

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3098

“As expected of the Xuanyuan clan!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao praised.

As one of the top forces in the immortal world, with the bloodline of the renhuang, the Xuanyuan clan was indeed very powerful. Just their Mountain Gate alone could kill countless forces in seconds.

What Devil Heart sect, what divine wonder Palace, they were not even worth a fart in front of this Xuanyuan clan.

Even nine cloud Palace and Holy beast Palace, which were slightly stronger, could not compare.

“Is that ... The Xuanyuan sword?”

Tang Hao narrowed his eyes. In the sky above the layers of illusionary images, he saw a blurry shadow of a sword. It appeared for a moment and then disappeared again. It flickered and again, but every time it appeared, it would exude a vast aura that spread in all directions.

Without a doubt, this was the most famous Xuanyuan sword of the Xuanyuan clan!

In the lower starry sky, he had seen a sword that was summoned by the Xuanyuan clan, and it was exactly the same as this one.

“Good sword!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao nodded and exclaimed. He was envious.

This thing was even more powerful than his great void divine furnace.

After all, the divine furnace was only used by the great God Taixu in his early years. It was not the treasure that the great God Taixu was most proud of.

“How good would it be if I could snatch it over!”

Tang Hao touched his mouth. He was almost drooling.

“Eh? Not only is there a sword, but there’s also a brush!”

He took a closer look and saw a golden divine brush appear in the air. It appeared every five minutes, but every time it appeared, it would create golden ripples.

Looking at it this way, it was as if there were patches of golden multicolored light, making the sky resplendent.

“Good brush! Good brush!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao praised. He swallowed.

This must be the legendary Emperor brush.

The power of the Xuanyuan sword was overbearing, while this brush was mysterious.

As for how profound it was, he didn't know either. He had only heard it from others. It was common to create a world and destroy a star with a stroke of the brush.

“The treasure is a good treasure, but it's not easy to take!”

Tang Hao only felt that it was a pity.

These two treasures were both rare and precious. They were used by the Xuanyuan clan to suppress the luck of the entire clan, so it was naturally not easy to snatch them.

However, he still remembered it in his heart. When he had the strength and the opportunity in the future, he would definitely come and snatch it.

After walking around Xuanyuan, Tang Hao turned around and left.

He came to a nearby Immortal City and entered a restaurant.

In the restaurant, most of the discussions were about him.

“I think they're all useless. That demon is so powerful and cunning! They're even more cunning than those old monsters. It'll be a miracle if they can find it!”

“Yup! He's a little fox who has deceived all the people in the immortal world. Even the Xuanyuan clan was almost beaten to the ground by him. It's a joke that he still wants to find him!”

There was no lack of sneers in the crowd.

They had all heard that someone from the Xuanyuan clan had gone to the clear sky Association to investigate President Shi, but he had missed the opportunity without finding any clues.

Because of this matter, Xuanyuan clan lost all face and was laughed at by the world for several months.

“Speaking of which, that monster ... He's really a talent. It's fine if he's talented, but he's also so cunning. How are we old guys going to survive?”

Someone else sighed with a bitter look on his face.

Compared to that kid, they seemed to be inferior in terms of cultivation, intelligence, and shrewdness. They had lived for so many years, but where had they been?

“He’s a pervert. Didn’t you see that he has the karma of four celestial emperors on him? That proves that he has a great background and is a person with great karma. What’s there to compare with such a person?” Someone consoled.

“That’s true! If you can ‘t, then there’s no need to compete!”

The crowd was relieved, smiled, and happily drank their wine.

“Al! Did you guys hear? someone went to Mount reincarnation and came out safely. ”

After a while, Tang Hao suddenly heard a comment from the crowd.

His expression immediately changed.

Mount reincarnation?

It sounded like a dangerous place.

“Oh, really? Can people enter again? However, it was still very dangerous, so it was better not to go! If it’s broken inside, wouldn’t it be a waste of several thousand years of bitter cultivation?”

When the others heard this, they were first surprised, then they shook their heads.

Reincarnation mountain was famous for its danger. For Immortals like them, even if there was a slight risk of death, they wouldn’t go there.

“That’s right! That’s a terrifying place, don’t go there!”

Someone responded, his face full of fear.

Tang Hao’s brows furrowed when he heard that.

A terrifying place?

Was it that exaggerated?

His interest was immediately piqued, and he wanted to see what mysteries this place had.

Then, he asked around about the situation of this so-called reincarnation mountain.

“That place is very terrifying. All the things that die there, be it beasts or humans, will come back to life. Furthermore, they will grow fur all over their bodies and become extremely terrifying.”

“It’s said that there’s a well there, and something incredible is buried under it.”

Tang Hao was even more excited when he heard the news.

“Usually, it’s very difficult to enter that place, and it’s almost certain death. But after a period of time, the dead things inside will decrease, and some bold people will go in to explore and find some fallen immortal artifacts or immortal materials.”

“According to the recent situation, it has appeared again at this time. There should be many people going in to search for treasures.”

Tang Hao’s interest was piqued after some careful investigation.

During this period of time, the danger inside wasn’t great, so it shouldn’t be a problem to go in.

Since he had nothing to do, he might as well go and take a look. If he could pick up a connate spirit item, he would be rich.

After leaving the restaurant, Tang Hao went straight to the teleportation formation.

He went to the immortal City closest to the reincarnation mountain through the teleportation array.

“Fellow Daoist, do you want to go to Mount reincarnation?”

As soon as he stepped out of the teleportation Hall, he saw many people gathered in twos and threes in the square in front of him.

As soon as he came out, someone looked over and shouted at him.

Tang Hao glanced at them and suddenly understood.

This place was very close to Mount reincarnation, and these people were all heading there.

Because that place was too dangerous, they didn’t dare to go in alone and wanted to find some people to go in with them.

“Go!”

Tang Hao thought about it for a while, then walked over.

He wasn’t sure what was going on inside, so it would be better to find more people to accompany him. If there was any danger, he could escape in the chaos.

“Fellow Daoist, we already have five people on our side. If you join us, we’ll be leaving. Do you want to join us?”

“Fellow Daoist, we have six people on our side. We have more people than them!”

As soon as he went over, many people came out and wanted to pull him into the group.

Tang Hao looked left and right, then chose the team with the most people.
