

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3055

The group of people swept forward without any more obstacles.

Those heaven immortal level fierce beasts had long since fled, and they had easily obtained the immortal herb.

“Senior, do you want to come to my Holy beast Palace for a visit?”

Su changgong said enthusiastically as he flew out of the mountain.

“No need! You guys take that immortal herb back and hand in the mission.” Tang Hao said.

“I see!” Su changgong was a little disappointed.

This senior was a peak heaven immortal and had extremely powerful divine powers. Even in the Holy beast Palace, there were less than ten people stronger than him. They were all golden immortal patriarchs or half-step golden Immortals who had condensed the Golden Flower of the great Dao.

If he could rope this person in, it would be of great benefit to the Holy beast Palace.

Moreover, this person just so happened to be an itinerant immortal and was close to a disciple of his Holy beast Palace. There was no better person to rope in than this.

However, since this person had rejected him, he could not force it.

“Then, senior, we’ll take our leave first. See you again if there’s a chance!”

Su changgong gave a warm smile and saluted. Then, he turned around and left with the few female Immortals.

After flying for a distance, these people slowed down.

Su changgong turned around and looked in the direction of the spirit Moon Mountain. He couldn’t help but sigh.

He really didn’t expect that the so-called earth immortal was actually a peak heaven immortal expert. Moreover, he was so generous that he casually threw out 10000 Dao attainment stones. Such a heroic method really shocked him.

In fact, he was even a little envious.

He had cultivated for so many years and only managed to save up 50000 Dao attainment points with great effort. As for fellow Daoist Yun, she had 10000 Dao attainment points in just four hours. It was really infuriating to compare people!

“Why am I not a woman!”

He mumbled as he looked down.

“Sister Yun is so lucky!”

“Yup! That senior is really too good to her. ”

At the side, a few female Immortals also looked over and said excitedly.

Their faces were filled with envy, jealousy, and hatred.

“That senior ... Is really too handsome!”

The purple-robed female deity’s eyes were shining as she spoke with a look of infatuation.

“Eh? Didn’t you say that he was trash and couldn’t compare to elder su?” A female immortal immediately laughed.

“Bah! What trash? you heard wrong. I said that the senior is very handsome, super handsome. ”

The violet-robed female immortal snorted.

She had indeed said that before, but that was because she was blind. Now that she had finally rubbed her eyes and seen clearly, she realized how handsome that senior was.

Su changgong laughed as he listened.

“You guys! What’s the point of praising him here? when we get back, try to curry favor with fellow Daoist Yun. Perhaps that senior will like you and give you some benefits!” He said with a smile.

“Yeah!”

The female Immortals ‘eyes lit up.

In the future, they would have to please sister Yun more.

“Many thanks!”

Yun feiwan turned around and said to Tang Hao.

She didn’t have the chance to thank him just now, but now she had the chance to.

“There’s no need to thank me. ”

Tang Hao shook his head and smiled.

“Ten thousand Dao attainment points!” Yun feiwan said.

When she had seen the bag full of Dao attainment, she had been shocked.

Until now, she still had a kind of unreal feeling. She had suddenly changed from the initial stage human celestial to the earth celestial realm. Her strength and status had soared by a large margin, which made her a little uncomfortable.

"10000 Dao attainment is nothing!"

Tang Hao smiled.

"That's true! You're a peak heaven immortal now. In our Holy beast Palace, you can be one of the top elders with your cultivation. More importantly, you're so rich!"

Yun feiwan pursed her lips and smiled. Her beautiful eyes looked up at him without blinking.

There was a bright glint in his eyes.

She realized that she was falling deeper and deeper.

During this period of time, she would think of him and miss him no matter what. Now, looking at him, she could not help but feel a little emotional.

"My good brother, tell me, how should I reward you?"

She gently raised her hand and caressed his face.

Her phoenix-like eyes narrowed slightly with a hint of a smile and a hint of charm.

"How about ... I do it this time ..."

She whispered in Tang Hao's ear.

Then, she chuckled and pulled him down.

Seven days passed by in a flash.

After saying goodbye to Fei Wan, Tang Hao returned to the Dragon Mountain.

In the following days, he refined weapons, went to the peach Garden, and occasionally went to Nantian city. His days were quite comfortable and peaceful.

Of course, he was also paying attention to the movements in the outside world.

He paid special attention to the information about him and the connate spirit items.

"Perhaps I should send a few avatars to the Tianling continent to keep watch and find out more about the immortal court."

Tang Hao thought of the immortal court in the heaven spirit tribe continent.

That was the entrance to the realm, the passage to the immortal world. The immortals from the lower realm all ascended through that place.

It had been almost two years since he came up here. Perhaps there would be acquaintances who would ascend from the lower realm.

His people shouldn't be. He had once warned them that they must not ascend without five or ten years because he needed time to stand firm in the immortal world.

However, people from other powers in Pangu realm or from the immortal Realms below could all ascend.

He considered for a moment and sent a few avatars to the heaven spirit division continent.

In the blink of an eye, another two months had passed.

He launched more series of immortal Academies, and also developed the next generation of heaven-reaching peaches. Not only were the fruits bigger, but the taste was also better. He also raised fish, preparing to make a unique breed.

He earned more and more money. He took a part of it to buy Dao attainment, and the rest went to buy various immortal level herbs and immortal materials.

The cultivation of the two girls, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci, had increased a lot.

One day, while Tang Hao was watering the peach Garden, a jade talisman tore open the void and arrived.

The talisman was red in color, and there was a Phoenix pattern engraved on it.

"It's guild leader Feng!"

Tang Hao recognized him. "You're not here to ask me for custom-made money again, are you?"

This President Feng was really a serious underwear lover. She had asked him to design countless custom-made collection, and each one was Wilder and bolder than the last.

He took the Jade talisman and opened it. He was stunned.

The next moment, his eyes were filled with ecstasy.

He didn't come to rush him, but he had news of the connate spirit item.

He put away the water bottle and immediately turned into a divine light, rushing toward Nantian city.

After he arrived at the heaven seeking Pavilion, he went through the pavilion's inner passage and arrived at the heaven seeking Pavilion's spirit Toad continent's headquarters to see Feng Qingyan.

"Guild leader Shi, you've arrived quite quickly!"

Feng Qingyan was surprised to see Tang Hao.

The message had just been sent and this person had already arrived. He was really fast.

"Guild leader Feng, what's the news? hurry up and tell us!"

Tang Hao was a little anxious.

He had been waiting for these connate spirit items. With two more, he would be able to break through to the Golden immortal realm.
