

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3079

“This ... How is this possible?”

The great void sovereign muttered in disbelief.

What he had just heard was too shocking!

Because the lower realm monster they were talking about was most likely that kid!

That kid didn't die!

He was also not trapped in Pangu world. Instead, like him, he had come to the starry sky and ascended.

Moreover, in the starry sky below, that guy was as monstrous as ever. He crushed the Xuanyuan clan alone and was invincible in the entire starry sky. He even seized a Celestial Emperor's Supreme treasure in front of a group of genuine Immortals from the lower realm!

All these things were really that kid's style!

The Haotian faction that had risen in the immortal world was created by that kid.

The so-called master Haotian was that kid!

“There's no mistake, it's him!”

He furrowed his brows in deep thought, and he became more and more certain.

That was because many of the characteristics matched. For example, the karma of the three immortal emperors. That kid had received the inheritance of several immortal emperors in the fallen Dao mountain, so he was naturally related to their karma.

Moreover, there was also the divine furnace.

Other than the newly obtained ten thousand laws divine mountain, that demon from the lower realm also had a furnace that could refine true immortals. Without a doubt, it was the great void divine furnace!

“How did he get out?”

“And, what's going on with Pangu world? Have they died out?”

He was full of doubts again.

“This kid is too terrifying!”

He mumbled after a long time, his eyes revealing a deep fear.

When he was in Pangu world, he was already a monster. At a young age, he had advanced to the ninth tribulation, opened the seventh Daoist field, and became the master of a Dao.

After coming to the starry sky below, he was even more powerful. He suppressed the entire starry sky and was invincible!

Even after he ascended and came to the immortal world, he was still powerful. In just four years, he had established a large Chamber of Commerce that spread all over the immortal world and accumulated an amazing wealth. His cultivation had easily reached the peak of heaven immortal!

Not long ago, he had also obtained a connate spirit item. Now, he had probably bloomed his first Golden Flower and entered the half-step golden celestial stage!

Moreover, he had easily fooled everyone in the celestial world and became the master Haotian who everyone admired!

All of this was simply too shocking! It was too unbelievable!

"I ... I'm still not as good as him!"

He mumbled, his face full of bitterness.

Just now, he had thought that the two of them were no longer on the same level. To him, that kid was already an ant-like existence. But now, he found that the kid's cultivation was actually higher than his.

This undoubtedly made him feel a huge sense of defeat!

"What's wrong with this kid? How can he be so monstrous?"

He could not help but smile bitterly.

He really couldn't see through this kid anymore because he was too monstrous. He was so monstrous that it was beyond his imagination.

When he was in Pangu world, the boy was less than a hundred years old. Now, he was only a little over a hundred years old at most.

He had reached the half-step golden celestial stage at this age. There was no such monster in the celestial world!

"He's at the half-step golden celestial stage, has two Celestial Emperor Supreme treasures, and has the celestial Emperor super power. Even a golden immortal can't do anything to him. I'm only an early heaven immortal, so I'm no match for him!"

"It's impossible for me to catch up with him. I'm afraid it's completely hopeless for me to take revenge with my strength!"

He muttered to himself, and his face gradually became sinister.

This brat was his mortal enemy, so he couldn't let him go just like that.

Although he couldn't deal with this kid with his current strength, there were still many people in the immortal world who wanted to capture this kid and take his immortal Emperor Supreme treasure!

As long as he could make use of these people, he could kill this kid!

"I heard that the people of the Xuanyuan clan have been looking for him and want to get rid of him as soon as possible. With the strength of the Xuanyuan clan, they can naturally deal with this boy, but the people of the Xuanyuan clan are too overbearing, so it's not easy to cooperate with them. Once they know the identity of that boy, they may kick me away!"

"The Yuanshi sect? That's not bad, we can go and test it out ..."

He sat in the restaurant and thought for a long time, considering all kinds of plans.

With a mature plan in mind, he stood up and headed straight for the state where the premier sect was located.

Two days later, in the primitive Palace.

In a Golden Palace, a young man in a golden robe suddenly opened his eyes.

In front of him, a jade talisman was flying towards him.

He took it and opened it. His brows furrowed slightly.

Someone had come to visit him and said that there was news that he was interested in.

"Information that interests me? Don't tell me he's a scammer!" He muttered.

With his strength and status, there was very little information that could interest him.

"Let's just meet! He's an early stage heaven immortal, so I don't think he's really bluffing!" He muttered to himself for a moment, then entered a message and sent the Jade talisman back.

A moment later, a black-robed old man came over under the guidance of his disciples.

"Come in!"

"Master!" Ye Futian called out. His eyes narrowed as he sized up the person who had come.

"Greetings, young master ye!"

The black-robed old man entered the hall, bowed, and respectfully greeted.

"You know me well!"

Ye Futian was stunned for a moment, then laughed.

Although he was an accomplished disciple of the great all-embracing heaven and had reached the Golden celestial stage a long time ago, he was an elder in the primordial beginning sect. This person should have called him elder ye or senior when they met. However, he was calling him young master ye, which was his favorite form of address.

From this, it could be seen that this person knew him quite well and had done his homework before coming.

“Naturally!”

The black-robed old man laughed.

“Good! It seems that you have come prepared. Then tell me, what kind of information is it that can interest me?” Ye Futian said.

“I heard that not long ago, someone offended you and caused you to lose face ...” Sovereign Taixu raised his head and said.

Hearing this, ye Futian’s expression changed.

The person this fellow was talking about was definitely that person with the surname Shi. This matter had indeed caused him to lose face, and he was still very unhappy.

“Why are you bringing this up? I almost forgot about it, but now that you mention it, I remember it again!”

He snorted, a little unhappy.

“Young master ye, I’m here to help you take revenge and deal with this man!” The great void sovereign laughed.

“Deal with him?”

Ye Futian was stunned, and his sword-like eyebrows immediately furrowed.

It wasn’t that he hadn’t thought about dealing with this guy, but he couldn’t bring himself to do so. After all, he was a dignified disciple of the origin immortal realm. Wouldn’t it be even more embarrassing if he were to deal with an itinerant immortal for such a small matter?

If this were to spread out, wouldn’t they be laughed at?

Besides, that guy had some status. He was the president of the clear sky Association, and had a Supreme Master of craftsmanship behind him. Moreover, he had a close relationship with the sky-seeking Pavilion, so he couldn’t be touched easily.
