

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3139

“Let me go!”

“We’re the disciples of Emperor puppet sect, you can’t touch us!”

Long Xiaozi and the rest roared madly.

They wanted to struggle, but they found that their bodies were powerless, and their divine arts seemed to be restrained. It was obvious that they had been poisoned by some kind of extremely powerful poison. In addition, these Merman treasures also had the effect of suppressing celestial core power, so they couldn’t break free at all.

“Hahaha! Di gang sect’s disciple? Amazing! Didn’t everyone who came in do so? A few thousand years ago, we even ate a few!”

A wave of mocking laughter instantly rose up from the square kun race.

“Tsk tsk! Look at how smooth and tender her skin is! It must be very comfortable to touch!”

“That one’s good looking, he’s more handsome ...”

“That perky butt ...”

Then, they pointed at the five of them and laughed with lustful eyes.

Hearing these words, the five of them were stunned at first, not daring to believe their ears.

They were both men!

These mermen were all men!

“We’re finished!”

All of a sudden, long Xiaozi seemed to have thought of something. His entire body trembled, and his face turned pale.

He looked around and saw the tall and sturdy mermen. His eyes widened and were filled with extreme fear and despair.

“Don’t ... Don ‘t!”

He muttered, his entire body trembling violently.

He had never felt such fear in his entire life. Even when he was training in the past and faced ferocious beasts that were several times stronger than him, he did not feel a trace of fear.

But at this moment, he was scared out of his wits and his mind was on the verge of collapse.

The others quickly thought of the same thing and began to shiver, their faces pale with fear.

“You ... You can’t do this. We’re disciples of the Emperor puppet sect ...”

They could only struggle helplessly and roar.

But the more they struggled, the more excited the mermen around them became.

“Hahaha! Why can’t we? our black nightmare race has an oath with the greater sect that anyone who enters this realm can be dealt with as they wish.” The Darklight king split the crowd apart and flew forward, laughing loudly.

“Tsk tsk! This human man was indeed different. He’s so F * cking awesome!”

Then, he laughed excitedly.

“Don’t worry, once this King has visited them and is tired of playing with them, I’ll give them to you! Now, let’s go!”

He raised his hand and shouted in all directions.

The group of mermen cheered and escorted the five of them to the palace of the mermen.

“Don ‘t!”

“Let us go!”

Long Xiaozhi and the rest were still struggling, but their voices were too soft, and were completely drowned out by the Sharkmen’s cheers.

When they returned to the Shark King Palace, everyone celebrated, especially Tang Hao, who had discovered the human race and led the way. He was even rewarded with many treasures.

After drinking for a while, King Zhou went to the bedroom in the back.

Then, Tang Hao heard a heart-wrenching scream coming from the chamber.

“Al! How tragic!”

Tang Hao took a sip of wine and mumbled.

He thought of the extremely majestic size of the king of the old Xi.

Now, the scene in the sleeping Palace must be very frightening.

“It’s really a broken chrysanthemum, a ground full of wounds!”

Tang Hao sighed.

There were constant cries of pain and even sobs from the sleeping chambers, which made the mermen in the hall extremely excited.

This commotion lasted for half a day before it finally subsided.

However, the noise started again after a while. Tang Hao was a little speechless when he heard it.

The banquet went on for several days, and the sound never stopped.

On the way, Tang Hao used an excuse that he had something to attend to, so he left the palace and brought his real body in.

The moment he entered the palace, he began to search.

With his experience, he soon found King Zhou's treasure house.

"I heard that the Pearl is in this Treasury."

Tang Hao walked around the vault.

When he was drinking in the hall just now, he had taken the opportunity to find out the whereabouts of the Pearl. The king of the old Xi did not carry it with her but had locked it in this treasure vault.

It was also because of this that his main body had come in, preparing to steal from the treasure vault.

According to his original plan, the next step would be to wait for those guys to be tortured enough, then set up a formation to kill the king of the old Xi. But now it seemed that it was not necessary. All he needed to do was to steal the Pearl.

"It's just a few formations, easy!"

Tang Hao soon found a way to break the formation.

In about 10 minutes, he broke the inhibition and formation around the treasure house, sealed the void, cut off the connection between King Zhou and the treasure house, and broke into the treasure house.

"Hey! You have quite a few treasures!"

Tang Hao's eyes glowed as he scanned his surroundings.

After all, he was a half-step golden immortal who controlled an entire realm. He had indeed accumulated a lot of good things over the years. There were many water-element spirit herbs, immortal materials, and many Dharma Treasures and combat weapons unique to the Xiu clan.

It was different from the treasure vault of the human race. The things in the treasure vault of the Xiu clan were all randomly piled up into small mountains.

“I found it!”

On the top of one of the hills, Tang Hao saw a huge Pearl the size of a head, shining with an extremely bright divine light.

Tang Hao immediately took out a small box, covered it, and put it into his pocket.

“Take them all! It’s a waste to keep it!”

Then, with a wave of his sleeve, he collected everything in the treasure vault, leaving nothing behind.

He clapped his hands and left.

After he left the Treasury, he went to the bedroom to take a look.

“It’s really painful to the eyes!”

He peeked for a while and felt that his eyes were about to go blind. His young heart had suffered a strong impact.

In this Palace, it wasn’t just six people, but a bunch of people. It was a real multi-person exercise.

“Why don’t we wait a few days before going out?”

Tang Hao pondered as he left the palace.

If he went out now, people from Emperor Xun sect would soon come in and find out about those guys. He would save them. The longer he delayed, the longer these guys would be tortured.

“Let’s do this!”

He found a place to hide and waited patiently.

In less than a day, the Qiang tribe seemed to have realized that the Pearl had been stolen. There were people searching everywhere. However, they felt that there were more than five humans who had entered. There were quite a number of them who had stolen the Pearl while they were enjoying themselves.

However, this had nothing to do with Tang Hao. The mermen’s cultivation levels were far from enough to find him.

“Those guys are probably in a worse state!”

He muttered with a playful expression.

If the Qiang tribe couldn't find the person who stole the Pearl, they would definitely vent their anger on long Xiaozi and the others. What awaited them would definitely be an even more miserable fate.

With the temperament of the Qiang tribe, it wouldn't be strange for them to play any tricks.

He waited for seven days before he finally emerged from his hiding place and headed straight for the exit.

After passing through the passage, he successfully returned to the Emperor puppet sect.
