

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3151

“Well said! This kind of person is a parasite!”

With a loud shout, Long Xiaozi stepped forward.

“This competition concerns the dignity of our Emperor puppet sect. As disciples, it’s our duty to do our best. Lazy people like him are parasites, a disgrace to our sect!”

He coldly looked at the falling figure and shouted.

His tone was a little impassioned, and his face was full of righteousness.

“That’s right! A person like him simply doesn’t have the qualifications to be a disciple of the Emperor puppet sect!”

“I should have kicked him out during the entrance test!”

The other four stepped forward and shouted.

They sneered and were a little proud.

They had been worried that they would not have a chance to take revenge, but in the end, this kid had sought his own death. What an idiot!

Many disciples frowned when they heard this.

What they said was right. This competition was related to the sect’s honor, so they should do their best. However, this person was hiding and sleeping.

With this thought in mind, their faces revealed a bit of dissatisfaction.

“Greetings, elder and fellow disciples!”

Tang Hao landed and walked over. He cupped his hands at everyone.

“Hmph!”

The elders’ faces were ashen.

“What is this? Didn’t we win?”

Tang Hao looked around and asked in surprise.

“We did win, but what does it have to do with you? We, the disciples, fought hard for this victory, unlike some people who hide and sleep. They don’t even know shame!”

Long Xiaozi sneered.

“Look at him, he’s still smiling. He’s really shameless!”

The few female cultivators sneered again.

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow when he heard that.

He somewhat understood what was going on.

“Qin Dali, do you admit your mistake?”

Elder di walked out and shouted sternly.

“What did I do wrong?”

Tang Hao chuckled.

“Look at this disciple, he’s still so confident!”

“This is preposterous!”

Behind him, the elders were all cursing angrily.

Elder di frowned and his face darkened.

“Let me ask you, what did you do during the competition? Are you letting your fellow disciples down by doing this? They’re fighting and killing the enemy, but you’re hiding behind them and sleeping. Can you face them?”

He asked sternly.

“Old di, don’t talk so much to him. When we get back, punish him properly. If he’s not convinced, then drive him out of the door!”

The elders behind him shouted coldly.

“Elder is right. This kind of trash and vermin should be expelled!”

“How can a person like him be worthy of being a disciple of our Emperor puppet sect!”

Long Xiaozi and the rest immediately shouted.

The crowd from all directions was in an uproar, and many people showed their approval.

“This time, this guy is dead!”

Long Xiaozi looked around and couldn’t help but sneer.

The elders were so angry that they would definitely punish him severely when they returned. This kid would no longer have any chance to stand out. If he resisted, he might even be expelled.

“Elder, do you think that I’ve been slacking off and not contributing to the sect?”

Tang Hao said.

“Isn’t it? We all saw it, and it’s not just for a day. You’ve been like this every day.” Elder di said angrily, “you don’t have to say anything more. Stand aside and accept your punishment when we return!”

“Hurry up and move to the side, don’t get in the way!”

An elder even shouted impolitely.

“Look at this kid. He’s not ashamed at all. This is outrageous!”

“He must be punished twice as heavily!”

Then, they started to discuss.

Upon hearing this, long Xiaozi and the others immediately revealed smug expressions.

The heavier the punishment this kid received, the happier they would be.

They couldn’t wait for this kid to be kicked out of the door immediately.

“He deserves it!”

The female cultivators snorted, their faces full of pleasure.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows and was about to speak.

He didn’t care what these people thought of him, but he had to get the first place’s reward.

At this moment, a series of air-piercing sounds suddenly came from the side of the mountain peak.

He looked up and saw a group of nightless club elders.

“What are they doing here?”

In the next moment, a wave of low exclamations rose from the crowd.

Everyone from the Emperor puppet sect was puzzled.

The elders of the nightless club landed and looked around, their expressions a little strange.

“What are you doing here? are you not convinced?”

Elder di looked at them and sneered.

“I’m convinced! Of course we are convinced. This time, we are truly convinced of our defeat. Look, let’s see who has eliminated the most of our disciples.” An old man from the nightless club stepped forward and smiled.

In an instant, there was a commotion in the crowd. All the disciples’ eyes swept over to Princess Zi Yang.

At present, the one with the highest number of eliminations was this person.

Then, many people looked in long Xiaozi’s direction.

In terms of the total number of people eliminated, long Xiaozi’s group had the upper hand over Princess Zi Yang’s group.

“Hahaha! So that’s how it is!”

Elder di was stunned at first, but then he laughed out loud, extremely proud.

In the past, there were times when they won, and the other side would always look unconvinced. This time, they were actually convinced, and it was really unprecedented.

“Look, this is the disciple who has been eliminated the most. Her name is ...”

Then, he turned around and pointed to Princess Zi Yang’s side as he introduced.

Princess Zi Yang immediately puffed out her chest, her expression somewhat excited.

She did not expect that even the elders opposite her would be convinced by her performance.

Behind her, the few female cultivators also revealed excited expressions and each took a few steps forward.

Everyone around them also revealed a proud expression.

However, the next scene stunned them.

The group of nightless club elders moved, but they didn’t walk towards Princess Zi Yang. They didn’t even look at her. They didn’t walk towards long Xiaozi either, but in another direction.

“This is ...”

Elder di was stunned and confused.

Wasn’t Zi Yang the one who was eliminated the most?

What the hell were they doing?

He turned his head and followed the path they had taken. When he looked forward, he was stunned again.

The direction these people were heading in was actually towards that kid surnamed Qin!

“Al! You’re wrong, this way, this way!”

He hurriedly shouted.

“Old man di, we’re not wrong. You’re the ones who are wrong!”

The old man from the nightless club laughed and strode over to Tang Hao. He squinted his eyes and sized him up, his face full of admiration.

Behind him, the other nightless club elders did the same.

Their eyes glowed as they studied Tang Hao.

“Old man di, I heard you say that you dislike this disciple and want to punish him or even drive him out of the sect! If you don’t want it, then give it to us! We, the nightless club, will take it!”

The old man looked at elder di for a moment before he laughed.

Elder di stood where he was, looking at the scene with a dazed expression.

All the disciples and elders of the Emperor puppet sect were also confused.
