

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3119

“This brat is truly cunning to the extreme!”

“We have to catch him, or we’ll become a laughingstock!”

All the great eternity Immortals were cursing with gloomy faces.

They were surrounded by so many people, yet they still let that kid escape. This was really too embarrassing.

“He can even run like this?”

In the distance, ye Futian and the others were dumbfounded.

That demon actually ran away in front of so many Grand Luo Immortals?

This was too absurd!

“That brat must have planned this all along. These people have all made the mistake of underestimating him. Otherwise, how could they have given him the chance to escape?” the great void sovereign frowned.

“And now that he’s gone, it’ll probably be very difficult to catch up to him.”

As he spoke, he shook his head.

“That’s not necessarily true. How far can that kid run? how can he escape the eyes of so many zenith heaven immortal seniors?”

A golden immortal elder from the primordial beginning sect said.

He didn’t believe that the kid could really escape. This fellow Daoist of the great void had overestimated the kid’s abilities!

“Yup! That kid can’t get far!”

Ye Futian smiled and said, “after the chaotic battle just now, many seniors have remembered that kid’s aura. They can track him down with any means. This time, he won’t be able to escape!”

He had a confident look on his face.

In this world, no one could escape from the eyes of so many great eternity Immortals!

“I can sense his aura!”

At this moment, there was a cry of alarm as one of the Grand Luo Immortals immediately moved and disappeared.

When the others saw this, they immediately followed.

“We’ll see! That brat won’t be able to escape!”

Ye Futian laughed, as if he had expected it.

“Let’s go over too!”

Then, he waved his hand and led the people of the sect of Yuanshi in that direction.

The great void sovereign frowned. He hesitated for a moment before following after him.

“Eh? Where was he? Wasn’t it here just now?”

About five minutes later, the first great eternity immortal arrived. He looked around and his face suddenly sank.

There was no trace of that kid in all directions. He had obviously run far away again.

“Hmph! Let’s see where you can run to!”

He immediately took out a compass and looked around.

The needle on the compass spun rapidly and only stopped after a long time.

“This ... How is this possible?”

When he lowered his head and took a closer look, his expression changed.

According to the Compass’s direction, that kid had already run very far away and had already reached another continent. But how could he be so fast?

It was impossible to reach the immortal City in less than seven minutes from here. How did he get to the other continents?

In the immortal world, one could only cross continents easily through the teleportation array. If one wanted to fly, even if it was a zenith heaven immortal, it would take several days, let alone a kid who had just advanced to the Golden immortal realm.

“Where are they? Where is he?”

At this moment, more and more people tore through the void and rushed over.

As soon as they appeared, they all looked around and then looked at the great eternity immortal with burning eyes.

“I didn’t even see that kid!”

The man snorted and said angrily, “that kid has already run to another continent.”

“What? That’s impossible!”

“There’s no Immortal City nearby, so how did he go to the other continents?”

When everyone heard this, they were all shocked.

There were very few immortal cities in a continent that had Intercontinental teleportation arrays. There were only three or five in the xuanguang continent, and they were all very far away.

“You’re asking me? how would I know?”

The man said unhappily, “it’s in the neighboring continent. Let’s hurry there!”

With that, he flicked his sleeve, tore open the void, and rushed to the nearest Immortal City.

“Let’s go!”

The group of Grand Luo Immortals followed.

“What? That kid has already gone to another continent?”

When ye Futian and the others caught up and asked about the situation, they were all dumbfounded.

How did that kid fly to another continent in less than 15 minutes? ‘This is too F * cking fast!’

Furthermore, it was a little bizarre!

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

He didn’t have time to think and quickly followed.

The group of people rushed forward with all their might. When they arrived at the immortal City, they immediately rushed into the teleportation Hall. This astonishing formation almost scared the guards of the immortal court to death.

“Quick, go to the neighboring Qingtan state!”

The group of zenith heaven Immortals rushed into the hall and squeezed into the teleportation formation.

“Hurry up! The aura is over there!”

Exiting the transmission array, the group of people gritted their teeth tightly and hurried on with all their might.

“Al! Wait, the aura has changed, it’s not here anymore!”

After traveling for half a day, they took a closer look and discovered that the aura had changed. They had arrived at another state.

F * ck!

They all wanted to curse!

They had clearly scouted not long ago, and that brat was right in front of them. In just another quarter of an hour, they would have arrived, but in the blink of an eye, that brat had flown away again!

Moreover, the situation this time was exactly the same as before. There was no Immortal City nearby!

So, how did that kid end up in another continent?

“I’ve really seen a ghost!”

“What’s going on?”

The group of people stood on the spot, looking at each other in a daze.

“No matter what, stop the teleportation arrays of the major continents first. We’ll talk about it after we Catch That Kid!” Xuanyuan Zheng said coldly.

“Is it possible that they all stopped?” Someone said in surprise.

“What’s so difficult about it? as long as we jointly make a request to the immortal court, it won’t be a problem to stop for a few days!” Xuanyuan Zheng said.

The people here represented dozens of top forces. If they joined forces, the immortal court would naturally agree.

Didn’t they join hands to open the passage to the lower realm?

“Good! Then let’s do this!”

The group of people nodded and headed to the nearest Immortal City. They passed the news to the immortal court through the personnel of the immortal court.

Soon, the teleportation arrays of the major continents were gradually deactivated.

This situation also caused a great uproar in the immortal world.

This was the first time that the teleportation arrays had been deactivated since the establishment of the teleportation system in each continent!

“What’s happening? Is the teleportation formation broken?”

“Hey! At most, one or two of them would be broken. Could so many of them be broken at once? I heard that not only our Immortal City, but all the teleportation formations in the entire continent have been stopped!”

In the various immortal cities, everyone was discussing this matter.

At first, they thought that their own continent’s teleportation array had stopped, but very quickly, news came that other continents’ teleportation arrays had stopped as well. This undoubtedly triggered an even greater wave.

“What’s going on?”

They were all shocked.

The teleportation arrays of so many continents had all stopped. Something big must have happened, and it must be an earth-shattering big event!

As expected, not long after, a piece of news came and caused an uproar in all the continents.

“It’s that demon!”

“Xuanyuan clan, primitive sect ... Dozens of top forces jointly requested the immortal court to disable all the teleportation formations in the immortal world in order to catch that demon!”

“That demon ... He has already successfully transcended the Tribulation and advanced to golden immortal!”
