

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3110

“We’ll make our move later!”

Ye Futian raised his hand and shouted.

He had to give face to the immortal court and not start a fight at the entrance.

Everyone nodded and restrained themselves.

He still had to give face to the immortal court.

“Who ... Who is that?”

However, at this moment, they were surprised to find that a divine light swept over from the side and headed straight for the two women.

“It’s the people who are going to the immortal court!”

Ye Futian glanced at it but didn’t care.

This was the immortal court, and there were always people coming and going. It was very normal for someone to go to the immortal court to do something.

Sovereign Taixu glanced over and didn’t pay much attention to it.

Firstly, it was normal for someone to appear here. Secondly, even if that brat really came, how could he be so brazen as to go and pick someone up?

“Something’s wrong!”

But the next moment, his expression changed.

Because he clearly saw that one of the two women’s face suddenly revealed a look of surprise, as if she knew the person.

“It’s him! It’s that kid! He’s here!”

He roared.

“What? That demon?”

“Why is he here?”

Ye Futian’s group was stunned.

They were in disbelief!

How did this monster know about it, and how did he come so quickly?

They had set up this place in advance and waited here for several months before they received the news and waited here. But what about this demon? Could it be that he had been waiting here for a long time?

But this ... Was too absurd!

Is that kid a monster?! He could even calculate this?

“Hurry up! Stop him!”

The great void sovereign roared again, and his face was red with anxiety.

The thing he was most worried about had still happened!

Once this kid took her away, they would have no bargaining chip to threaten him with.

“Hurry up! Do it!”

Ye Futian and the others finally came back to their senses.

They also knew that the situation was urgent, but they didn't have time to think about how that kid knew. The most important thing was to stop him and take him back.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

They immediately rushed out of the gap in the void. With a wave of their sleeves, all kinds of treasures and divine arts were blasted out and surged over.

The two girls, who were pleasantly surprised, were stunned.

For a moment, they couldn't understand the situation.

“Come here! Follow me!”

The person shouted and reached out his hand to grab the two of them, keeping them in his mobile immortal's cave.

At this time, the divine light behind them also arrived.

He flicked his hand, and countless rays of divine light flew out and exploded.

Then, layers of protective shields were opened.

However, it still couldn't withstand it. The protective shield was soon torn apart, and one treasure after another with monstrous auras bombarded over.

His body trembled and fell.

“Don’t hold back, kill him!”

Ye Futian shouted and took the lead, rushing over.

His body glowed with immortal light and Five Golden Flowers bloomed behind him, exuding the aura of the great Dao.

Behind him, the group of golden Immortals from the primordial beginning sect followed. All of them released their auras and killing intent.

Last time, on the skyscraping Island, they couldn’t defeat this monster even when they joined forces. As a result, they became a joke and were ridiculed by the world. This time, they must make this monster stay.

With the help of the Xuanyuan clan and the people of the utmost Western Pure Land, they had a great chance of keeping this monstrous talent.

On both sides of the sect, people from the Xuanyuan clan and the utmost Western Pure Land also rushed over and attacked.

Their faces were filled with shame and anger, and their killing intent was sharp.

In order to capture these two targets, they had planned for a long time and waited here for a few months. However, this kid had killed his way out and snatched them away. If this news were to spread, they would all become a joke.

Therefore, he had to make this kid stay even if he had to give it his all.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

For a moment, divine light burst out and blasted toward that figure.

Some even raised their hands and shot out beams of divine light, trying to seal off the void in all directions.

The figure was hit by a wave of attacks and fell down again.

“Something’s wrong! Something was wrong! This doesn’t seem to be him!”

Seeing this, the expressions of ye Futian and the others changed slightly.

The person below was exactly the same as that demon in terms of appearance and aura. Even his cultivation base was at the half-step golden immortal realm.

However, they just felt that something was wrong. The suppression was too smooth!

If it was really that monster, even if he didn't use his immortal spirit body, he wouldn't be in such a difficult situation with just two Immortal King Supreme treasures.

"It's a clone!"

Someone exclaimed.

His eyes were wide open, and he was extremely shocked.

Even though he was unwilling to believe it, this was the truth. The monster in front of him was just a clone.

However, it was an avatar with the cultivation base of a half-step golden immortal. How shocking and unbelievable was this!

It wouldn't be strange if he was an experienced golden immortal, but this guy was only a young demon who was just over a hundred years old!

How did he manage to refine such a clone?

"What? A clone?"

"That's impossible! How could he have a half-step golden immortal clone?"

Then, there was a burst of exclamations, and everyone was extremely shocked.

That demon had two Immortal King Supreme treasures. Not only was one immortal spirit body not enough, but he also had a half-step golden immortal clone?

What the hell ... What kind of pervert was this!

"It's the heaven Earth origin core!"

The great void sovereign said with a grave expression.

Of course, he knew about this clone. It was the heaven and earth origin core, the most magical of the three great origin cores in the world!

"What? Heaven and earth origin core?"

The crowd exclaimed again, their minds even more shocked.

This clone was actually refined from the legendary heaven and earth origin core!

"How does this guy have so many heaven-defying treasures?"

Ye Futian's eyes were red.

As an accomplished disciple of the zenith heaven, his treasures could be said to be the best in the immortal world, envied by countless people. However, in front of this demon, his treasures were nothing. Compared to the Supreme treasures of the immortal Emperor and the origin core of heaven and earth, his treasures were just trash!

“F * ck!”

Xuanyuan chengfeng was also speechless.

Then, his eyes also turned red and revealed a greedy look.

“So be it. I’ll just suppress him and cut off one of his arms!”

He shouted, grabbed a golden spear, and threw it down.

“Heaven and earth origin core? A Supreme-grade divine item!”

“Hurry up! Suppress him!”

The eyes of the monks and Daoist nuns from the utmost Western Pure Land also lit up and emitted a terrifying light.

They moved in unison, their figures chasing down.

In their opinion, although that demon had predicted this, he did not dare to come personally, so he sent this avatar over. And no matter how powerful an avatar was, it did not have the ten thousand laws divine mountain or the immortal spirit body.

Under the siege of dozens of golden Immortals, there was no way he could escape.

Next, whoever put in the most effort and captured this clone would be qualified to take it away.

Therefore, they had to compete.

Who wouldn’t want to miss out on a legendary Heaven Earth origin core?
