

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3097

In the vast void, a divine light flashed.

After a while, he stopped.

Not far ahead, there was an ancient tai Chu tide.

He put on the Golden fighting robe and activated the ten thousand spells divine mountain. Then, he charged into the ancient tide.

A few minutes later, he came out with a smile on his face.

This time, his harvest was not small. There were seven treasures, four of which were metal-type, and the remaining three were crystal-type.

“It’s already been three months!”

He calculated the time and realized that he had been wandering aimlessly in the ancient tai Chu land for three months. He had been searching for ancient tides and treasures.

The harvest was not small, there was a huge pile of ancient immortal materials.

However, he didn’t come across any other divine items like the breathing earth or the Emperor blood yellow soil that he had obtained when he first came in.

“That’s true! How could such a divine object be so easy to find! I’m already lucky to have found it the first time.”

He shook his head and laughed bitterly.

“It’s time to go back. Otherwise, the two girls will be worried. Also, it’s been three months. I have to go and check out the situation outside.”

He muttered to himself for a moment before returning to his residence.

“My fellow cultivator, you’re back!”

Three days later, he landed in front of the cave dwelling and saw a figure flash out.

It was the origin core avatar.

At present, the strength of the origin core clone was also at the level of a half-step gold immortal. Due to his special physique, his combat strength was also close to that of a gold immortal.

Tang Hao nodded at him, then went straight into the cave.

The origin core avatar flickered and disappeared again.

“Young master!”

Upon seeing him, Ji Chunxuan bowed and greeted him respectfully.

She was dressed in white, which made her look slender and curvaceous. Her Jade-like legs were revealed, and she stood on her tiptoes to show off her elegant and perfect curves.

She had a beautiful face and a dignified and gentle temperament.

She was very different from when she was in the Ji family. Not only was her temperament more mature and dignified, but her makeup and dressing were more stunning.

“Young master, you’re finally back!”

Ji Qiuci cheered and rushed over, running into Tang Hao’s arms.

“Cough cough!”

Tang Hao was caught off guard. He felt a heavy blow to his chest. It was suffocating. He coughed and took a step back.

“Young master, did you find anything? any good treasures?”

Ji Qiuci grabbed Tang Hao’s arm and shook it, acting like a spoiled child.

She raised her head. Her face was extremely charming, especially her Phoenix eyes, which were slightly squinted. There was a bit of spring in them, a bit of charm, and it was very seductive!

“You little girl!”

Tang Hao laughed bitterly and quickly pulled his hand back.

If he continued to shake it, it would shake from time to time, and he would really not be able to take it.

Ji Qiuci covered her mouth and laughed.

“There are many treasures! However, I came back this time to inquire about the situation above and prepare to go back to take a look.” Tang Hao said seriously.

“Why should I go back? Isn’t it good here?”

Ji Qiuci was stunned.

Wasn’t the young master a half-step golden immortal? next, he just had to stabilize himself and nourish the Five Golden Flowers to successfully transcend the Tribulation.

Although this place was a little remote, it was very safe.

“Yup!” Ji chunxuan was also puzzled.

As long as he stayed here for three to five years, his young master would probably be able to pass the Tribulation.

“Master, do you think that it’s too boring here and you miss sister feiwan?” Ji Qiuci suddenly blinked and smiled at Tang Hao mischievously. “Actually, if you’re really lonely, you can consider me, your good sister!”

As she said that, she looked at Ji chunxuan. “She has wanted to warm my bed for a long time.”

“You little girl!”

Ji chunxuan furrowed her brows and raised her hand to slap him.

“Young master, she’s bullying me!” Ji Qiuci screamed and hid behind Tang Hao. Then, she reached out her hands and wrapped them around his waist.

She pressed her face against his broad back and smiled slyly.

Ji chunxuan rolled her eyes helplessly.

This girl was clearly taking advantage of the young master.

Tang Hao was used to it, so he did not think much of it.

“It’s not good to stay here. Although there are many immortal materials here, there’s not a single connate spirit item. It also lacks cultivation.” He shook his head and said solemnly.

He could hide here for three to five years, but these few years would be wasted.

He needed to collect more spiritual items and Dao attainment. Once he found the way to the lower realm, he could return and give these treasures to his family.

“That’s true!”

Ji chunxuan nodded.

She could understand. Three to five years was a very short period of time for other cultivators. It would pass in the blink of an eye. However, for a monster like the young master, it was a very long time.

“You guys get ready! When the time is right, we’ll go back!”

Tang Hao said.

“Yes, young master!”

Ji Qiuci let go of Tang Hao's hand and smiled at him.

Tang Hao returned to his own palace and sat down cross-legged. He flicked his sleeve and a jade talisman shot out, disappearing into the void.

Very quickly, a jade talisman was sent back.

He was contacting the clone he had set up in the immortal world.

Previously, he had created a large number of avatars and scattered them all over the place. These avatars had very low cultivation levels and were very unremarkable. They were the most suitable to be his eyes.

With these clones, he could understand the situation in the immortal world.

He grabbed the Jade talisman, opened it, and looked at it. He could not help but nod.

It was almost as he had expected. After three and a half months of blanket search, the momentum of the immortal world was not as fierce as it was at the beginning. Many forces had given up one after another.

They all felt that he had gone into hiding again and wouldn't show his face for a while.

"We can go up there now, but where should we go? Why don't we go here! The Xuanyuan continent!"

Tang Hao pondered for a while, then grinned.

As usual, the people of the Xuanyuan clan were looking for him all over the immortal world. They would never have thought that he would go to the Xuanyuan continent at this time, next to their old nest.

"It's decided then!"

After pondering for a while, Tang Hao stood up and informed the two girls. He then recalled his origin core clone, put on the Golden fighting robe, and headed toward the exit.

When he returned to the upper continent, he went to an Immortal City in the distance.

At this time, there was no one guarding the teleportation array in each Immortal City. After changing his appearance, he took the teleportation array and entered the Xuanyuan continent.

"Is that ... The Xuanyuan clan?"

He came to the gate of Xuanyuan's nest.

He looked up at the sky and was shocked.

There weren't islands or mountains in the sky, but layers of shadows. Each shadow had countless palaces, buildings, and countless beasts. Celestial light shuttled through these shadows.

Every single shadow was a world. Just like the 33 heavens and his Demon God World, they were all Middle Worlds.
