

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3146

Accompanied by a gust of fragrant wind, that beautiful figure swept over and arrived in front of him.

Her face was like a hibiscus, her skin was like frost, and a pair of slightly narrow Phoenix eyes revealed a bit of coquettishness.

She exuded an air of nobility from head to toe, and her every movement was graceful.

Her presence attracted the attention of countless people in the square.

Their expressions were a little heated.

Not only was her appearance outstanding, but her identity and talent were also top notch. She was a proud daughter of heaven.

“It’s fellow Daoist Zi Yang!”

Tang Hao glanced at her and smiled.

When she first entered the sect, she was already quite dazzling. After entering the sect, she was also one of the most eye-catching monsters among the disciples.

However, Tang Hao had no interest in her at all. He was more interested in her clothes than in her.

He was familiar with the dress. It was undoubtedly made by him and sold by Haotian.

“Brother Qin, how is it? Do you want to join hands with us?”

Said Princess Zi Yang with a smile.

There was a strong sense of confidence in her eyes.

With her identity and status, as long as she asked, no one would refuse, especially the male disciples.

Although he had heard that this person was a bit of a weirdo, he was also a man and would not refuse.

All the disciples were even more envious.

This was the dream Dao companion of many disciples in the sect. Many people wanted to be with her and be by her side, but unfortunately, this person’s standards were too high. She simply didn’t look up to ordinary disciples, even those evildoers.

“There’s no need for that!”

Tang Hao smiled and refused.

Princess Zi Yang’s expression froze.

Her beautiful eyes widened and she was a little dazed. She could not believe that this guy actually rejected her personal invitation.

Behind her, the few female disciples were also stunned. The male disciples from all directions could not believe their ears.

“He ... He rejected it?”

A moment later, a burst of exclamations erupted from all directions.

“You ... Are you sure you don’t want it?”

Princess Zi Yang asked in a daze.

This guy’s reaction was completely out of her expectations, so much so that she didn’t know what to do.

“Daoist Zi Yang, thank you for your kindness, but I’m used to being alone. I’m not used to being with others, especially since you’re all female cultivators.” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“This ... Is good!”

Princess Zi Yang laughed awkwardly.

“This is really a wonder!”

The disciples all sighed.

He even rejected Princess Zi Yang’s invitation. If this wasn’t a weirdo, then what was?!

“Zi Yang, he’s too much. You’ve already invited him personally, but he still doesn’t give you face!”

“It is! Does he really think we’re short of him? He was just an early heaven immortal, what was there to be proud of? even if he was lucky, could he be lucky every time? Let’s see how he’s going to survive in the secret realm. ”

The few girls flew up and gathered behind Princess Zi Yang as they spoke angrily.

“Al! Since they’re not willing, we can’t force them. ”

Princess Zi Yang turned around and said.

“Then, Brother Qin, I wish you good luck!”

Then, she turned around and looked at Tang Hao with a cold gaze.

In her heart, she also felt that this person didn't know what was good for him. They were all in the middle and late stages of the heaven immortal realm, especially her, who was already a half-step away from the heaven immortal realm and had bloomed a Golden Flower.

As for this one, he only had fifty thousand Dao attainment, a mere early stage heaven immortal!

He was very young. It was said that when he entered the sect, he was only 104 years old. Now that two years had passed, he was 106 years old, which was only a third of her age.

However, in this competition, age was of no use. What mattered was one's realm.

With their group's strength, it was already giving him a lot of face by inviting him, but he directly refused, not knowing what was good for him at all.

Then, she turned around and walked away with the other women.

At this time, a few more rays of light swept over from the horizon and arrived at the square, revealing a few figures.

Everyone looked over, and their expressions became a little strange.

It was long Xiaozi and the others.

Long Xiaozi and the others' faces darkened when they noticed the strange gazes from all directions.

"What are you looking at!"

They glared in all directions and shouted.

Long Xiaozi even snorted, feeling ashamed and angry.

Ever since that incident, these strange gazes had been following them. He had also heard that many disciples had laughed at them in private, saying that they were so-called Emperor Phoenix Five chrysanthemums.

Although he was furious, he was helpless.

During that period of time, he had completely collapsed and was like a walking corpse.

It took him more than half a year to recover. He turned his grief and indignation into power and cultivated like crazy. Now, he was a half-step into the realm and had bloomed a Golden Flower. With two more spirit items, he would be able to transcend the Tribulation and become a golden immortal.

At that time, whether it was the detestable Black Phoenix race or that B * stard kid, they would both be ruthlessly trampled under his feet.

"You brat, just you wait!"

He narrowed his eyes and searched the crowd for a moment before he saw the boy.

In an instant, his eyes lit up and his killing intent was wild.

It was all because of this brat. If it wasn't for this brat, he wouldn't have entered the Shark King World, got captured by the mermaid clan, and suffered such inhumane torture.

It was all this kid's fault!

This kid is as detestable as that demon from the lower realm surnamed Tang!

That evildoer had taken away his opportunity to advance to the Golden immortal realm, and this brat had destroyed his innocence and dignity as a man!

When he saw Princess Zi Yang beside him, his face turned even gloomier.

Originally, he had the opportunity to pursue her, but after that incident, he was too ashamed to face her.

"You brat, don't let me see you in the secret realm, or I'll kill you first!"

He glared at them, then turned around and walked away.

The other four also glared at him with hatred in their eyes.

Tang Hao only glanced at them indifferently and did not bother to pay them any attention.

After that, no one came forward to invite him.

If even Princess Zi Yang couldn't convince them, they would have to give up.

There were also many people who were worried that if they were to act with this person, they might attract the crazy revenge of long Xiaozi and the others. It would not be worth it.

After more than an hour, almost everyone had arrived, and only then did they see a few elders sweeping over from the main hall.

Elder di was among them.

They took out the name list and counted them one by one.

"Good! Everyone's here. Next, you should sort out the treasures you have and get ready. The competition will begin in 15 minutes."

Elder di shouted.

Two elders beside him worked together to activate a token.

A void passage appeared in the sky above the square, accompanied by a dazzling divine light.

Obviously, the secret realm used for the competition was inside.
