

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3075

“Offer a price? I can’t just buy it! No, no!”

“That’s right! You can’t buy it!”

An uproar broke out in all directions.

Everyone shook their heads.

What a joke!

They were all here to Rob, and they were going to buy it for free. How could they spend money to buy it?

“I don’t think you can afford this!”

The loose immortal below sneered.

He glanced at the four forces with a face full of contempt and disdain. “To think that all of you are big forces, yet you can’t even afford this bit of money. If this were to spread, wouldn’t you become the laughingstock of the world?”

“If you don’t want to buy it, that’s fine! Hurry up and think of a way! If there’s no other way, just do as I say!”

Then, he raised the innate spiritual Jade in his hand and shouted.

“This ...”

Everyone looked left and right and was in a dilemma again.

They really couldn’t come up with a solution.

“Good! Fellow Daoist, we’ll do it according to your method!” At this time, the evildoer of Xuanyuan clan suddenly said, and then he looked at the Yuanshi sect and shouted, “ye, what do you think?”

“Alright! Let’s do this!”

Ye Futian raised his head and shouted arrogantly.

He was very confident that he had more than this guy from the Xuanyuan clan and could easily get the innate spiritual Jade.

“Then let’s do this!”

Everyone nodded in agreement.

Since the two of them had agreed, they could not object.

Now, it was a competition to see who was richer and had greater spirit.

They all had a lot of treasures, but it depended on whether it was worth it to exchange for this connate spirit item.

“Who’s first!”

Below, the itinerant immortal held the spirit Jade in his hand and looked around.

“This old man will go first!”

For a moment, no one moved. After a long while, a white-robed old man stood up and shouted.

This person was a golden immortal.

“I still have a lot of immortal crystals on me, about 50 million! What do you think?” He raised his hand, and a storage bag appeared in his palm.

Below, the loose immortal was somewhat excited.

50 million immortal crystals could buy more than 5000 Dao attainment, which could increase his strength by a lot.

However, he quickly calmed down.

This was only the first bid. There would definitely be higher bids coming up.

” 50 million is not enough! I have over 60 million here!”

Sure enough, the next moment, another golden immortal stood up and shouted.

“I bid 70 million!”

“Eighty million!”

Following that, people from all four sides stood up from time to time, bidding higher and higher, and soon the price soared to 100 million.

At this time, the number of people bidding began to decrease.

100 million immortal crystals was already a shocking amount. Even if many of them were from top forces and were golden Immortals, they wouldn’t have many immortal crystals on them.

“I bid 120 million!”

The genius of Xuanyuan clan shouted and joined the bidding.

“One hundred and thirty million!”

The genius of the primordial beginning sect shouted without hesitation.

” 140 million!”

” 150 million!”

” 160 million!”

“.....”

The two of them were at loggerheads, and sparks flew as the price soared, quickly reaching 200 million.

Behind them, their respective disciples were counting their money, taking out their own assets and putting them together.

” 210 million!”

” 220 million!”

The two of them gritted their teeth and continued to fight.

This price was already very high. They were also starting to be short on money. However, they couldn't back down. If anyone backed down, they would lose and lose face!

Below, the loose immortal was a bit dumbfounded.

He did not expect the situation to develop like this. He had originally planned to just get a few tens of millions and then run away.

He had never expected that the price would continue to soar as the two of them fought.

” 200 million? How much Dao attainment can you buy?”

He was a little dizzy and couldn't even count clearly.

“Three hundred million! The primordial beginning sect offers three hundred million!”

On the side of the Yuanshi sect, ye Futian gritted his teeth and shouted.

This was the highest price he could afford because all of them only had a little more than 300 million immortal crystals in total. He couldn't take out any more than that.

Xuanyuan chengfeng's face changed.

He also had no money!

He touched his money bag, and his face turned red.

Motherf * cker! He was only 10 to 20 million away from beating this bastard!

“Hahaha! This won’t do! Your Xuanyuan clan can’t do it! So many people added together can’t even take out 300 million, how useless!” Seeing this, ye Futian couldn’t help but laugh. He was extremely proud.

It was not a loss to buy a connate spirit item for 300 million Yuan. After all, connate spirit items were becoming rarer and rarer. It was normal for the price to be higher.

If he were to auction it off, it would definitely be able to fetch twice the price.

“Motherf * cker!”

Xuanyuan chengfeng cursed in a low voice, and his face looked a little embarrassed.

Seeing this, everyone shook their heads.

None of them could afford the price of 300 million, so this connate spirit item was already in the possession of the Yuanshi sect.

“Fellow Daoist, three hundred million, are you satisfied?”

Ye Futian grabbed the bag of money and raised it high, shouting at the individual Immortals below.

The loose immortal came back to his senses and revealed an excited expression. He was about to nod in agreement.

“Wait a moment!”

However, at this moment, a deep voice came from the side and interrupted him.

He was stunned and looked up.

Everyone else was also terrified.

At this time, there was still someone making a sound?

Could it be that this person could afford a price of over 300 million?

This ... Was not possible!

Who would have more than 300 million immortal crystals?

“It’s the heaven seeking Pavilion...Could it be that fairy Feng is going to make a bid?”

“Although fairy Feng is the president of a large continent of the heaven seeking Pavilion, she can’t possibly have so many immortal crystals, right?”

Everyone looked towards the source of the voice and was even more puzzled.

The person who had spoken was a middle-aged man who had been standing beside fairy Feng.

“It’s not fairy Feng who bid. He’s the one who bid!”

Someone who knew him said.

“You’re bidding? What is his identity?”

When everyone heard this, they were all shocked.

This person wasn’t bidding on behalf of fairy Feng. What kind of shocking background did this person have? Could it be that he had a greater background and more wealth than Xuanyuan chengfeng and ye Futian?

“This person ... Is surnamed Shi! The president of the clear sky Association!”

The man said seriously, pausing after every word.

“Clear sky Guild ... President?”

Everyone’s hearts trembled when they heard this.

The Haotian faction!

How could they not know that the famous Chamber of Commerce in the immortal realm had master Haotian, a Supreme Master of craftsmanship, behind it?

“Since he has such an identity, he does have the qualifications to compete!”

There was no doubt in everyone’s eyes.

Very quickly, they revealed even more excited expressions.

They would like to see how much wealth the president of the clear sky Association had to dare to compete with the Daluo disciples of the primitive sect for treasures!
