

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3120

This piece of news shocked the entire immortal world.

That monster had already successfully passed the Tribulation!

How old was he?

He was only a little over a hundred years old!

This was the youngest golden immortal ever born in the history of the immortal world!

What shocked them even more was that after the heavenly Tribulation, that monster managed to escape from the encirclement of a group of zenith heaven Immortals.

Moreover, in order to chase him, those celestial of the great all-embracing heaven even asked the immortal court to stop all the teleportation formations in the immortal world!

Such a thing had never happened before in the immortal world!

Not only had the teleportation formation never stopped, no one had ever been able to escape from so many Grand Luo Immortals.

That monster was the first one!

“I heard that the demon is very heaven-defying. He directly swallowed the Tribulation Thunder and could even fight with a celestial of the great all-embracing heaven. He’s not human!”

“That group of Grand Luo Immortals was tricked. They were careless and let that demon escape.”

The crowd discussed animatedly, all extremely excited.

They were already in awe of that monster.

Before this, that demon had deceived everyone in the immortal world and thwarted the primordial beginning sect’s pursuit twice. Now, he had fooled a group of zenith heaven Immortals and escaped from their hands.

This was simply too awesome!

“I heard that the group of zenith heaven Immortals are going crazy. They’re crazily chasing after him!”

“I wonder if they’ll be able to catch up?”

“I think we can still catch up with him. Think about it, there are so many Celestials of the great all-embracing heaven. I heard that the one from the Xuanyuan clan even brought the Emperor brush. Do you think that demon can escape from such a lineup?”

“That’s right. Even his aura has been locked on. He can escape for now, but he can’t escape forever. In a few days, I’m afraid he will be caught.”

No one was optimistic about the outcome of that monster.

They all felt that they would eventually be caught up.

No one could escape from the pursuit of so many great eternity Immortals.

Hence, they did nothing but wait for the news and paid close attention.

“He’s still so cunning! You can even escape from this!”

The utmost Western Pure Land.

Ning Yuzhen heard the news and could not help but sneer.

Then, he revealed a disdainful look.

So what if he could escape once? he had already angered so many great eternity Immortals. There was no way he could escape. Moreover, once he was caught, he would have a miserable end!

“I’ll be waiting for the good news!”

She picked up the teacup on the table, took a sip, and smiled comfortably.

Heaven seeking Pavilion, spirit Toad continent headquarters.

Feng Qingyan held a jade talisman in her hand and sighed.

Her brows were slightly furrowed and her beautiful eyes were filled with worry.

“I’m afraid it’s going to be difficult this time!” She said to herself.

This trip involved too many top forces, so many Grand Luo Immortals, even her heaven seeking sect was among them. How could President Shi, no, fellow Daoist Tang, escape from this disaster?

She clenched her fists tightly and felt a deep sense of powerlessness.

After a few years of getting along, she had some feelings for fellow cultivator Tang.

Especially after knowing that he was master Haotian, her mind had a subtle change. During this time, she had been paying attention to him and inquiring about his news. She was worried about him.

Now that he heard such news, he naturally felt even more uncomfortable and helpless.

“Guild leader Shi has successfully transcended his tribulation!”

“So many great eternity Immortals are chasing him. The entire immortal world is in an uproar!”

Spirit Toad continent, Nantian city.

When the news reached here, the entire city was in an uproar.

“What a bunch of dogs. So many people are chasing after one person. How can they be so shameless?”

“It is! You’re too shameless!”

Everyone discussed excitedly. When they talked about President Shi, their faces were full of pride. When they talked about the group of Grand Luo Immortals, they even wanted to curse a few times.

The various continents of the immortal world were in an uproar, while the group of Grand Luo Immortals was still bitterly tracking him.

The more they chased, the more they felt that something was wrong.

The teleportation formation had clearly been closed, and no one was left, but that kid could still quickly rush to other continents. Every time they were about to arrive, that kid would suddenly fly away and appear in the next continent.

By the time they had painstakingly rushed over, the same situation had repeated itself.

Again and again, it was the same every time. They were about to vomit blood!

It turned out that the kid wasn’t hiding from the pursuit, but was walking them!

“This damn brat, don’t let me catch him ...”

They were so angry that they gritted their teeth, their faces ashen.

They had been chasing her for seven or eight days, and the outside world was in chaos, but they still hadn’t caught her. They had really lost all their face!

“There’s clearly no teleportation array, so how did he get to the other continents?”

After missing again, they stopped and began to ponder.

This matter was really too strange!

“Do you guys think it’s possible that the kid has someone helping him and using some kind of treasure to tear open the void and connect the two worlds?” Someone said after thinking for a moment.

“The method you mentioned is possible if it’s only used once, but that kid has used it more than ten times. Doesn’t that mean that he has more than a dozen people waiting for him in various continents?”

Someone immediately shook his head and retorted.

“That’s right! Even if someone came to help, it would be too late! It takes time to send a message across continents. How can he make it in time every time? so your method is not feasible!”

The others also denied this conjecture.

“Is it possible that the kid has set up his own teleportation array in all the major continents?”

A moment later, someone said in a joking tone.

“Hahaha! How was that possible? That was a teleportation array! It’s extremely troublesome to set it up, and it’s expensive to make. How could that kid have done it?”

Someone immediately laughed.

The teleportation formation was a very troublesome thing. Only the immortal court had the ability to build a complete set of teleportation systems in the major continents of the immortal world.

Then, there were top Chambers of Commerce like the heaven seeking Pavilion. They also had their own teleportation system, but it was even more simple.

However, these were all top forces, and that kid was just one person!

How could he have built his own teleportation system in all the major continents in such a short time?

“Yup! It’s impossible!”

The others nodded in agreement.

This thought was truly somewhat absurd!

It was impossible!

However, there were also people who looked hesitant, because based on the current situation, perhaps this most impossible guess was the truth!

They turned around, their eyes shining with a divine light. They kept scanning the surroundings, looking for any clues.

“What’s that?”

Suddenly, Xuanyuan Zheng’s body trembled, and his eyes froze.

Not far away, there was a Valley with ruins in it. It seemed to have been razed to the ground by people. When he sensed it carefully, he could still feel some celestial core power fluctuations, which meant that it had happened not long ago.

His face darkened and he immediately dashed into the valley to investigate.
