

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3093

BOOM!

The extreme Sky Island completely exploded and fell apart.

Figures rushed out of the island one after another, all looking extremely miserable.

They looked at the dark golden giant in front of them with unsightly expressions.

Their plan had completely failed!

This monster had actually broken their trap with his own strength!

“How could it be like this!”

Ye Futian gritted his teeth, his face full of unwillingness.

He had already gathered more than a dozen golden Immortals and even invited Daoist Ji Tian. He had thought that everything would be fine, but who would have thought that it would end up like this? not only did they fail to capture this kid, but they had also fallen into such a sorry state.

This time, the primordial beginning sect was going to lose face!

“Not good!”

Just as he was feeling annoyed, the giant pounced over and struck out with his palm.

He was immediately shocked and retreated.

Seeing this, the other golden Immortals from the primitive sect rushed forward and took out their treasures to block the attack.

Bang!

The huge palm struck and directly sent their immortal shields flying.

The next moment, it opened its mouth wide, and a bright divine light shot out.

Ye Futian had no time to avoid it and was hit by the divine light.

His body trembled violently as he flew backward, immortal blood spurting out of his mouth.

“Hurry up! Stop him!”

He was so frightened that he screamed in horror.

The power of the immortal spirit body was too terrifying!

With his strength, he could not resist at all.

In an instant, more golden Immortals rushed over and stood in front of him, taking out their treasures.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Two giant palms that covered the sky madly struck down, smacking the layers of light screens that they had opened.

The light screen exploded continuously, but it quickly opened up again, repeating this process.

The group of golden Immortals gritted their teeth in pain.

The opponent's power was too violent, and it was extremely difficult for them to block it.

"If I had known, I would have called more people!"

They were even more remorseful.

Of course, the primeval sect had more than just these people. There were many golden Immortals and even Supreme existences at the zenith heaven level. However, they did not expect that this demon would be so difficult to deal with.

"I can 't!"

After persisting for a while longer, one of the Golden Immortals suddenly let out a loud cry and fell back while spitting out immortal blood.

The defense line of the primeval sect's Immortals instantly collapsed.

The giant palm smacked over, scattering them in all directions.

"You want to leave?"

The giant snorted coldly and looked at one of them. He stretched out his hand and grabbed, first smacking away the immortal shield, then grabbed him and pinched him in his palm.

The Golden immortal subconsciously wanted to use his divine ability to escape.

But very quickly, he discovered that he couldn't move at all. He was suppressed by a terrifying aura and couldn't use any divine arts.

It was the ten thousand laws divine mountain!

His heart thumped and sank.

Before he could come back to his senses, the giant palm suddenly clenched and squeezed his body until it exploded into a bloody light.

The entire world instantly fell into dead silence.

Everyone was silent, their faces pale.

A dignified golden immortal expert had been crushed by a single palm!

This scene was simply too shocking, and it almost scared them out of their wits.

“Hurry up! Let’s go!”

When the Golden immortal was reborn and saw that the palm was about to grab him again, he screamed in horror and almost peed his pants.

He turned into a beam of light and escaped frantically.

“Why don’t we ... Just leave?”

The remaining golden Immortals of the primordial beginning sect looked at each other and had the intention to back off.

This demon was too fierce. With just the few of them, they couldn’t take him down at all. If they continued to fight, it would be futile.

Ye Futian gritted his teeth. He was still unwilling to give up.

In order to catch this demon, he had prepared for so long. Was he going to fail at the last step?

“Young master ye, let’s go!”

Supreme Taixu appeared out of nowhere and said hurriedly.

As he spoke, he glanced at the dark golden giant, and his face turned pale.

He had never thought that this kid would have such a heaven-defying method. He was almost scared to death just now.

Right now, he could only advise young master ye to leave quickly. Only young master ye could protect him. Otherwise, he would be captured by this brat and suffer a fate worse than death.

“Let’s go back first and find some more people. It won’t be too late to settle the score with him then!” Seeing that ye Futian did not move, he was a little anxious.

“Let’s go!”

Ye Futian hesitated for a moment, but he still nodded and turned to leave.

Tang Hao watched them leave, but he did not go after them.

He turned around, glanced coldly at old Daoist Ji Tian, and snorted.

This old Daoist had helped ye Futian kill him. He would remember this.

When he became a golden immortal and had enough strength, he would definitely come and kill him.

Then, he turned around and looked at the crowd, and his eyes fell on Feng Qingyan.

After getting along for a few years, they had developed some friendship. If she didn't deal with him in the future, they would still be good friends. If they fell out, he wouldn't be polite either.

He took another glance at the crowd before he retracted his immortal spirit body, tore open the void, and left.

He rushed towards Dragon Mountain as fast as he could.

His clone, as well as the two girls, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci, were still on Dragon Mountain. He had to bring them back.

Once his identity was exposed, it would definitely cause a huge uproar in the immortal world. Although he didn't know how the situation would develop, it would definitely have a huge impact on the Haotian faction. Therefore, he had to see the Changchun Taoist.

"It's almost done. I've already earned so many immortal crystals. Chunxuan, the others, and Fei Wan have all reached the peak of heaven immortal realm. They don't need much cultivation for the time being. Even if the Haotian society is gone, it won't have a big impact."

"With my current strength, if I want Dao attainment, I can just seize it directly. In any case, there will definitely be some blind people who will provoke me in the future."

He muttered to himself along the way.

A long time after he left, the people around the extreme Sky Island finally came back to their senses and exclaimed in excitement.

They could already predict what kind of uproar it would cause in the immortal world when the news spread.

The entire immortal world was bound to be in an uproar, and even those Celestials of the great all-embracing heaven who had not appeared for a long time would be alarmed!

"Hurry up! Go back!"

In the crowd, Xuanyuan lie was the first to react. He led a few Xuanyuan clansmen and rushed out immediately.

Then, the various forces left one after another, all of them wanted to send the news back to their own families as soon as possible.

“Aiya! It seems that I can’t tease this little brother anymore. What a pity!” Yao Xinyue shook her head and mumbled to herself. Her face was filled with regret.

She had once thought of capturing this handsome little brother and placing him in her Palace. Now, it seemed that this beautiful dream was going to be completely ruined.

Not far away, Feng Qingyan looked at her and was a little surprised.

But very quickly, she came to a realization.

She had heard that this demoness had once been to the lower realm, so she must have had some interactions with him. This was also why he had paid special attention to this demoness when he had seen her before.

“He ... What kind of person is he?”

She looked into the distance, in the direction where the figure had disappeared, and muttered.

That moving and beautiful face was filled with shock and a dazed expression.
