

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3143

“Something’s wrong! Something’s not right!”

Elder di muttered.

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that things were not that simple.

Did that kid really just have good luck?

As for long Xiaozi and the others, they were merely unlucky and fell into the hands of the black Phoenix race?

“What’s wrong with that?”

When he arrived at the hall of missions and told elder Zhao about it, elder Zhao was a little puzzled.

If he wasn’t lucky, could it be that this was all planned by that kid?

This old di was thinking too much!

That kid was only one hundred and four years old, and he was just a kid. How did he have such great ability to toy with the entire Black Phoenix race and a few heaven immortal level monsters in the palm of his hand, and easily complete the seven-star legendary mission!

Such a person had never appeared in the entire history of Emperor puppet sect!

“Old di, you’re really thinking too much. I’ve asked the old Merman King. It was long Xiaozi and the others who didn’t hide their tracks well. The moment they entered the merman King World, they were discovered by their clansmen. In order to capture the few of them, the entire Merman clan’s experts were mobilized.”

“As for that disciple surnamed Qin, he just happened to grasp the opportunity and succeeded!”

Elder Zhao waved his hand and laughed.

When he was in King Yan’s realm, he had asked about the situation. There was nothing suspicious at all.

“But ...”

Elder di still found it hard to accept.

“Alright, old di. Don’t think too much about it. What happened to those disciples wasn’t your fault. They were careless.” Elder Zhao said with a smile.

Elder di opened his mouth, as if he wanted to argue.

But in the end, he didn't say it.

He shook his head and walked away with a depressed expression.

In the following period of time, the Thearch puppet sect was still bustling with activity.

Whether it was that disciple surnamed Qin or long Xiaozi and the other monstrous geniuses, they were all the targets of heated discussions among the sect's disciples.

Speaking of that Qin fellow, everyone was a little envious.

This was undoubtedly a weirdo, but he was also a weirdo with extremely good luck. He had completed a seven-star Mission with ease, which really made them envious.

As for those few monstrous talents, most of the disciples felt some sympathy for them, but there were also many who laughed at them. They laughed at their lack of strength and embarrassed the Emperor puppet sect. They even gave them the names of the Emperor puppet five chrysanthemums.

After half a month, the storm slowly calmed down.

Meanwhile, Tang Hao was still refining pills in the cave abode.

Thirty sets of materials, he would have to refine for another four to five months.

This time, he didn't refine them all in one go. Instead, after refining a few pills, he would go out and walk around the sect. At the same time, he would inquire about the situation outside.

Especially the movements of the Yuanshi sect and Xuanyuan clan.

According to the information that his clones had gathered, these forces had not made any moves during this period of time. It seemed that they had given up on looking for him.

In the blink of an eye, four months had passed.

All thirty sets of materials were successfully refined.

He swallowed them one by one. The fourth petal of the Golden Flower in his body had completely matured. Then, the embryonic form of the fifth petal emerged.

This made him extremely happy.

The flower had bloomed into five petals. He was almost at the same level as the mysterious old Daoist.

"I just need another 40 or so to reach the fifth petal. Then, I'll be able to open the sixth petal and enter the intermediate golden immortal realm!"

He calculated for a moment and was a little excited.

Generally, the major realms would be divided into three stages, middle, middle, and last to distinguish strength and status. It was the same in the Golden immortal realm.

Generally speaking, four and five petals were considered to be in the early stage.

Six and seven petals were the middle stage.

Eight and nine petals were the later stages.

In the immortal world, there were quite a number of golden Immortals. This could be attributed to the immortal world itself. This was because it was a greater world. When it was born, many connate spirit items, immortal materials, and other treasures emerged.

That was why so many golden Immortals had been created.

However, although there were many of them, only a few of them could reach the mid and late stage.

For example, the mysterious old Daoist had only reached the five-petal realm after so many years of cultivation. Most of the Golden immortal elders from the primordial beginning sect were also in the early stage.

On the other hand, the old man from the skyscraping Island should be in the middle stage of the six or seven petals.

As for the late stage, it was rather rare.

In the Emperor puppet sect, most of the elders were also at the early-stage. For example, di qiuheng, who had made things difficult for him, was said to have a cultivation of the five-petal realm. Elder Zhao of the mission Palace was the same.

Of course, there were still mid to late-stage golden Immortals in the sect, but they were rarely in charge, so they could not be seen.

“I’ll refine another batch of pills and reach the mid-stage as soon as possible!”

After calculating his free time, Tang Hao left the house to retrieve another batch of primordial chaos Divine liquid.

This time, he took 40 drops.

40 primordial chaos pills were enough for him to open the sixth petal and advance to the intermediate stage.

When he returned to his cave abode, he gathered all the materials and started to refine it.

Forty batches of Hong Meng pills would take at least half a year.

As he refined, he completely forgot about the time. He only knew to refine furnace after furnace, and with every furnace he refined, the joy in his heart increased a bit.

“It’s done!”

Finally, the last furnace was completed.

When the pill in the furnace flew out and landed in his palm, he immediately let out a long sigh of relief.

The grade of these primordial chaos pills was extremely high. It was quite tiring to refine forty cauldrons in a row. If it wasn’t for his deep cultivation, he wouldn’t have been able to endure it.

After a short rest, he began to swallow.

As he consumed the primordial chaos pills one by one, the fifth petal of his Golden Flower grew at a speed that was visible to the naked eye. After absorbing about 30 pills, the fifth petal was completely ripe.

Another ten, and the sixth petal grew out smoothly.

“Finally, I’ve reached the middle stage!”

After swallowing the remaining pills, Tang Hao stood up and smiled.

He had entered the Thearch puppet sect for almost a year and a half, and his cultivation had soared from the early stage to the middle stage. This speed was truly somewhat shocking!

If this news were to spread out, the jaws of those golden immortal old monsters would probably drop.

His one and a half years was equivalent to thousands of years of their bitter cultivation.

“Amazing!” Tang Hao praised.

When he was designing the pill recipe, he had not expected the effects of the primordial chaos pill to be so strong. The immortals bestowment board’s judgment was still very sharp. The number one spot on the alchemy bestowment board was indeed worthy.

If news of this pill’s effects were to spread, the entire immortal world would be shaken once again. Those golden immortal old monsters would go even crazier.

“It’s already been a year and a half, time really flies!”

Then, he felt a little emotional.

Ever since he came to Thearch puppet sect, he seemed to have been immersed in alchemy and rarely saw Chun Xuan and the others.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he thought of the girls.

For more than a year, they had been staying in the mobile immortal's cave. It was not a solution to continue like this. He could not let them stay in the mobile immortal's cave all the time. The two girls, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci, were fine. They had been following him before and were used to it.

However, miss su and little ye were probably not used to it.

He pondered, it was time to find a safe place for them to settle down.

In the future, when the people of his Haotian Daoist sect and Pangu world ascended, they could also be settled down together.
