

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3081

The hall was deathly silent.

Ye Futian stood there in a daze and did not come back to his senses for a long time.

The shocking news one after another had completely stunned him!

That Shi guy was not only a monster from the lower realm, but he was also master Haotian!

All three of them were actually one person!

This news was truly too shocking!

If this news were to spread out, the immortal world would definitely be shaken and it would cause huge waves.

“Can you guarantee that your information is true?”

After a long time, ye Futian came back to his senses and looked at the black-robed man with a burning gaze.

He couldn't hide the excitement on his face.

If the news was true, it would be a great thing for him and the primitive sect. Then they could catch this monster and take his two Supreme treasures of the celestial Emperor before the Xuanyuan clan!

And this information was definitely worth 50000 Dao attainment points and three connate spirit items!

“Naturally! I dare to swear on my Dao heart that I'm not lying!”

Sovereign great void said, “actually, I also ascended from the lower realm. I had some connections with this monster in my early years, which was why I could recognize him. Otherwise, I would have been deceived by him.”

“Good! Good! Good!”

Hearing this, ye Futian was so excited that his whole body was trembling.

It seemed like this news was pretty accurate!

The two Celestial Emperor's Supreme treasures would be the primitive sect's, no, his!

The primordial beginning sect was very large and had many factions. Several zenith heaven Immortals had each established a branch. With such a good thing, he naturally hoped that his branch could get all the opportunities instead of sharing them with the other branches.

With the strength of his line, it was more than enough to deal with this monster.

“Just you wait. I’ll go and gather the people now. Although my master isn’t here, there are still many golden Immortals in my lineage. If I gather all of them, it won’t be a problem to capture this monster.” He said excitedly.

As he spoke, he was about to fly out the door.

“A! Young master ye, wait!”

Sovereign Taixu hurriedly called out to him.

“What’s wrong?”

Ye Futian asked in surprise.

“Young master ye, you can’t possibly think that you can capture that demon just by killing your way to our door, right? That demon is so cunning, how could he not be on guard? if we go over now, we will only scare him away. ”

The great void sovereign said.

“This ... That guy can’t be that evil! He didn’t expect that his identity would be exposed!” Ye Futian said, frowning.

“Young master ye, you only have one chance. Are you willing to take the risk?”

The great void sovereign said.

“Then tell me, what do you have in mind?”

Ye Futian said after some hesitation.

Supreme Taixu smiled and said, “indeed, that fellow would not have expected that his identity would be exposed. Therefore, he is not very vigilant now. We can set up a trap and lure him into it. Then, we can kill him!”

“As for how to set up the trap, it’s very simple. He’s now at the peak of the heaven immortal realm, what does he need most? Naturally, it was a connate spirit item! As long as we take out an innate spirit item as a trap, we can lure it over ...”

“That’s a good idea! Alright! Let’s do this! I’ll gather some people and discuss how to set up a foolproof plan!”

Ye Futian nodded.

Then, he took out Jade talismans and sent them out.

Soon, golden lights gathered in the hall from all directions of the sect of Yuanshi.

“Hahaha! That’s great!”

“This plan will definitely succeed!”

Then, there was a burst of joyful laughter in the hall, and the atmosphere was cheerful.

“The peaches are ripe again!”

On Dragon Mountain, Tang Hao looked at the peach trees in the garden and grinned.

During this period of time, he had nothing to do, so he optimized the breed of heaven’s equal peach and planted the third generation of heaven’s equal peach.

The heaven’s equal wine had also been improved by him, and was even divided into several flavors.

The pond of fish he had been raising was finally complete. He had cultivated a type of celestial fish with the best taste and had begun to raise them in large quantities.

As for the underwear series and the immortal court, he was naturally updating his designs. Only in this way could he always lead the trend and occupy the market.

“Ai! With more money and cultivation, Fei Wan can also reach the peak of heaven immortal realm. ”

The money he had on him was still increasing, faster and faster, so fast that he could not buy any more cultivation.

The cultivation of the few big merchant associations in the spirit Toad continent had been emptied by him.

“This immortal life ... Is too satisfying!”

Tang Hao strolled around the peach forest and the pond. He planted peaches and reared fish. He felt extremely comfortable.

“What? Another connate spirit item has appeared?”

Not long after, a jade talisman tore open the void and arrived.

The Phoenix symbol on it was sent by guild leader Feng.

When he opened it, there was news about connate spirit items again. It said that an aura suspected to be a connate spirit item had appeared in a state. After the news spread, many people had already rushed over.

“It’s only been a short while, and yet another spiritual object has appeared. Didn’t they say that spiritual objects are becoming rarer and rarer?!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he squeezed the Jade talisman.

Thinking about it, it had only been four months since the last spiritual item appeared. This spiritual item appeared too frequently.

“Should I go?”

Tang Hao pondered.

Naturally, the more innate spiritual objects he had, the better. He could still use them to bloom more golden flowers of the great path. Moreover, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci also needed them.

However, he didn’t really want to go out, because the more he went out, the more he would become the focus of the world, and the greater the risk of him being exposed.

For example, he had attracted a lot of attention when he snatched the spiritual item from the Yuanshi sect’s disciple. This was not a good thing for him!

In the past, he was in urgent need of spiritual items. Now that he had three, he naturally wanted to be more stable.

“I still have to go, but I can’t let anyone know.”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment, then told President Feng that he was not going.

After that, he put on his golden fighting robe and left Dragon Mountain. He changed his appearance and quickly headed to the state where the spiritual beings appeared.

This time, there were many people. When Tang Hao arrived, he saw that the mountain range ahead was already filled with people. There were flying divine lights everywhere, and powerful divine senses were constantly sweeping the area.

“Go! Let’s go and investigate!”

Tang Hao rubbed his hands together excitedly.

He had put on his golden fighting cloak long ago and had been traveling stealthily the entire time. At this moment, he sped up and rushed into the mountains to begin his search.

“No, I didn ‘t!”

“Still nothing! Is this fake news? where did the spirit items come from?”

Everyone was searching around the mountain range.

However, after searching again and again, they were all puzzled. They couldn't even find a trace of a connate spirit object in this mountain.

"It's really strange!"

Tang Hao wore the Golden fighting cloak and mixed in with the crowd. He searched the area, but he found nothing.

"It might be fake news!"

He said to himself.

He wasn't in a hurry to leave. Instead, he stood to the side and watched.
