

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3043

“It’s difficult!”

Tang Hao sighed in the hall.

He was a little worried.

It was too difficult to break through to the Golden immortal realm!

In the immortal world, there were many heaven Immortals and many at the peak, but there were not many golden Immortals. Every golden immortal was a giant in their own territory.

A power that could have a single gold immortal was already considered a great power.

He had several golden Immortals and was somewhat famous in the entire immortal world.

This was enough to prove how difficult it was to break through to the Golden immortal realm.

In order to vindicate one’s Dao and become a gold immortal, one would need at least three connate spirit items.

However, connate spirit items were extremely rare. They could only be found by chance, not by searching for them. It was not easy to find one, let alone three.

“In order to break through to the Golden immortal realm, one must first form the wood of the great Dao, then find a connate spirit item. With the connate Qi as a guide, the Golden Flower of the great Dao will bloom. Only after blooming three golden flowers will one be qualified to transcend the Tribulation and become a golden immortal.”

“But Where can I find this natural spirit item? It’s impossible to buy such a rare item in the market!”

Tang Hao shook his head. He was troubled.

He had a lot of money now, but he couldn’t buy any connate spirit items.

“Innate spirit item? Is Grandmaster going to break through to the Golden immortal realm?”

He found Daoist Shang Qing and asked.

“Yup! Not only master, I’m also close to the peak.” Tang Hao said.

“So fast?”

Daoist Shang Qing was a little surprised.

Just half a year ago, he was still a mid-stage earth immortal. Now, he was almost at the peak of heaven immortal!

Such speed was truly shocking!

But on second thought, he felt relieved.

Now that the Haotian club was getting bigger and bigger, and their business was spread across more than a dozen States, they naturally did not lack money. They could buy a large number of cultivation, so the speed of this person's promotion was naturally fast.

Then, he shook his head and said, "Connate spirit objects are too rare, especially for us itinerant Immortals. In the past thousand years, some connate spirit objects have appeared in the spirit Toad continent, but most of them have been taken away by those golden Immortals."

"Naturally, they'll give it to their own family. That's why it's extremely difficult for us itinerant Immortals to break through to the Golden immortal realm."

"That's true!"

Tang Hao nodded, then asked again, "how many connate spirit items have been produced in the past few years?"

"Ten or so!" Daoist Shang Qing said, "these connate spirit items are the first batch of spirit items that were born when the heaven and earth were born. After they absorb the connate Qi, even a flower, a blade of grass, or even a piece of stone will become a divine item."

"When our celestial world was first created, many connate spirit items were born. After all these years, many of them have been taken away. Of course, there are still some that are scattered in the corners and have not been discovered. But there are not many left."

"If you want to find an innate spirit item, you have to go around. If you are lucky, you might be able to find it."

"What a pity!"

Tang Hao sighed when he heard that.

When the immortal world was first created, it was probably filled with connate spirit items, but he didn't make it in time.

"Argh! That's right, a few decades ago, a connate spirit item was born. It was a stone. "

Suddenly, Daoist Shang Qing seemed to have thought of something and exclaimed in a low voice.

"I remember it was quite a sensation at that time. A small stone attracted many forces to fight for it. Most of the forces in the spirit Toad continent participated, and many golden Immortals also joined in. The fight lasted for a long time."

"In the end, this stone was taken away by the mysterious Palace!"

“The divine wonder Palace?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“Yeah! It’s the Golden immortal Palace Master of the divine wonders Palace who personally took action.” Daoist Shang Qing said.

“Then, has this stone been used?”

Tang Hao said, deep in thought.

“This ... I’m not very sure. This is an internal matter of the divine wonders Palace. However, generally speaking, even a force like the divine wonders Palace would not simply give away such a connate spirit item.”

Daoist Shang Qing said hesitantly.

“I see!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He had some thoughts in mind.

If it had not been used, then the stone was most likely still in the Treasury of the divine wonders Palace. Since he had the primordial gold warrior suit, he had a chance to sneak in.

“It’s worth a visit!”

The more Tang Hao thought about it, the more tempted he was.

After getting the gold fighting suit, he had the idea of stealing from the treasure house. It just so happened that the divine wonder Palace had a grudge against him and might have a connate spirit stone, which made them the perfect target.

Even if he couldn’t find the connate spirit stone, he could still move some other things.

With the wealth of the palace of wonders, the Treasury must be full of treasures. Immortal-grade herbs, immortal materials, and immortal artifacts must have piled up into mountains.

Tang Hao’s mouth watered just thinking about it.

“Sect fellow Shi?”

“Master!” Daoist Shang Qing called out softly. He was a little confused when he saw Tang Hao’s dazed expression and his eyes shining.

“Oh! What’s wrong?”

Tang Hao came back to his senses and wiped the corner of his mouth.

“It’s ... It’s nothing!”

Daoist Shang Qing laughed. “I just saw that you were a little out of it.”

“Oh! I was just thinking about something and got a little lost in thought. ” Tang Hao smiled.

After chatting for a while more, he took his leave.

After returning to Dragon Mountain, he thought about it carefully.

The divine wonder Palace was not an ordinary power. After all, they had a golden immortal, so he had to be careful.

“I’m now at the peak of heaven immortal realm. Even if I run into that old Daoist, I’m confident that I can escape. The formation of the divine wonder Palace won’t be too strong, so Jin douyi still has a chance to sneak in.”

He pondered for a while and felt that he was quite confident.

“There’s no hurry. Let’s first investigate the situation of the mysterious Palace. The structure of their Mountain Gate, the distribution of their formation, and the traces of that mysterious old Daoist. We have to find out everything clearly to ensure that nothing goes wrong.”

He quickly made a decision.

He immediately sent out his origin core avatar to the vicinity of the divine wonder Palace to gather information.

Half a month later, the clone sent back a large amount of information.

By coming into contact with the disciples of the divine wonder Palace and the people nearby, the clone was able to figure out the structure of the mountain Gate of the divine wonder Palace and also obtain information about the great formation.

The formations used by such a large force were naturally extraordinary. They were all top-notch defensive formations and killing formations.

Perhaps it was because he was overconfident and felt that no one would come to cause trouble, but the great formation in the mountain was basically half-open, which was extremely advantageous to him.

“The last key is that old Daoist!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

The biggest threat in the entire divine wonder Palace was this old Daoist golden immortal.

According to the intelligence, this old Daoist had been staying in the palace and did not seem to be in seclusion. Occasionally, he would come out to walk around and give pointers to the disciples in the palace.

“Let’s wait a little longer!”

Tang Hao thought about it for a long time, but he decided not to take the risk.

Just like that, he waited for another half a month. Finally, the opportunity came.

On this day, his clone sent him a message saying that the old Daoist golden immortal was about to leave for a distant continent to meet a fellow Daoist.

“This is a good opportunity!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

The moment this old Daoist left, his biggest threat disappeared.

It would definitely take him one or two days to visit his fellow Daoists, and this period of time was his chance.
