

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3049

In the main hall, Yao Xinyue stood there in a daze.

She could not believe her eyes.

Her Palace had been robbed and everything was gone!

The paintings and vases that she had placed were all gone. Anything of value in the entire Palace had been taken away, leaving the place empty.

Furthermore, it was not just her Palace. Even the Treasury of her Devil Heart sect had been completely robbed!

Who was it that was so bold?

She looked around at the palace that was in a mess and listened to the ear-piercing bell chimes outside. She was in a daze.

She could not think of anyone who would dare to steal from her Devil Heart sect.

All of this was like a dream!

“Could it be someone who has a grudge against me? However, there are too many people who have a grudge against me, and they don’t have the strength to do so!”

She racked her brain and thought hard, but she had no results.

She didn’t even have a single suspicious target.

“Who is it? Who is it?”

“My baby Yingluo!”

Outside, a series of angry roars came, shaking the world.

Many terrifying divine senses swept back and forth in the mountain. Some even rushed out of the mountain Gate and spread out in all directions, searching the sky and the earth, trying to find the thief.

However, it was too late. Tang Hao had already entered an Immortal City and teleported away.

Even if he was a step slower, those divine senses would not be able to find him because he was wearing the Golden fighting robe. Even a golden immortal would not be able to find him.

Tang Hao teleported all the way to a distant continent.

On the way, he was in an extremely carefree mood.

Not only did he obtain so many treasures on this trip, but he had also gotten a little revenge. It was really satisfying.

When he arrived at the next continent, he immediately began to choose his target, collect information, and then quickly take action.

The theft of the divine wonder Palace might not have raised the vigilance of the other continents' forces, but with the devil Heart sect suffering as well, once the news spread, it would definitely raise the vigilance of the various forces. When that time came, it would be difficult for him to make a move.

Therefore, he had to act as soon as possible before these forces reacted.

He was extremely fast. In a month's time, he had stolen from five treasure vaults.

At this moment, the news spread throughout the immortal world, causing a sensation.

The world was extremely shocked.

No matter how small a power was, it was difficult to steal from their treasure vault, let alone golden immortal powers like the divine wonder Palace and the devil Heart sect.

It was hard for them to imagine who could have such a divine ability to sneak into these major forces and empty their treasure vaults under the eyes of a gold immortal before leaving.

Some people even suspected that this person might be at the origin immortal level!

For a time, the people of the world speculated.

At the same time, the people of the big forces were even more anxious, afraid that their homes would be visited by this mysterious thief.

This mysterious robber was too powerful!

He appeared and disappeared without a trace!

There was no trace of the forces that had been robbed. It was as if the treasures had all disappeared into thin air.

In order to be on guard, they had exhausted all means. Not only did they activate all the formations, but they also sent people to patrol the treasure vault day and night.

"Let's stop for now!"

Tang Hao chose to stop when he noticed that.

It was too risky to make a move now. Once he was exposed, he would be hunted down endlessly.

Right now, the divine wonder Palace, Devil Heart sect, and the other powers were searching for him all over the immortal world. The moment he was exposed, they would all come to kill him.

He might as well stop now and wait for them to let down their guard. It wouldn't be too late to make a move then. Anyway, he was just short of one or two treasure troves and he would have enough materials to refine an immortal spirit body.

He sneaked his way back to Dragon Mountain.

When he wasn't around, his clone would assume his appearance and go out to meet with the Changchun Taoist and the others.

He was not short of money now and could buy a lot of spiritual essences. The cultivation of his clone was also in sync with his. When it reached the peak of heaven immortal, it would be flawless to disguise as him.

"So much money! Let's go and buy some more cultivation!"

It had been two and a half months since he had reached the peak.

During this period of time, he had accumulated hundreds of millions of immortal crystals. It was time to sweep through the cultivation of the major Chambers of Commerce and increase the cultivation of Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci.

He should also send some to Fei Wan.

"Guild leader Shi is here again!"

"President Shi, you're here to buy cultivation again! It's already been prepared for you. Our President spent a lot of effort to transfer more from other continents just for you."

The people from the various Chambers of Commerce were also very familiar with him. When they saw him, they all greeted him warmly.

Tang Hao quickly scanned through them.

"President Shi, these 10000 Dao attainment points were obtained by me especially for you."

In the heaven seeking Pavilion, he saw Feng Qingyan again.

"Thank you, guild leader Feng!"

Tang Hao smiled and cupped his hands in thanks.

"There's no need to thank me. We're pretty close now." Feng Qingyan laughed.

She didn't have many friends in the spirit Toad continent, but President Shi was one of them.

“By the way, President Feng, your heaven seeking Pavilion has always been well-informed. I wonder if you have any news about innate spirit items?”

Tang Hao suddenly asked after chatting for a while.

“A connate spirit item?”

Feng Qingyan furrowed her brows, then shook her head slightly. “In the past, there was a lot of news like this. Every few years, there would be one. But now, innate spiritual objects are getting rarer and rarer.”

“I see!”

Tang Hao was a little disappointed.

The heaven seeking Pavilion was not only the number one Chamber of Commerce, but also one of the best in the field of information. But even they didn’t have such information, which showed how difficult it was to find this spiritual item.

“In fact, there are still quite a few spirit items available today. However, they are all in the hands of some major forces. Without a good force, it’s indeed difficult to gather all three spirit items and break through to the Golden immortal realm.”

Feng Qingyan said, “however, President Shi, you don’t have to be disappointed. When I receive such news, I will definitely inform you at the first moment.”

“Good! Then I’ll thank you first!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“President Shi is too polite. If you really want to thank me, why don’t you give me a few more sets of custom-made underwear?” Feng Qingyan pursed her lips and smiled.

As the Haotian faction’s business gradually expanded to every continent, they also brought the new trend of underwear to all parts of the immortal realm. Not to mention the ordinary ones, they were very popular, and the custom-made ones became a luxury in the eyes of the upper-class female Immortals and were being pursued enthusiastically.

She was in a favorable position and already had many custom-made clothes, but she still felt that it was not enough. As a woman, she naturally hoped that she had more and newer clothes in her closet.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao agreed.

To him, designing a few new sets of undergarments was a simple matter.

After chatting for a while more, he stood up and left, returning to Dragon Mountain.

He called for the two sisters, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci. He took out the cultivation that he had just bought and gave them more than 9000 pills each, which was just enough for them to advance to the earth celestial stage.
