

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3124

“Group two, gather here!”

“Group One, come over here!”

After entering the door, a few shouts could be heard.

There was a huge square in front of them, and many people had already gathered there. They were divided into three groups, and they just happened to correspond to the people who had entered the three levels.

Among them, the middle one had the most, several times more than the two sides.

Tang Hao lowered his head and looked at the token.

On one side, the word “two” was carved, and on the other side, the word “3001” was written.

He held the token and walked to the center of the square.

After lining up, he observed for a moment. This should be the first round of selection, because there was a mirror in front of the line. Everyone had to go up and look at themselves. It was obviously the aging mirror.

This round was to eliminate those who faked their ages and those whose cultivation levels did not meet the standard.

He had nothing to worry about.

He did not fake his age. As for his cultivation level, he had disguised it. With the ten thousand laws divine mountain, he was not afraid of being seen through.

“Look, it’s Princess Zi Yang’s turn!”

“What? She’s here? He’s a top-notch monster!”

Someone in the crowd suddenly exclaimed.

Many people stood on their tiptoes and looked to the front of the line, their eyes filled with amazement.

Not only was this Princess Zi Yang the princess of a great Immortal Dynasty, her talent was also outstanding. She was a famous monster, and she was also born with a heavenly beauty. She was one of the most famous people among the younger generation of the immortal world.

She had come to participate in the entrance test of Emperor puppet sect, which was beyond the expectations of many people.

And this made many people even more excited.

With Princess Zi Yang's talent, it would be very easy for them to enter the sect. If they could enter, they would be able to become fellow disciples of Princess Zi Yang and have the opportunity to get close to her.

Tang Hao listened for a while, then looked ahead and saw the princess Zi Yang they were talking about.

Her looks were indeed not bad, and she could be considered a stunning beauty.

However, Tang Hao was used to seeing such beautiful women, so he did not feel anything for her.

Not to mention Chun Xuan, Qiu Ci, Miss Su, and the Ye girl, they were not inferior to this person.

Therefore, he only glanced at it once before he lost interest and retracted his gaze.

He had actually heard of Princess Zi Yang before. After all, she was a famous member of the younger generation in the immortal world. Occasionally, he would hear some news about her, but he was not very interested in her and did not keep it in mind.

After a short while, Princess Zi Yang passed the test and continued to move forward.

The team continued to move forward.

When it was some evildoers' turn, it would be lively for a while. Everyone pointed forward and discussed animatedly.

Most of the people were able to pass smoothly, but there were also a small number of people who were exposed to be faking their age. They were caught by the people of the Emperor puppet sect, severely injured, and thrown out.

"These people are really bold. They don't even take a look at where they are. They really think that they can hide from the people of Emperor puppet sect with their little tricks!"

Every time this happened, the crowd would gloat and sneer.

This was the Thearch puppet sect, a force with Immortal King experts. It was extremely stupid to try to fake it here and get through it!

It was simply impossible for anyone to deceive the people of the Emperor puppet sect and mix in!

Tang Hao's expression would turn strange.

After a few hours, it was finally his turn.

"Next!"

"Tang Hao!" An old man among the few Thearch puppet sect members standing in front of the aging mirror raised his head and shouted.

“They’re here!”

“Okay!” Tang Hao replied and stepped forward.

He wasn’t nervous at all, and very naturally walked in front of the treasured mirror.

He could tell that the mirror was a pure time mirror that could only be used to check one’s age. The elder was a golden immortal, and it was his duty to check one’s cultivation and disguise one’s identity.

And a mere golden immortal was not enough to see through his disguise.

“Qin Dali, right? Come, face this way and look into the mirror!”

The old man took the token from Tang Hao and glanced at it. Then, he raised his head and looked at Tang Hao with bright eyes.

He examined Tang Hao from head to toe, then nodded.

There was no problem, it was very normal. Since he did not change his appearance, his cultivation had reached the standard, with 6000 Dao attainment.

When he looked into the mirror again, the results were out.

“One hundred and four years old?”

Seeing this result, he was slightly stunned.

There were many people who came to take the entrance test, but there were very few people who just happened to be stuck at a little over a hundred. They either went to take the first group’s test with a hundred or less, or they went for the test with a hundred and fifty.

There were also many geniuses who came this time, but they were basically all two to three hundred years old and their cultivation was at the earth immortal level, or even the heaven immortal level.

However, it was very rare for a hundred-something people to have their cultivation base stuck at the standard.

“A little over a hundred, and you have six thousand Dao attainment. You should have some background. Not bad!”

He nodded with a look of admiration.

Compared to those older freaks, he preferred the younger ones. Because they were young, when they grew up in the future, they would have a strong sense of belonging to the sect.

“Alright, let’s go in!”

He smiled and threw the token back.

“Many thanks, senior!”

Tang Hao took it and bowed.

When he stood up, his face was already showing a bright smile.

The first stage was over, and the next stage was very simple. As long as he mixed around, he could enter the Emperor puppet sect lying down.

“This way!”

He took a few steps forward, and someone led him to fly forward.

After flying past a few mountains, he arrived at a floating island.

There were already many people gathered on the island. They were all those who had passed the first round of tests.

“Everyone, please calm down. The second round of the test will begin when there are more people!”

Some people from the Thearch puppet sect stood in the air and shouted at the people on the island.

Tang Hao was not in a hurry. He found a corner and waited patiently.

“I wonder what the second test will be. Based on the standards of the Emperor puppet sect, it must be very difficult!”

“No matter how difficult it is, we have to hold on. As long as we can sneak into the Emperor puppet sect and have an Immortal King as our backing, we will have no one to fear in the future!”

Everyone on the island was discussing the second round of the test and speculating.

As time passed, the number of people on the island increased, and soon, there were more than 10000 people.

Their cultivations varied. Most of them were at the human celestial stage, but there were also many at the earth celestial stage. There were also some at the heaven celestial stage, but only a few of them. Each of them was a famous monster.

“Look, another monster is here. He’s in the heaven celestial stage!”

Suddenly, there was another commotion in the crowd.

They raised their heads and looked at a figure that was flying over from not far away. They cried out in surprise.

Tang Hao raised his head and glanced at the screen.

He was stunned when he saw it clearly.

Because he was very familiar with this person.

“I know him. He’s from the mystical palace of the spirit Toad continent. His name is long Xiaozi. He’s the most famous monster in the spirit Toad continent and the disciple of a golden immortal!”

Very quickly, someone recognized it and exclaimed in a low voice.

Tang Hao’s expression turned strange as he stared at the man.
