

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3050

“Many thanks, young master!”

The two women received the Dao and bowed.

Their faces were filled with joy and they were in high spirits.

With so much Dao attainment, they could advance to earth immortal immediately.

Having been in the celestial world for so long, they also knew that even here, cultivation was an extremely rare thing. If they had to rely on themselves, they were afraid that it would take thousands of years to advance to the earth celestial stage.

But now, they could advance in an instant.

It had only been slightly more than a year since they had broken through to the celestial realm.

This speed was simply too fast, so fast that they could not believe it.

“Young master is truly a godly person!”

They sighed in their hearts.

It had only been less than two years since he came to the immortal world, but his young master had already reached the peak and his cultivation had increased by more than 90000 Dao attainment.

This speed was too heaven-defying!

Even in the immortal world, those major forces probably didn't have such speed!

When they recalled what had happened in the past two years, they felt like they were in a dream.

Haotian would be established and then expanded to every continent in the immortal world ... Everything happened too fast, so fast that it was unbelievable.

Just like what the outside world said, this was a miracle!

In less than two years, he had established such a huge Chamber of Commerce with business from all over the world. If this was not a miracle, what was it?

They raised their heads and looked at Tang Hao. Their eyes were bright and full of admiration.

“What are you guys doing? hurry up and refine it!”

Tang Hao looked at them and smiled.

“I’m just thinking, why are you so powerful, young master?”

Ji chunxuan pursed her lips and smiled.

“Yup! Young master, you’re really amazing.” His sister, Ji Qiuci, nodded her head heavily. “I have never seen someone as powerful as you, young master. Not only are you strong, but you are also so good at refining weapons and doing business. It’s as if ... You are omnipotent.”

“That long Xiaozi, to think that he’s the disciple of a golden immortal. He was so arrogant before, but he’s nothing compared to you, young master!”

When long Xiaozi was mentioned, she couldn’t help but snort, her face full of disdain.

Tang Hao could not help but laugh when he heard that.

“Alright, stop with the flattery!”

He said, shaking his head.

“Young master, this isn’t flattery! We’re just saying what’s in our hearts! Sister, don’t you agree?” Ji Qiuci laughed, her face delicate.

“Yup! Young master!”

Ji chunxuan chimed in.

“Alright! You guys go ahead!” Tang Hao smiled helplessly.

“Then, young master, we’ll take our leave!”

The two women stood up, bowed, and left.

“Elder sister, we have actually contributed to this Haotian faction, and it’s a great contribution.”

Out of the hall, Ji Qiuci raised her face and said with some pride.

“What contribution?”

Ji chunxuan was stunned.

“Think about it, if we didn’t try the clothes on ourselves, how could young master design so many beautiful undergarments?” Ji Qiuci said, “also, if we didn’t have such a good figure, we wouldn’t have been able to inspire so much of young master’s creative inspiration.”

As she spoke, she lowered her head and examined her curvaceous and graceful figure. She felt even more proud.

She had worn every set of undergarments designed by the young master. With her figure, she could perfectly display the charm of those undergarments.

Ji chunxuan was stunned at first, then her beautiful face turned red, looking extremely shy.

However, she recalled the time when she was trying on the lingerie. It was really embarrassing.

The female designs were great, but the male designs were too bold. She didn't know how she dared to wear them in front of the young master. Just thinking about it now made her face blush.

"Sister, why are you blushing?"

Seeing her like this, Ji Qiuci couldn't help but smile, her face mischievous.

"You little girl, aren't you embarrassed?"

Ji chunxuan glared at him and chided.

"Embarrassed? What are you embarrassed about? I don't know who it was that was so bold to wear anything at that time!" Ji Qiuci joked.

"You ..."

Ji chunxuan glared at him.

"What do you mean by" you "?" do you think I don't know you? Stop pretending in front of your precious little sister. " Ji Qiuci said proudly.

"Asking for a beating!"

Ji chunxuan said angrily.

"Sister, let me tell you, you can't be like this in front of the young master. It's useless to pretend to be pure. The purer you are, the less chance you have for the young master. So, you have to be bold."

Ji Qiuci laughed and acted like she was very experienced.

"Only you know? then why don't you be a little more daring?"

Ji chunxuan rolled her eyes.

"Me? That's because I'm not ready yet. Just wait and see when I'm ready!"

Ji Qiuci was stunned at first, then she raised her face and said with confidence.

"Alright! Then I'll wait!"

Ji chunxuan laughed.

The two of them bickered and quarreled along the way, and soon they were far away.

Tang Hao laughed again when he heard their conversation.

He had never been able to do anything about Qiu Ci.

“There are still more than 10000 Dao attainment left. It’s just enough for Fei Wan to advance to the earth immortal realm.”

A moment later, Tang Hao stood up and left Dragon Mountain.

Through the teleportation formation, he quickly arrived at the Li Water Tribe continent.

As soon as he entered the Li Water Tribe continent, he had specially inquired about the situation of the forbidden land. He was relieved to know that there was no movement.

Those two terrifying seniors had better keep fighting until the end of time.

Then, he went to the Holy beast Palace.

He had sensed that Fei Wan was in the Holy beast Palace.

When he arrived outside the Holy beast Palace, he asked the gate-keeping disciple to inform him.

After a long while, a beautiful figure appeared.

“You’re here!”

Yun feiwan called out in joy as she landed.

“Mm! I’m here to see you!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Good brother, I have something to do now and may not be able to accompany you for the time being. Why don’t you go to the nearby Immortal City first and wait for me? I’ll go see you soon.” Yun feiwan stepped forward and whispered.

“What’s wrong?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“It’s like this, I just received a mission from the palace, and it might take a few days. I was originally going to set off in a while, but I didn’t expect you to come.” She said.

“What mission? Why don’t you let me go with you?”

Tang Hao said.

“We’re looking for an immortal herb at the spirit Moon Mountain. Previously, we ...” Yun feiwan’s face suddenly turned red as she spoke.

However, she recalled what had happened in the mountains previously.

“That place! It’s quite dangerous inside, I’ll go with you!”

Tang Hao said.

“Alright! I don’t think they’ll refuse.”

She hesitated for a moment before nodding.

“Then wait a moment, I’ll go in and let them know.” Then, she turned around and returned to the mountain Gate.

After about half an hour, she came out with a few people behind her, four women and one man.

He recognized these four female cultivators. They were the same ones from last time.

As for the man, he was very unfamiliar.
