Instead, he went in all directions and scraped the entire mountain range clean before leaving.

As soon as he left the mountain range, he tore open the void and headed to the nearest Immortal City.

He only heaved a sigh of relief when he entered the immortal City.

Although it was a little dangerous this time, his harvest was also extremely great. There were more than three hundred immortal level herbs, which greatly enriched the spiritual medicine storage he had on him.

“This immortal realm is too dangerous!”

He came to the restaurant, drank a few mouthfuls of wine to calm his shock, and then sighed.

Previously, when he was in the lower realm, he had met a demoness, the one from Devil Heart sect.

At that time, he had already thought that it was quite terrifying, but now he realized that it was nothing. The seductive woman in the forbidden land was clearly more terrifying, more than a hundred times more terrifying.

“Let’s hurry back and earn more money. We need to reach the peak as soon as possible!”

After drinking for a while, he went to the teleportation Hall and teleported all the way back to Nantian city.

“Guild leader, you’re finally back. We’re almost out of stock ...”

As soon as he returned to Dragon Mountain, he received a message from Changchun Taoist and the others.

He quickly went to the peach Garden and picked a new batch of peaches. Then, he collected the things that his origin core clone had refined during this period of time. He went to Nantian city and met with the Changchun Taoist and the others.

“During this period of time, a lot of people have been looking for us. There are people from all the continents who want to join and be their agents. I’ve chosen quite a few reliable ones. Now, our goods can be sold to more than a dozen continents.”

The Changchun Taoist and the others were excited.

Although the current clear sky Association was still far from being comparable to the top Chambers of Commerce like the heaven seeking Pavilion and the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce, it had already begun to take shape.

Moreover, it was growing and thriving.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao was quite satisfied with the situation.

After distributing the goods, Tang Hao bade them farewell and went to the heaven seeking Pavilion.

He wanted to purchase a large number of immortal materials.

Now that the clear sky Association’s business was growing, he couldn’t support it with just his origin core avatar.

However, it was too troublesome to refine an avatar. After all, it was very difficult to refine an immortal-level avatar.

Therefore, he wanted to make a batch of puppets.

Just like refining a weapon, he would refine a batch of immortal-level puppets and use his split soul to control them to help make undergarments and immortal courts.

After buying the materials, he returned to the mountain and began to refine.

It took him a full month to finish the refining. He had refined a total of 200 puppets.

With the help of these puppets, the production speed of the products was several times faster, and they could meet the supply.

For the next few months, Tang Hao stayed in the mountains, engrossed in refining.

At the same time, he also asked people to help pay attention to the news of the Li water continent.

What made him feel quite at ease was that there had been no big news from the Li water continent. Obviously, the two had not yet decided who would win.

“It’s time to buy Dao attainment again!”

Tang Hao had earned a lot of money in the past few months.

He took the money and went to various Chambers of Commerce, buying a large amount of Dao attainment.

He took out twenty thousand and refined them all.

The number of Dao attainment in his body had also reached 100000, and he had advanced to the peak of heaven immortal.

At this realm, it was not impossible to refine it just because one had Dao attainment. In fact, it was still possible. 110000 or 120000 could be refined.

However, at this realm, one would have the opportunity to break through to the Golden immortal realm. Therefore, most people would not waste their cultivation and continue to refine.

Tang Hao did not plan to continue refining. He would give the extra cultivation to Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci so that they could improve their cultivation as soon as possible. That way, he would be more at ease and let them walk around.

As for Fei Wan, he also had to prepare some cultivation to send her over.

At this time, the outside world’s search for the lower realm’s monstrous talent gradually stopped.

All the forces searched everywhere, but they couldn’t find a single clue. Many people gave up.

They all felt that this monster had completely hidden himself and would never appear again. They couldn't find him either. If they wanted to find him, they could only wait a few decades or a few centuries for him to reveal himself and reveal his flaws.

Tang Hao was happy to see such a situation.

For the following period of time, he stayed in the mountain, refining and thinking about how to break through to the Golden immortal realm.
