

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3109

The heaven spirit division continent.

Near the immortal court.

Many figures were hiding in the void, peeking at the gate of the immortal court.

“Soon!”

Ye Futian mumbled to himself, looking rather excited.

Everything was going smoothly!

After the target went to the upper realm, he received the news immediately and used the relationship of the primordial beginning sect in the immortal court to arrange a position for him.

If nothing unexpected happened, the target would appear soon.

At that time, they could make a move and take the target away.

With this hostage in hand, he was not afraid that the demon would not show up.

“I just didn’t expect that it wasn’t one person, but two!” He mumbled again, slightly surprised.

This time, it wasn’t just one person who had ascended. There were two of them.

“Young master ye, the other person has a deep relationship with that evildoer. If we capture them together, we will have more bargaining chips!” On the side, ning Yuzhen smiled sweetly.

She looked at the gate of the immortal court with a touch of pleasure in her eyes.

As long as she caught these two targets, her plan would succeed.

“Hahaha! That’s true!”

Ye Futian laughed out loud, his face full of joy.

The rest of the people also smiled and looked relaxed.

The operation this time was very simple. It was just to capture two little human Immortals who had just ascended.

However, there was one person who did not laugh.

“Young master ye, aren’t there too few people this time?”

The great void sovereign frowned and said worriedly.

He looked around, and the worry in his heart grew stronger.

He had always felt that there were too few people this time and that he had to send more people.

“Is it too little?”

Ye Futian was stunned for a moment, then he laughed and said, “fellow Daoist great void, you’re overthinking it! There are enough people here this time. Besides, it’s just two little human Immortals. How many people do we need?”

“It is! They’re just two little girls, I alone am enough!”

A golden immortal laughed with disdain.

“If it’s just to capture those two girls, our lineup is naturally enough. I’m just afraid ...” Supreme Taixu hesitated.

“What are you afraid of? Were they afraid that their old ancestor would show up? He was just a nobody! At most, she’s an earth immortal, what’s there to be afraid of? besides, their ancestor may not know yet!”

Xuanyuan chengfeng said with a smile.

“I’m afraid of that kid!”

The great void sovereign said in a deep voice.

“That kid? Hahaha! Are you serious? That kid is already hiding like a turtle, how could he know about this!” Xuanyuan chengfeng was stunned at first, then he laughed out loud, his face full of disdain.

“Fellow Daoist great void, you’re really overthinking things!”

Ye Futian also smiled.

How could that monster know about this!

He wasn’t a prophet!

Even if he knew, it would be a matter for the future. Now, these two girls had just come here for a day or two and hadn’t even left the gate of the immortal court. How could that guy know?

“But ...”

The great void sovereign opened his mouth and wanted to continue.

“Alright! Don’t worry, with our current formation, even if that monster comes, he won’t be able to beat us. Not to mention, he won’t even come. ” Ye Futian waved his hand and stopped him.

“I hope so!”

The great void sovereign could only nod his head.

However, he was still a little worried.

These people didn't know the kid's background and only felt that he was a little cunning. However, he knew how terrifying the kid was!

That kid had walked step by step from the ruined Qiyuan star, entered Pangu, and then entered the Saint realm. He had become a master of Dao at the age of less than a hundred years old, and had completely suppressed him, an old monster who had lived for tens of thousands of years.

This was definitely not possible with just talent.

Although Pangu world had been weakened and was far inferior to this place, there had always been many geniuses. In the past ten thousand years, who could be like that kid?

That kid's slyness, shrewdness, and schemes would not lose to him, a ten-thousand-year-old monster. In fact, he might even be better.

This was the biggest reliance that the kid could rely on to get to where he was today.

With that brat's schemes, how could he not know his own weakness?

He felt that the boy must have set up a trap in the immortal court and found out about the two girls 'whereabouts in the upper realm.

Therefore, he had already suggested to send more people, preferably those at the zenith heaven level. This way, once the kid showed up, they could suppress him directly.

However, these people did not believe it at all.

Whether it was the primitive sect, the Pure Land of the West Pole, or the Xuanyuan clan, none of them believed him. They all thought he was making a mountain out of a molehill and was simply overthinking.

“A!”

He sighed softly and helplessly.

Actually, thinking about it, these people's reactions were normal. According to common sense, it was impossible for that kid to know about this, so there was no need to invite a Daluo-level existence.

“Daoist great void, are you afraid of that guy? that's why you're always worried about this and that.”

Xuanyuan chengfeng looked at him and said in a teasing tone.

"I admit that the demon is very cunning and good at pretending. But that's all." Then, he shook his head and said in disdain.

"Yup! No matter how cunning he is, he's only a hundred years old!"

Ning Yuzhen also laughed.

In her opinion, that guy was more of an arrogant and unruly monster, not an old monster who was extremely shrewd and calculated everything.

The great void sovereign looked at them and could only smile bitterly.

"Alright, stop talking. He's out!"

Ye Futian suddenly shouted in a low voice.

Everyone raised their eyes and looked at the gate of the immortal court.

There, three figures were flying out.

The one in the front was an old man wearing a Daoist robe from the immortal court. Behind him were two beautiful women. One of them was taller and more lithe, while the other had a fiery figure and was extremely eye-catching.

After seeing it clearly, ye Futian raised his eyebrows.

These two women were both stunning.

However, he didn't pay too much attention to their looks. For someone of his level, what kind of woman had he not seen? he was no longer interested in women.

He gathered his thoughts and continued to pay attention.

After the three of them came out, they stopped at the entrance of the immortal court.

The old man took out something and handed it to the two of them. After giving them some instructions, he turned around and walked into the immortal court.

Seeing this, ye Futian immediately smiled, and a look of pride appeared on his face.

This old man was one of the spies of the primitive sect in the immortal court. He had received many benefits from the primitive sect and arranged special positions for the two girls. He even let them go to the positions themselves.

This also made it easier for them to catch people!

He had arranged everything.

“He’s out!”

A moment later, the two women at the gate moved. They flew out of the immortal court and quickly left the range of the great formation.
