

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3045

“Mine, it’s all mine!”

In the Treasury, Tang Hao opened the boxes one by one. With a wave of his sleeve, the treasures in the boxes flew out and were put into his bag.

Then, he would close the boxes.

Just like that, he kept the shelves one by one.

There were all kinds of treasures in the boxes. There were immortal herbs, immortal herbs, gold and iron materials, and all kinds of rare crystals. Tang Hao accepted all of them.

He wouldn’t even let a single hair go.

“I’m so tired!”

After collecting them for a while, he was a little tired.

There were simply too many treasures here.

How could he collect all of the ten-thousand-year-old collection of the immortal Palace in such a short time?

“No, I have to speed up. If someone comes in, they’ll definitely break it. I won’t have a chance then.”

Tang Hao gritted his teeth and put even more effort into keeping it.

He was wearing the treasured clothing, so he didn’t dare to make too big of a movement. He could only increase the frequency.

After spending more than an hour, he finally finished searching through all the shelves. Then, he began to collect the treasures that were not on the shelves.

“This is ... A rock? Could it be that innate spirit stone?”

As he collected the treasures, Tang Hao saw a stone floating in the air.

At first glance, it looked like a very ordinary stone, like a cobblestone, and even looked a little muddy.

However, upon a closer look, one would discover that this stone was emitting a very strange aura. It was like the aura of chaos and was very ancient.

“That’s right! Xiantian Qi!”

Tang Hao’s eyes lit up. He was excited.

This must be the connate spirit stone that the mysterious old Daoist had obtained decades ago!

Perhaps it was because it had to be kept and given to disciples who had made contributions, it had not been used up and was still in this treasure vault.

And this also happened to benefit him.

“Take it away! Take it away!”

Tang Hao reached out and put the spirit stone away.

Of course, he was also very cautious. When he collected each treasure, he would check it to make sure that there were no tricks.

After another hour, he finally collected all the treasures in the Treasury.

Satisfied, he squatted down in the corner next to the door.

Then, he just had to wait for the door to open, and he could take the opportunity to get out.

After waiting for a day, the door finally opened again. A few people who looked like disciples walked in under the lead of a heaven immortal elder.

Tang Hao immediately walked out. He did not stop for even a moment as he headed down the mountain.

At this moment, the heaven immortal elder was leading a few disciples into the Treasury.

“As the top five of the Grand competition in the palace, you are qualified to pick any celestial artifact from all the celestial artifacts. However, you must first think about which celestial artifact you want to pick. Otherwise, you will be dazzled by the choice later!”

“It’s not that I’m bragging, but the treasures of our divine wonder Palace are as numerous as the stars in the sky. It’s simply uncountable. In the entire spirit Toad continent, there are only a few who can compare with us!”

The elder kept turning back to look at the disciples and kept boasting.

“I’ll show you guys first. Look, What is this?”

As he said this, he casually flicked his sleeve and opened a row of boxes on the side.

He raised his head, waiting for the disciples to exclaim in surprise.

However, after a long while, he did not hear any exclamations.

He looked down and was stunned.

The few disciples in front of him stood there with strange expressions on their faces. They wanted to say something but stopped.

F * ck!

Did these little brats have such high standards? This couldn't even shock them?

He muttered to himself.

Then, he glanced at the row of boxes.

After he saw it clearly, his body trembled as if he had been struck by lightning.

The row of boxes in front of him was actually all empty!

"How ... How did this happen?"

He widened his eyes in disbelief.

Occasionally, there would be a few empty boxes. This was normal. Someone might have just taken them away. But how could an entire row be empty?

"Hahaha! A mistake! A mistake!"

He laughed drily, his expression awkward.

It might have been taken by an elder!

He didn't think too much about it. This was the Treasury of his mystical Palace, which was heavily guarded. How could anything be lost? if anything was lost, it must have been taken by someone from the sect.

"Come, I'll show you this row!"

He flicked his sleeve and opened another row of boxes.

When he focused his eyes, his eyes widened again.

This row of boxes was also empty.

"This row is also empty. This row is also empty. How did this happen?"

"Who took it?"

He opened the rows of boxes and was even more shocked.

Every row of boxes was empty.

Gradually, he began to feel uneasy and a little flustered.

In the beginning, he thought that the elder might have taken more things. However, as the number of empty boxes increased, an absurd and almost impossible thought began to appear in his mind.

The treasure vault of the mysterious Palace had been robbed!

If someone had told him this in the past, he would have laughed until his stomach hurt.

He was the magnificent divine wonder Palace, a great power that was famous throughout the entire spirit Toad continent. How could his treasure vault be robbed?

Such an embarrassing thing would never happen!

“No more! All gone! This ... This is impossible!”

“How did this happen?”

His eyes widened and became bloodshot. His movements became even crazier as he opened the boxes one by one.

“No more! They’re really gone!”

When he lifted his body and looked into the depths of the Treasury, his body trembled again, and he was dumbstruck.

His body swayed, and his face turned extremely pale.

No more! All gone!

Not a single treasure was left in the entire Treasury!

“What’s going on?”

Hearing the movement inside, the old man at the door rushed in. He looked around and was stunned.

In the next moment, his eyes widened so much that they almost popped out.

“How could it be like this!”

He roared with a crazed expression.

“I ... I don’t know! I was already like this when I came in!” The heaven immortal elder turned around and said in a daze.

“That’s not possible! The last time we closed the shop, I checked that all the treasures were still there. How did they all disappear in just one day?” The gate-keeping elder muttered with a look of disbelief.

Looking at the empty treasury, his face gradually turned pale.

No matter what happened, it was a fact that the treasure was lost, and he, the elder guarding the door, could not escape the blame.

“It must have been done by the people who went in before. Quick, seal the mountain Gate!”

After a moment, he came to his senses and immediately flew out.

Soon, layers of formations were activated around the mountain Gate. At the same time, a series of ear-piercing bell chimes rang out rapidly, shaking the entire world.

The entire divine wonder Palace was in an uproar.

At this time, Tang Hao had just left the mountain Gate. He was wearing a golden fighting suit and was rushing away.
