

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3073

“It’s so lively!”

On the heaven seeking Pavilion’s warship, Tang Hao stood at the bow of the ship and looked into the distance.

In the sky, there were large ships everywhere, as well as flying immortal radiance. Many powerful divine senses were sweeping back and forth between heaven and earth.

“It seems like they’ve already run far away!”

Feng Qingyan looked around, and her brows furrowed.

It had been yesterday that the itinerant immortal had appeared in this area. Although he was only an earth immortal, he could run far away.

“Not necessarily, let’s see!”

Tang Hao said.

They had just arrived and did not have any useful clues, so they could only follow the main group.

“They are from the heaven seeking Pavilion!”

“So many people! Oh my God! Are they all celestial Immortals?”

As soon as their large ship arrived, many divine senses probed from all directions. After seeing clearly, they first revealed a look of fear.

The heaven seeking Pavilion was the number one merchant Association in the immortal world. Behind it was the heaven seeking sect and the Feng clan. No one dared to offend them.

Then, they were shocked.

This was because there were more than a hundred people standing on the ship. All of them were exuding the aura of heaven immortal realm, and many of them were even late-stage heaven immortal realm.

Such a force was truly frightening.

“It seems like this heaven seeking Pavilion is also determined to get their hands on these spiritual items!”

Their expressions turned grave.

Before this, there were already a few top powers that had joined in. Now, with the addition of the heaven seeking Pavilion, their chances of getting the treasure had become even slimmer.

“Fairy Feng, long time no see!”

“Fairy Feng, I didn’t expect you to be interested in this spiritual item!”

Many people recognized Feng Qingyan, and they all came up to her and greeted her warmly.

This is the two elements immortal Palace’s ...”

“This one is from Luo Yun mountain ...”

Feng Qingyan returned the greeting, then turned to introduce them to Tang Hao.

“Eh? And this is ...?”

When they noticed this, they were all slightly shocked.

Originally, they thought that this man was a guest elder of the heaven seeking Pavilion, and was brought out by fairy Feng to help them seize the treasure. But it seemed that this was not the case.

Not only were the two of them standing side by side, but fairy Feng’s expression also seemed to suggest that she was quite close to this person.

“Which company is this?”

They all looked at Tang Hao.

But soon, they all looked puzzled.

This person’s cultivation seemed to be at the peak of heaven immortal realm. In those top forces, peak heaven immortal realm wasn’t particularly powerful and didn’t have a high status unless he was from the younger generation. However, this person didn’t look young.

Most young people cared a lot about their appearance, and most of them maintained their appearance in their early twenties, unlike this person who looked to be in his thirties or forties.

“You must have heard of him.” Feng Qingyan smiled, then pointed at Tang Hao and introduced him to them. “This man’s surname is Shi. He’s from the spirit Toad continent and is from Nantian city. I’m sure you’ve already guessed it!”

When the people from the other forces heard this, they were all stunned.

Spirit Toad continent, Nantian city?

Wasn’t that a remote and small place? how could there be any top forces?

“Wait, Nantian city? Isn’t that the territory of the Haotian faction? This person’s surname is Shi, could he be President Shi of the clear sky Association?”

Suddenly, someone seemed to have thought of something and exclaimed.

He looked at Tang Hao with his eyes wide open, revealing a look of intense shock.

The Haotian Association was now very powerful. The master Haotian behind them was an awesome man who had been listed on the list of Immortals five times. Although it was said that he only had the cultivation of the celestial level, his reputation and prestige were almost comparable to the figures of the celestial level of the great all-embracing heaven.

In the Dao of crafts, this person was known as the Supreme, and no one could surpass his reputation!

As the representative of master Haotian and the president of the Haotian faction, he was now the most popular figure in the immortal world.

“What? He’s that President Shi?”

The rest of the people were stunned when they heard that.

Then, their eyes revealed a fiery look.

“Guild leader Shi, it’s a pleasure! Nice to meet you!”

“Guild leader Shi, I’ve been to Nantian city before, but it’s a pity that there were too many people. I didn’t manage to get in and missed the opportunity!”

They all stepped forward and said enthusiastically.

Two years ago, the great master released the news that he would accept a Commission for artifact refining. For a time, the entire immortal world was shaken. Naturally, they all heard about it and even rushed over to accept the Commission.

Unfortunately, they were too far away. By the time they arrived, they could no longer join the queue.

They had always felt regretful about this.

They didn’t expect to meet President Shi of the clear sky Association here at this moment. This time, they had to make a good friend. Maybe they could rely on this relationship and have a master refine a treasure for them.

“Everyone is too polite!”

Tang Hao returned the gesture.

These people landed on the sky seeking Pavilion’s warship, surrounded Tang Hao, and complimented him enthusiastically.

Seeing the commotion, more people rushed over. When they heard that President Shi of the Clear Sky Association had arrived, they all rushed over excitedly.

As a result, more and more people were on the ship, and it became extremely lively.

Only when news came that there were traces of that loose immortal did these people take their leave.

“Even guild leader Shi is more popular than guild leader Feng!”

After they left, Feng Qingyan looked at Tang Hao and joked.

Tang Hao chuckled when he heard that. “They’re not complimenting me. They’re complimenting the master. They want to meet the master through me!”

“Isn’t that the same?” Feng Qingyan laughed.

“By the way, when will you let me meet master? I haven’t properly thanked Grandmaster for this spirit Phoenix immortal garment!” Then, she looked at Tang Hao with a burning gaze.

“In the future! When Grandmaster wants to, you can naturally see him!”

Tang Hao laughed it off.

“I see!”

Feng Qingyan sighed, her face full of disappointment.

“Let’s hurry! Look, they’re all rushing over!” Tang Hao quickly changed the topic and pointed ahead.

“Alright!”

Feng Qingyan then activated the ship and followed them.

“This itinerant immortal is interesting. He’s only been discovered now, and he’s hiding in the place where the connate spirit item was found.”

Tang Hao was a little surprised when he found out more about the situation.

This loose immortal is quite capable, being able to hide for so long while being pursued by so many people.

“This time, I’m afraid he can’t escape.”

Feng Qingyan said.

“Yup!”

Tang Hao nodded.

Nowadays, more and more people had joined the sect, and naturally, there were more and more powerful people, especially those golden immortal old monsters. Each of them was someone with great divine abilities. Once they were exposed, it would be as difficult as ascending to the heaven to escape from them.

“I hope I can make it in time!”

Feng Qingyan mumbled to herself as she continued to increase her speed.

About an hour later, they arrived at the scene of the incident.

At this moment, this place was surrounded by countless immortal light. There were large ships and people everywhere, making it extremely lively.
