

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3095

“Fellow Daoist, rest in peace!”

“Guild leader Shi, take care!”

More and more figures flew out from all directions.

Not only the Shang Qing Grotto-heaven, even the people from the surrounding grotto-heavens and blessed lands flew out from their homes and stood in the void to join the group of people sending them off.

They looked from afar with respect in their eyes.

Whether it was president Shi, a monster from the lower realm, or master Hao Tian, they were all people worthy of their respect.

“Everyone, thank you!”

Tang Hao looked around him. He was touched.

He really didn't expect that these people would come out to send him off. He had only wanted to see the Taoist of Chang Chun, and then he left quietly.

“Hahaha! Guild leader Shi, take care! I'm waiting for you to come back, so we can drink together!”

With a burst of laughter, Daoist Jin Guang swept over and shouted.

“I will! I will!”

Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

“Fellow Daoist, take care!”

The water Moon Daoist appeared and called out from afar.

“Everyone, I'm leaving. You guys take care too!”

Tang Hao looked around him and bowed. Then, he turned around and left with the two girls.

“I really didn't expect that President Shi ... Is actually master Hao Tian, a God of crafts! I also didn't expect that he was actually that monster from the lower realm. This ... This is really somewhat unbelievable!”

When he was far away, the crowd finally made a noise.

Everyone looked into the distance, their expressions still somewhat shocked.

He was a heaven-defying monster!

In the lower realm, he had killed an immortal. In the upper realm, in just five years, he had created a huge Haotian gathering and his cultivation had soared to the half-step golden celestial stage. Moreover, he had refined a legendary immortal spiritual body that could fight against golden Celestials!

“This speed and talent are indeed a little scary!”

“If he doesn’t die, his name will definitely be on the origin immortal rankings!”

Daoist Goldlight and the others all sighed with emotion.

“What? That man surnamed Shi is the legendary monster from the lower realm. Moreover, he’s master Haotian. Even the guy who stole our treasure vault is him?”

At this moment, in the wondrous Palace, long Xiaozi scuttled up from his Lotus seat and cried out in alarm.

His eyes were wide open, filled with extreme shock and disbelief.

This news was too shocking, and he found it hard to accept.

How could that Shi guy be that monster!

Furthermore, how could he have stolen everything from the Treasury of the divine wonders Palace without anyone knowing?

He listened to the news carefully again, and his expression became more and more sluggish.

Five Golden Flowers, immortal spirit body ...

That guy’s strength had completely shocked him.

The utmost Western Pure Land.

In a Palace.

Ning Yuzhen held a jade talisman in his hand, his face blank.

That Chamber of Commerce President surnamed Shi is that bastard?

This ... How could this be possible!

She had seen that man with the surname Shi before, but she did not recognize him at all. For the past five years, no one in the immortal world had discovered him, so how could he disguise himself so perfectly?

Also, how did his strength increase so quickly?

She clenched the Jade talisman in her hand, her expression constantly changing.

She had come to the immortal world to take revenge.

But now it seemed that his hope of personally taking revenge had been completely destroyed.

At this moment, the major continents and forces were in an uproar.

The news from the skyscraping Island was too shocking. Once it spread, it instantly ignited the atmosphere of all the continents.

From disbelief at the beginning, to shock, then excitement, and wild joy.

The various forces had been searching for this monster for a long time, but to no avail, so they had all given up. Now, he had finally appeared and revealed his traces.

Even though he was strong enough to fight against a golden immortal and the dozens of golden Immortals from the primordial beginning sect could not stop him, it did not stop their greed.

Two immortal Emperor Supreme treasures!

It was an immortal spirit body that was tens of millions of feet tall and made of immortal materials!

Who could resist such a temptation!

For a time, all the forces sent out their men to the spirit Toad continent to gather information.

“Preposterous!”

“Trash! You’re all a bunch of trash!”

In the Xuanyuan clan, there were angry curses.

In the past few years, the Xuanyuan clan had sent countless people to turn the entire immortal world upside down. They had never expected that the demon was hiding right under their eyes and doing so well.

In the end, the Yuanshi sect almost succeeded.

This was definitely a disgrace!

“Find that brat, kill him, and take all the treasures!”

His angry roars reverberated throughout the entire Xuanyuan clan.

Soon, countless divine lights swept out from the Xuanyuan clan and rushed to the spirit Toad continent.

“Motherf * cker!”

In the Yuanshi sect, ye Futian led his people and landed in his own palace. He couldn't help but curse, his handsome face livid.

With more than a dozen golden Immortals and the help of the great formation of the skyscraping Island, he thought that such a plan was foolproof. However, he had never expected that the monster would have such a heaven-defying method like the immortal spirit body.

When he recalled the power of the immortal spirit body, he still felt a lingering fear.

As expected of the means of the ancient Immortals, it was too terrifying!

“Al! What a pity!”

Behind him, the group of primordial beginning sect golden Immortals sighed.

If they had known earlier, they would have brought more people. Even if they couldn't take down that demon, they wouldn't have ended up in such a sorry state.

Supreme Taixu stood at the side, not saying a word.

His face was ashen.

His painstaking plan had failed again!

Just like what had happened in Pangu world.

Could it be that the kid was really his nemesis?

Ever since he had met that kid, he had never been successful.

“What do you think we should do now?”

Ye Futian looked at him and asked, “what happened?”

Supreme Taixu frowned and shook his head. “There's nothing we can do now. We've missed our first attack. It'll be very difficult to Catch That Kid again. He'll change his identity again and go into hiding.”

“I'm sure you've seen how cunning he is. It'll be difficult to find him again!”

He laughed bitterly as he spoke.

Hearing this, ye Futian could not help but tsk.

He had also expected this, but he was somewhat unwilling to accept it.

“It’s better to send some people out and look around! At the same time, try to find out more about the other forces. They might be able to find some traces. ” He pondered for a moment and said, “as for the things I promised you, don’t worry. I won’t miss out on anything!”

With that, he flicked his sleeve and a ring flew out towards sovereign Taixu.

Supreme Taixu was overjoyed.

“Thank you, young master ye!”

After receiving it, he quickly bowed and thanked her.

50,000 Dao attainment points and three connate spirit items!

With these treasures, he could smoothly advance to the Golden immortal realm.

“No need to thank me! From now on, you’ll stay in the sect!”

Ye Futian nodded at him.

This fellow Daoist of the great void was quite scheming and understood that monster very well. It would be very beneficial to keep him by his side.

“Thank you, young master ye!”

The great void sovereign was overjoyed and quickly bowed to express his gratitude.
