

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3044

At the mysterious Palace.

At the peak of the main peak.

In a Grand Hall, a white-robed old Daoist sat cross-legged on a Lotus platform.

In front of him, there were many figures with extraordinary auras. Most of them were heaven Immortals, and some were earth Immortals, but they all looked young.

“This trip might take half a month. I’ll first visit the fellow Daoists I haven’t seen in many years and then walk around. Maybe I can find some opportunities.”

The old Daoist stroked his long beard and said calmly.

“When I’m not here, don’t slack off and cultivate well! Especially you, you’ve been feeling restless and angry all this time. This shouldn’t have happened!”

As he spoke, he looked at the person on his left and said sternly.

“Don’t forget, you’re the head of the core disciples and my eldest disciple. You’ve cultivated for hundreds of years, don’t tell me you still haven’t understood? As cultivators, we should be indifferent to everything and always keep our bier clean, so that there is no sadness, no joy, no anger, and no impatience ...”

“This is the realm that Immortals should be at!”

He warned sternly.

“Master’s lesson is right, this disciple is ashamed!”

Long Xiaozi knelt down, his face full of guilt.

“Al! It’s good that you know you’re wrong, so you should change! Do you understand?” The old Daoist said with a smile.

“I will definitely remember master’s teachings!”

Long Xiaozi felt even more guilty.

Thinking back to what had happened recently, he felt that he should not have. He had been angry several times and even had the intention to kill because of an individual immortal. After his repeated failures, his state of mind had become extremely bad and his emotions were unpredictable.

With such a performance, it was no wonder that his teacher would be disappointed.

“You must also remember that the most important thing for us cultivators is to cultivate our heart! Being indifferent to everything and carefree is the realm we should be at. You’ve been looking at me for so many years, but have you ever been angry and scolded anyone?”

The old Daoist nodded in satisfaction and looked at the others.

“The palace master’s realm is really high! We can’t catch up!”

“Master Gong’s teachings are right, we will definitely remember them!”

Everyone below bowed and began to flatter him.

“Hahaha!”

The old Daoist stroked his long beard and laughed out loud. He was very pleased.

“Alright! All of you can go back now, I’ll be leaving soon!”

Then, he stood up and shook his sleeves.

“Farewell, master!”

“Farewell, Palace Master!”

Everyone immediately knelt on the ground and called out in unison.

“Let’s go!”

The old Daoist shouted. His figure flickered, and he left the hall. He turned into a long rainbow and sped away.

“You’re right, master. I can’t be angry anymore. He’s just a little individual immortal. Why should I care about him? no matter what he does, it has nothing to do with me!”

After he left, long Xiaozi stood in place and muttered to himself.

He felt that he had understood and had a feeling of sudden enlightenment.

His face revealed a long-lost smile, and his mood became much more relaxed all of a sudden.

“Master is indeed master, so high!”

He looked out of the hall and exclaimed in admiration.

He laughed and followed the crowd out of the hall.

At this time, in an Immortal City near the divine wonder Palace, a man was looking in the direction of the palace. When he saw the magnificent golden light that shot into the sky, he raised his eyebrows and grinned.

According to the intelligence, the old Daoist was leaving today.

And this golden light, with such a majestic aura, must be him.

“Baby, I’m here!”

He mumbled, his eyes burning with passion.

He could already see that there were countless treasures piled up in the mountains, waiting for him to move.

Then, he left the immortal City and came to a secluded valley nearby.

He took out a golden robe and put it on.

In the next moment, his body became transparent and he disappeared without a trace.

“It’s really good stuff!”

He lowered his head to take a look and exclaimed in admiration.

It was indeed a rare treasure made by an Immortal King. If it hadn’t been for the warning from his spirit truth magical eye, he wouldn’t have discovered it at all.

Moreover, even the spirit truth magical eye could only sense it very faintly.

He put on the treasured clothing and headed in the direction of the divine wonder Palace.

Soon, he reached the edge of the great formation of the palace of divine wonder.

The first layer was a very common defensive formation. Now that it was half open, it was even easier to enter. He walked in openly, but the formation did not react at all.

The second level was also a defensive formation, so he easily passed through it ...

There were a few killing formations behind, but none of them were activated. There was no reaction at all.

He entered the room easily.

Many people flew past him, but they didn’t notice him at all.

“The main peak is there, so the treasure vault must be there as well!”

After entering the mountain, Tang Hao looked around, then headed straight for the main peak.

For such a big force, the Treasury was usually easy to find. They would not hide it like some small forces, which would take half a day to find.

“We’re here!”

After walking around the mountain, he successfully found the location of the treasure vault.

A figure was sitting cross-legged in front of the treasure vault. He was at the peak of heaven immortal realm and was obviously the elder who guarded the treasure vault.

“This Treasury ... Is not easy to enter!”

Tang Hao looked around and figured out the structure of the Treasury.

The entire Treasury was made of gold and iron, and there were layers of formations outside. It was impossible to break the walls of the Treasury and enter by tearing open the void.

The only passage was the gate.

“Wait!”

Tang Hao returned to the main entrance, squatted down, and waited patiently.

About half a day later, someone finally came.

A few earth immortal realm Warriors showed the old man a token. The old man opened the door with a wave of his sleeve.

Tang Hao followed them in.

“Waa!”

Tang Hao almost exclaimed in surprise when he entered the vault.

This treasure vault was about a thousand feet tall and nearly a thousand feet wide. It was vast and boundless at a glance. There were shelves everywhere, filled with boxes of all colors. There were many things behind that were not even put in the boxes. They were just placed there, blooming with divine light.

There was an entire piece of gold metal immortal material as tall as a small mountain, there were also huge pieces of golden immortal bones, and there were also immortal armors and Immortal Weapons neatly arranged there ...

Tang Hao’s eyes were almost blinded by the dazzling light.

“So many treasures!”

Tang Hao was extremely excited.

The treasures in front of him were much more than he had expected.

“This mysterious Palace is really too rich!”

Tang Hao’s eyes were red.

He had many treasures on him, but they were nothing compared to the treasure vault in front of him.

With great difficulty, he managed to suppress his excitement. He walked to a corner and squatted.

He had to wait for the earth immortal realm Warriors to leave before he could take action. Otherwise, the old man at the door would notice if he moved now.

Ten minutes later, the earth immortal realm Warriors finished picking the items and left. Tang Hao then got up and started to move.
