

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3122

“This kid is very good!”

“I’ll remember this!”

The group of Grand Luo Immortals looked into the distance, all of them gritting their teeth.

They turned around and left angrily after they spat out those words.

“You’re not going to chase us anymore?”

In the distance, ye Futian and the others had caught up on the Yuanshi sect’s warship. They were stunned when they saw this scene.

“Chase? Chase my ass!”

With an angry curse, the heavenly Dao Daoist appeared on the ship.

“That stinky brat is simply too hateful! You dare to play me, Hmph! He really wasn’t afraid of death! When I catch him in the future, just watch how I’ll deal with him!” Then, he began to curse, his face flushed red.

Everyone on the ship kept their mouths shut and lowered their heads, not daring to make a sound.

At this moment, the celestial venerable was like a barrel of gunpowder, and whoever lit it would explode!

He really didn’t catch up?

Ye Futian stood at the bow of the ship, still in a daze.

He still didn’t dare to believe that the demon had successfully escaped from the pursuit of a group of great eternity Immortals.

“Al!”

The great void sovereign looked into the distance. After a long time, he retracted his gaze and sighed deeply.

No matter how highly he thought of the kid, he did not think that the kid could really escape.

“He’s already a golden immortal. If he’s allowed to continue growing, he’ll soon reach the mid and late stages of the Golden immortal realm. At that time, who in the entire immortal world would be able to suppress him?”

He laughed bitterly in his heart, feeling a little helpless.

“Let’s all go! Hurry back!”

A moment later, heaven Daoist priest had enough of venting his anger. He restrained his expression and shouted coldly.

The next moment, the warship started and quickly left.

Not long after, the news spread and once again shocked the entire immortal world.

Everyone was in disbelief.

This result had completely exceeded all of their expectations.

In history, the largest and most large-scale chase had actually ended in failure!

For a time, the entire immortal world was in an uproar because of this news.

“What? You didn’t catch up?”

In the utmost Western Pure Land, when ning Yuzhen heard the news, his entire body trembled and he was stunned on the spot.

“This ... This is impossible!”

She kept mumbling like she was in a trance.

In the spirit Toad continent, in the heaven seeking Pavilion headquarters, and in Nantian city, Feng Qingyan and the group of individual Immortals were also in disbelief at first. But soon, they revealed a look of joy, as if a heavy burden had been lifted off their shoulders.

“F * ck! What the hell! A bunch of trash! Trash!”

In the divine wonder Palace, long Xiaozi was so angry that he smashed all the bottles and jars in the hall into pieces.

He had thought that with a group of great eternity Immortals, it would be easy to catch them, but in the end, these great eternity Immortals were a group of trash. After chasing for more than a month, they had actually lost them!

“Trash! You’re all useless!”

He cursed and continued to smash things in his Hall to vent his anger.

At this moment, in a Valley in a corner of the immortal world.

A ray of light flashed and a figure stepped out.

“I should have completely shaken them off!”

He turned around and muttered.

He teleported over a dozen times and used ten thousand laws divine mountain to completely conceal his aura, cutting off those people’s tracking techniques.

“Let’s wait and see!”

He was still a little worried, so he immediately opened up a cave abode at the side and stayed there.

He had stayed here for half a month before he was sure that he had truly shaken off the group of zenith heaven eccentrics.

He immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

For this tribulation, he had made a lot of preparations and ran around the immortal world. Now it seemed that all this hard work was worth it.

It was with these preparations that he was able to tide through this crisis without any mishaps.

Now that the crisis was over, he could relax.

Now, he was already a golden immortal. In the entire immortal world, he was also an expert. Even if his identity was exposed in the future, he would be able to escape safely if he encountered a great eternity immortal.

“We don’t need to hide in the absolute beginning land anymore. It’s too remote there. But if we don’t stay there, where should we go? It seems like it’s time to change my identity!”

He fell into deep thought.

However, he did not have any good ideas for the time being.

“Forget it, let’s go pick up chunxuan and lady su first!”

After a long time, he got up, left the cave, and went to the land of absolute beginning.

He had left Chun Xuan and the others, as well as his origin core clone, there.

Tang Hao picked them up and left the land of absolute beginning.

He changed his appearance and turned into an ordinary-looking young man.

“Should I be a loose cultivator or sneak into a sect?”

Tang Hao kept thinking about it as they walked.

With his current strength, it didn't matter which one he chose.

He strolled around for a few days. One day, he came to an Immortal City. He entered a restaurant and sat down, asking around for information.

Among them, there was one piece of news that caught his attention.

There was a force called Emperor puppet sect that was about to open its Mountain Gate and prepare to recruit disciples.

When this news came out, the entire restaurant was in a frenzy.

And it was precisely this abnormally explosive atmosphere that attracted his attention.

"Emperor puppet sect? I don't think I've heard of it before?"

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He thought about it, but he could not recall anything.

He knew that there was no such power in the immortal world.

When he first heard this name, he thought it was a very small force, so small that he had never heard of it before. However, the situation in the restaurant told him that it was impossible for this to be a small force. It must have a big background.

"Fellow Daoist, what is the background of this Emperor puppet sect?"

He asked around.

"Fellow Daoist, you're still very young! It's normal to not have heard of this Emperor Xun sect, because it's been almost a thousand years since they've appeared." The man looked at Tang Hao and smiled.

"A thousand years?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

In the immortal realm, there was actually a force that had been hidden for more than a thousand years!

"Is this Emperor puppet sect very powerful?"

Tang Hao asked.

"That's for sure. A thousand years ago, this Emperor puppet sect was an existence that no one dared to provoke."

That person laughed, his eyes revealing a look of reminiscence and longing, as if he revered Emperor puppet sect.

"It's that awesome?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

“Hahaha! Isn’t that so!” The man stroked his beard and laughed.

“Is it as powerful as the premier sect and the sky seeking sect?”

Tang Hao asked again.

“He’s even more powerful!”

“Are there many great eternity Immortals?”

“Great eternity immortal? No! At least, there wasn’t a single one a thousand years ago. I don’t know now.”

“No great eternity immortal? How could he be so powerful?”

Tang Hao was confused.

If there were no zenith heaven Immortals, then there would only be a group of golden Immortals. At most, they would be slightly stronger than the nine cloud Palace and the sacred beast Palace. How could they compare with the heaven seeking sect and the primitive sect, who had several zenith heaven Immortals?

“Because, in this Emperor Xun sect, there’s a figure even more powerful than a great eternity immortal! He’s at the celestial King level, a Supreme existence!”

The man said seriously, pausing after every word.
