

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3144

“No rush!”

Tang Hao thought for a long time, then shook his head.

Right now, his cultivation was still not strong enough. Only when he reached the late golden immortal stage and those great eternity Immortals couldn't do anything to him would he be able to send lady su and little girl ye out without worry.

According to his current cultivation speed, this day would not be too far away. At most, it would take two to three years.

“There's no need to worry about Fei Wan!”

He then thought of the sacred beast Palace.

In the Li Water Tribe continent, he had also set up many avatars, especially in the four corners of the Holy beast Palace. Based on the current situation, there should be no problems there.

Although ning Yuzhen knew that he had some relationship with Fei Wan, he did not care.

However, to be safe, he did not plan to go to the Holy beast Palace and risk meeting her.

“Let's do this for now. The earlier we reach the late stage, the safer we'll find. By then, there might be more people ascending.” He said to himself.

It had been almost nine years since he ascended to the upper realm. There must be people below who could not help but come up.

After pondering for a while, he got up and left the cave.

After walking around the sect for a while, he attracted a lot of attention.

Now, he was a famous person in the sect.

He was the first person in the history of Emperor puppet sect to complete a seven-star legendary mission with intermediate human immortal cultivation base!

No one looked at him with mocking and mocking eyes anymore. Now, their faces were full of envy, jealousy, and hatred.

Many people would even come up and warmly greet him. There were even people who invited him to complete a mission with them. Clearly, they were all looking at his luck.

However, Tang Hao rejected them all.

In his eyes, those tasks were no different from playing house. It was really boring. If he really went with them, he would have to act. How tiring would that be?

Those people didn't find it strange to be rejected. After all, this person was famous for being lazy.

"Did you hear? the nightless club also appeared recently. They learned from us and opened their sect to recruit disciples!"

"Nightless club? F * ck! They're here again, and they're against us!"

As he was happily strolling around, Tang Hao suddenly heard people passing by above him and discussing.

"Nightless club?"

Tang Hao was surprised. He had never heard of that name.

But from what they said, the nightless club seemed to be quite powerful and had the qualifications to go against the Emperor puppet sect.

One should know that there was an Immortal King in the Emperor puppet sect, and even the primitive sect and Xuanyuan clan didn't dare to provoke him easily. Was the nightless club also a reclusive Immortal King-level force?

"Two senior brothers, please hold on!"

After a moment's thought, he got up, chased after her, and called out.

"You are ... Oh! Junior Brother Qin!"

The two men were startled. They turned around and recognized Tang Hao.

They had been to the hall of mission before, so they recognized this person.

"Junior Brother Qin, what's the matter?"

The two were surprised.

"Oh! It's nothing much, I just heard you guys talking about the nightless club, so I was a little curious and wanted to ask." Tang Hao said with a smile.

"I see!"

The two of them immediately laughed.

"Junior Brother, you've entered the sect late and you're still young, so you naturally don't know about the nightless club. They're the same as our Emperor puppet sect, they also have an Immortal King. Moreover, we're also their enemies and often go head to head with them."

“Coincidentally, a thousand years ago, their Immortal King also disappeared. So, after our Emperor puppet sect went into seclusion, they also went into seclusion. I didn’t expect that they would also follow us and come out to recruit disciples.”

The two of them made a brief introduction.

Tang Hao was stunned when he heard that.

What a coincidence that two celestial Kings had disappeared.

Or a thousand years ago ...

He pondered and suddenly had a bad feeling.

“I heard that this time, they’re recruiting on a larger scale than our Emperor puppet sect. We’re only recruiting a thousand, but they’re recruiting five thousand. I think it’ll be a few days before the outside world seeths.”

“After the disciple recruitment, those guys will probably go against us again.”

As they spoke, they all revealed a distressed look. Obviously, this nightless club was very troublesome.

“Two senior brothers, this matter has nothing to do with us! Let’s just watch the fun!” Tang Hao glanced at them. One of them had a cultivation base of over fifty thousand while the other had a cultivation base of over sixty thousand. Both of them were early heaven Immortals.

This level of cultivation was really nothing in Emperor puppet sect. If there was anything, it wouldn’t be their turn to deal with it. There were many powerful people in the sect!

“This ... Seems to be the case!”

The two of them were stunned.

Then, he patted his head in realization.

“Hahaha! Junior Brother Qin is right!”

“Yes, yes, just watch the fun!”

The two of them laughed.

Tang Hao chatted with them for a while longer before he bade them farewell and continued shopping.

After a few days, he received news from his avatars that the nightless club had indeed appeared. The commotion it caused was even greater than the appearance of the Emperor puppet sect. Countless people from all over the immortal world rushed to the nightless club.

When the Emperor puppet sect recruited people, they had set a condition and eliminated many people. However, there were no conditions for the nightless club to recruit people. Anyone could come and try. As long as they passed the test, they could enter the sect.

Tang Hao only asked about the situation for a while, then stopped paying attention.

He had nothing to do with the nightless club. He had more important things to do.

After obtaining thirty drops of divine liquid, he continued to refine pills.

Thirty sets of materials would take another four months.

After he finished refining and consuming it, the sixth petal of the Golden Flower in his body was close to maturity.

When he walked out of the cave, he realized that something was wrong with the situation outside.

This was the area of the cave dwelling. Originally, there were flying divine lights everywhere and it was somewhat lively. But now, it was very quiet.

“What’s going on?”

He was a little puzzled.

“Hey! It was all because of the nightless club! They’ve recruited a lot of people, and their momentum has completely suppressed our sect. That’s why the elders are very unhappy, and they’ve vented their anger on us disciples.”

“These few months, the elders have been putting a lot of pressure on us, forcing us to keep on doing missions to improve our cultivation. Even the difficulty of those missions has been raised a lot. It’s simply too torturous.”

He looked for a few disciples to ask, and they all poured out their grievances.

Tang Hao grinned when he heard that.

This group of elders were really too childish!

“Forget it, it’s none of my business!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He did not seem to care.

The cultivation base he had revealed now was only 56000 Dao attainment. If anything were to happen, it would not be his turn.

He put on the Golden fighting robe and sneaked into the peak of the medicine Mountain with great familiarity. Then, he stole the divine liquid.

This time, he also took 30 drops.

Taking thirty drops at a time was the safest. The time taken was short and the risk was small. It wouldn't be discovered by the people of Emperor puppet sect.

Then, he returned to the cave and began to refine it.

When this batch of pills was completed, his cultivation level would rise again. The sixth petal would be perfected, and the embryonic form of the Seventh Petal would be formed.
