

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3100

In the mist, seven figures were moving.

They didn't take out any treasures, and there wasn't even a trace of divine light on their bodies.

"Fellow Daoist, you must not activate your celestial core power. Otherwise, those Yin corpses will sense it. The death aura outside is not strong. We can block it with the celestial robe alone!"

The Azure-robed Daoist led the way.

He would occasionally turn around to give Tang Hao some advice.

"We can't make any big movements or we'll alert the monsters in the depths. There are many immortal materials and immortal level herbs here. Look, there's one over there."

After a moment, he suddenly raised his hand and pointed to a place not far away.

There, a ball of black divine light could be vaguely seen.

The seven of them rushed over and saw that it was a black flower, exuding an extremely heavy aura of death.

"This is a land of evil and Yin, filled with the aura of death. Most of the plants that grow here are of the same type." The Azure-robed Daoist said with a smile. As he spoke, he extended his hand and took the flower, putting it into a Jade box.

"Fellow Daoist, come, I'll give you the first harvest!"

With a smile, he handed the jade box over.

"How can I accept this!"

Tang Hao waved his hands in embarrassment.

"Al! Fellow Daoist, no need to be so polite!" The Azure-robed Daoist laughed heartily and took a step forward without any explanation. He enthusiastically stuffed the jade box into his hands and said, "this is only the first item. There will be more later."

"Yup! Fellow Daoist, just accept it!"

At the side, the ghostly young man laughed.

His face was extremely pale, and when he smiled, he looked a little scary.

"Alright! Then I'll accept it!"

Tang Hao nodded and pretended to be touched. "Thank you, everyone!"

"Al! What are you thanking me for?" The Azure-robed Daoist laughed again.

When he saw Tang Hao reach out to take the jade box, his eyes flashed with joy.

A hint of joy flashed in the eyes of the others.

"Fellow Daoist, let's continue. There are still many treasures ahead!"

The old Daoist in blue smiled and continued to lead the way.

"Look, that's another immortal herb!"

"There's a celestial artifact!"

After a short while, he found something again. There were mostly plants. Occasionally, he could even find a celestial artifact, which had been left here by people who had come in before.

The group of people split up, and it was Tang Hao's turn.

It was still a Jade box.

The Azure-robed old Daoist's eyes flashed with joy when he saw Tang Hao accept the gift.

"Fellow Daoist, there's a cave over there. There's a lot of vegetation growing inside. Let's go in and explore!" He pointed to the side and said to Tang Hao,

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded and agreed.

"Here!"

The old Daoist in blue took the lead. A moment later, a crack appeared on the mountain wall in front of them. After they entered it, they saw a winding passage leading to the underground.

The passage was also filled with a deathly pale aura. The deeper he went, the heavier the deathly aura became.

Not only was his vision obstructed, but even his divine sense was affected.

"Fellow Daoist, this way!"

The Azure-robed Daoist and the others were walking a little fast. Their figures flickered in front of them, and suddenly, they disappeared.

"Where is he?"

Tang Hao was surprised. He stopped in his tracks and tried to call out to her.

“Fellow Daoist, let’s go!”

At this moment, a gentle voice came from the front, accompanied by the sound of footsteps, a beautiful figure walked out from the pale death energy.

It was the seductive woman. She waved at Tang Hao, then turned around and walked away.

She was wearing a gauze dress, which was a little light and wrapped tightly around her full and graceful body, and the curves were shocking.

As she walked, her curves swayed slightly, creating charming fluctuations.

Tang Hao looked over and sized him up.

In terms of figure, this woman was indeed not bad. She was plump and mature, and also had some good looks. She could be considered a beauty. However, her temperament was too flirtatious and a little lewd.

“Fellow Daoist, let’s walk faster. They’re right ahead!”

After a while, she turned around and saw that Tang Hao was sizing her up. She was overjoyed.

Obviously, the medicine was starting to take effect.

That medicine was her specialty. It was colorless and tasteless. Even a heaven immortal wouldn’t be able to detect it. It was just that the effect was a little slow.

Very soon, this fellow would be controlled by his desires and completely lose his mind.

At that time, she would be able to absorb all of this person’s profound Qi and then take the opportunity to kill him.

It was extremely difficult to kill a genuine immortal, even if he was only at the earth immortal realm, let alone a heaven immortal. They couldn’t kill him with normal means. They could only use this method to kill him.

“It’s a good thing you can die in Happy Village!”

She snorted to herself.

She turned around and continued walking.

“Fellow Daoist, have you noticed that it’s a little hot here?” After taking a few steps, she suddenly stopped and fanned herself, making a look of heat. She even pulled her lapels, intentionally or otherwise.

Tang Hao stopped in his tracks, looked at her, and started acting.

“Yup! I don’t know why, but I suddenly feel a little hot. ”

He also raised his hand and fanned, looking extremely hot.

“Why do I feel a little weak? fellow Daoist, can you help me up?”

Her delicate body swayed as she held her forehead and pretended to be weak.

“Oh!”

“Okay,” Tang Hao replied. He took a few steps forward and helped her up.

She moaned and laid in his arms. She said in a charming voice, “Fellow Daoist, I don’t know why, but I’m so hot! Is there a problem here?”

“Me too! Are we poisoned? There should be some kind of vegetation nearby that can confuse the mind.”

Tang Hao said.

“Fellow Daoist, what should we do?”

She put on an anxious look. “We’re all celestial Immortals. If we can be poisoned, it means that this poison is very powerful. I’m afraid we can’t get rid of it ...”

“This ...”

Tang Hao said hesitantly.

“Fellow Daoist, why don’t we ... Work together to get rid of the poison? I don’t mind, just treat it as a short-lived marriage. ” She raised her head, her red lips slightly opened, and her eyes were like silk, full of seduction.

She raised her hand and was about to hook it around Tang Hao’s neck.

“That ... I do mind!”

Tang Hao cleared his throat.

“Ah?”

The woman was immediately stunned. Her raised arm froze there, and her charming eyes widened slightly, filled with astonishment.

This reaction, it’s not right!

This guy had been poisoned a long time ago, and it had already taken effect just now. After her seduction, he was probably already in his mind. Once she expressed that this guy should be like a hungry tiger pouncing on its food, he would pounce on her crazily. How could he still be so clear-headed?

“W-why?”

She asked subconsciously.

“Actually, it’s not convenient for me to do that!”

Tang Hao held her with one arm and scratched his head with the other. He smiled in embarrassment.

When she heard that, her mouth opened even wider, and her face was filled with confusion.

Then, her face twitched and she almost vomited blood.

F * ck!

You’re a man, where did you get that? aren’t you clearly playing with me!

This guy did not take the bait at all!

When she saw Tang Hao’s clear eyes, she immediately came to her senses. She was shocked.
