

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3126

“The rules for the second round of the test are very simple!”

“In a while, you will enter a middle world. That is the place where our Thearch puppet sect raises spirit beasts. There are many powerful beasts there, ranging from the human immortal stage to the heaven immortal stage. There are even golden immortal stage beasts.”

“Your mission is to stay in there for seven days!”

“Only those who have completed the seven days can be considered to have passed and can enter the final round of the test. Those who withdraw halfway will be regarded as forfeiting and will be eliminated!”

The Golden-robed old man stood in the air and shouted.

As soon as he finished speaking, the square began to boil.

“There’s even a golden immortal? You must be joking!”

“This is too dangerous. What if we die inside?”

Many people were shocked.

Many of them were only at the human immortal stage. It was already dangerous for them to face an earth immortal or a heaven immortal, let alone a golden immortal.

Once they encountered it, they would die without a doubt.

“Silence!”

The old man looked around with a slightly displeased expression.

“Since it’s a test, it’s naturally a little dangerous. If you don’t dare, you can leave now. I won’t stop you. My Emperor puppet sect didn’t beg you to come in.” He shouted coldly.

In an instant, everyone fell silent.

They were all here to hug someone’s thigh, so they were naturally unwilling to leave just like that.

“This is a special token. Each of you will have one. When you encounter danger and want to leave, just crush this token and you will be able to come out.”

The old man took out a golden token and shook it.

“Of course, once you use this token, you will be eliminated.”

“Do you guys have any other questions?”

For a moment, no one made a sound.

“Good! Then let’s begin!”

As the old man spoke, he flicked his sleeve, and ripples appeared in the void behind him, revealing a passage.

Beside him, a few other people rushed over, each holding a storage bag.

They stretched out their hands and took out a handful of tokens.

“Now, one by one, come up and take the token. Go in!”

The old man shouted.

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

Everyone immediately rushed forward, fighting to take the token and stepped into the ripples.

“This stage is simple. It’s too simple!”

Tang Hao mumbled as he followed the crowd.

He really didn’t expect that this test would be so simple. He didn’t have to do anything and just had to stay in there for seven days. Was there any test simpler than this?

All he had to do was enter, find a remote place to stay, and lie down for seven days.

“Hahaha! It’s too easy!”

“It’s just seven days! Even if it’s a year, so what!”

A burst of laughter came from the front of the crowd. It was long Xiaozi.

He was taking a token, laughing loudly, and stepping into the ripples in a carefree manner.

Behind him, the other geniuses also walked in with their heads held high and their chests puffed out, extremely confident.

They were all heaven Immortals with good equipment. Even if they encountered a fierce beast of gold immortal level, they would have a way to escape, so they were not afraid at all.

It was Tang Hao’s turn soon. He took the token and entered the ripple.

The void changed and he was in another world.

As far as the eye could see, it was a vast mountain range.

OWW! Roar!

From time to time, deafening roars of beasts could be heard from all directions.

Looking in the direction of the sound, he saw many ferocious beasts. Some of them had revealed their complete body size. They were tens of millions of feet tall and were terrifyingly large. Some had shrunk to only two or three feet, but their auras were equally terrifying.

He also saw many divine lights dancing in all directions, all of which were heading into the distance.

Some ferocious beasts were chasing after these divine lights, and a few battles broke out.

Tang Hao stood in the air for a while and realized that there were beasts spying on him from all directions.

These beasts were at least at the human immortal level, and each of them had extremely high spiritual intelligence, no different from humans.

“Let’s go!”

He muttered.

The aura he was revealing now was only 6000 Dao attainment, but in the eyes of these beasts, he was a hot commodity!

“Let’s just stay here!”

He flew into the distance, looked around, and found a good place.

There weren’t any ferocious beasts in the surroundings, at most a few human Immortals.

He took out a few layers of formations and set them down.

In this way, he could completely conceal his aura. Not only the ferocious beasts here, but even the immortals who were participating in the test together with him would not be able to discover him.

As long as he stayed in this formation for a full seven days, he would be able to muddle through.

“I didn’t expect that I’d start doing it now!”

He chuckled and lay down.

He didn’t plan to do anything because he was worried that someone was spying on this world. After all, this was a test, and there would definitely be golden Immortals from the Emperor puppet sect watching.

Therefore, it would be best if he did nothing during these seven days.

Thus, he closed his eyes and fell into a deep sleep.

Three days passed by quickly.

At this time, in the outside world, the Golden immortal who presided over the test was holding a mirror and constantly checking the situation in this world.

This test was to see the abilities of these people.

In this place full of fierce beasts and danger lurking everywhere, it was best to test their true strength.

“Mm! Not bad! You’re indeed the successor of the Taiyi celestial dynasty!”

The image in the mirror was fixed on a purple-robed female immortal. She was controlling two immortal swords and fighting a heaven immortal level giant ape. The battle was in full swing.

He looked at it for a while, and his eyes revealed a look of admiration.

This man was very young, just over two hundred and fifty years old, but he had already reached the mid-stage heaven immortal realm. Whether it was his physique or divine power, he was among the best.

His Thearch puppet sect truly needed such a genius!

After being sealed off for more than a thousand years, the younger generation of his Emperor puppet sect was clearly lacking in talent. He urgently needed to replenish such top geniuses.

“This successor of the mysterious Palace seems to be pretty good!”

He flicked his sleeve, and the scene changed to long Xiaozi.

Long Xiaozi was standing in the void, using his treasure to fight against three early heaven immortal ferocious beasts. The battle was extremely intense.

“Good! Good!”

The elderly golden immortal watched for a while and was somewhat excited.

This descendant of the divine wonder Palace was quite powerful!

“This successor of the Ling Xiao Mountain is not bad!”

“This person from the great sage Palace is amazing! He’s a battle maniac!”

He looked at them one by one, and every time he saw those monsters, he would smile in satisfaction.

“Next!”

He laughed and waved his sleeve. The image in the mirror immediately changed to another person.

When he focused his eyes, his laughter stopped abruptly.

He was completely stunned. His eyes slowly widened, revealing an expression of extreme disbelief.

“This guy ... What is he doing?”

He mumbled, his face dazed.

The scene in the mirror was still. It was so quiet and peaceful, without any noise.

The person in the image was lying on the ground with his eyes closed, not moving.

Upon closer inspection, one could see that his chest was rhythmically rising and falling.

He stared at it for a long time, almost thinking that he was seeing things.

However, when he rubbed his eyes, the scene still did not change.

Motherf * cker!

This little bastard was clearly sleeping!

While the others were fighting intensely, this fellow was lying on the ground and sleeping!

His face gradually twitched, and he had a strong urge to vomit blood.
