

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3159

“Gulp!”

On the streets, people swallowed their saliva, their faces full of shock.

The palm strike just now had truly frightened them.

Who was he?

Everyone’s eyes were focused on the white-robed figure. They were shocked and curious.

This person’s strength was terrifying!

Moreover, he dared to make a move on the street, and his methods were so brutal. It was enough to show how bold and ruthless this person was.

“This is bad!”

In the building, the grey-robed elder and the others came back to their senses and felt a little regretful.

This time, he had kicked an iron plate!

Based on this move alone, they could determine that this person was absolutely not just a half-step golden immortal, but a true golden immortal old monster!

Golden Immortals were the overlords of an area!

No matter which continent it was, it was a famous existence that no one dared to provoke!

They were only heaven Immortals, and they dared to provoke a gold immortal magnate. They were courting death!

Even if they had a golden immortal or even a zenith heaven immortal as their backer, they would not dare to provoke a golden immortal.

“A golden immortal?”

The young man in blue frowned and muttered.

She looked at the white-robed figure outside the door, her eyes filled with shock.

“Senior, please calm your anger!”

“Senior, we failed to recognize Mount Tai and offended you. Please be magnanimous and forgive us for the sake of the sect behind us!”

The grey-robed old man and the others hurriedly walked out and bowed.

“Forgive?”

The white-robed man looked at them coldly and sneered.

Seeing this, the hearts of the grey-robed old man and the rest thumped.

From the looks of it, this person wasn't prepared to give up.

"Senior, I'm an elder of seven Saint mountain. I'm sure you've heard of the prestige of seven Saint mountain. The seven Saints of the mountain are all golden Immortals." The gray-robed elder said.

"Are you threatening me?"

The white-robed man shouted coldly.

"No, I didn't! I only reported my identity, how would I dare to threaten you, senior!" The grey-robed elder said hurriedly.

"As for this man, he's an elder of the nine suns immortal Palace. I wonder if senior has heard of the famous nine suns immortal Palace?" Then, he pointed to the red-haired old man who had just been reborn.

"Nine yang immortal Palace? I've heard of it, but so what if it's a Kasaya?"

The white-robed man's figure flickered, and he swept in front of the red-haired old man like a ghost. He slapped out with his palm again, and the old man exploded.

Then, he flicked his hand to get rid of the immortal blood on it and looked at the grey-robed old man coldly.

The grey-robed old man's body trembled and his face turned pale.

Looking at this person's methods, he was clearly a ruthless person!

This kind of person was the most difficult to deal with.

“What seven Saint mountain, what nine yang immortal Palace, they’re all bullshit!”

The white-robed man shouted coldly. He reached out and grabbed the red-haired old man who had just been reborn. He clutched his throat with one hand.

“Se ... Senior, please ... Please spare my life ...”

The red-haired old man struggled and begged in a trembling voice.

His face was extremely pale, and his eyes were wide open with extreme fear and despair.

He had never thought that this person would be a golden immortal powerhouse!

Moreover, this did not seem to be an ordinary golden immortal. If he was an ordinary golden immortal, he would still have a chance to escape with his cultivation base close to the peak of heaven immortal. However, in front of this person, he was completely suppressed and unable to move.

The white-robed man looked at him, his eyes still cold and unmoved.

“Didn’t you say that I’m a person who will definitely die? I’d like to see if you die first, or I die first!”

He said in a cold voice.

“You ...”

When the red-haired old man heard this, he was stunned.

In the next moment, his eyes were wide open, revealing extreme shock.

How could it be him?

How did he dare to come out!

And how did his strength become so terrifying?

For a time, his heart was in a state of shock.

He opened his mouth and was about to cry out.

However, in the next moment, he was crushed again with a bang. When he was reborn, a palm grabbed him and captured him.

“You ... Who are you?”

At this time, the gray-robed elder and the others also reacted. Their eyes were wide open in shock.

This white-robed golden immortal with terrifying strength and ruthless means was that monster?

This was too shocking!

For a moment, their minds went blank.

For the past five years, they had never thought that this demon would actually dare to show himself. Now, not only had he shown himself, he had even admitted his identity in front of them!

Was he crazy?

“It’s you! You’re so bold to show yourself! You really don’t know what’s good for you!” The gray-robed elder shouted.

“Demon, you’re looking for death!”

“Hahaha! What a pleasant surprise!”

The rest of the people laughed out loud, their faces filled with wild joy.

As long as they could send the news back and delay this guy for a moment, they would be able to make a contribution!

This time, this monster was dead for sure. Once this was over, they could leave this place and return to the sect.

“A monster? What are they talking about?”

Everyone on the street was a little confused.

They couldn't understand why this group of people was so scared just now, but now they were so happy and so arrogant.

"A monster? It's him?"

In the building, the young man in blue was stunned, and his eyes were filled with extreme disbelief.

In the next moment, she was so excited that her face turned red.

A pair of eyes stared straight at that figure, the light in his eyes burning.

"It can't be him, right?"

At this time, some people in the crowd on the street gradually realized it, and they also revealed looks of disbelief.

"Him? Who is it!"

The crowd was gradually boiling with excitement. There were constant shouts of shock and excitement.

Everyone's expression became extremely excited.

This group of people were all here to monitor Nantian city and find out the whereabouts of that heaven-defying monster. The only person who could make them so excited and call him a monster could only be that person!

The monstrous genius surnamed Tang who had become a golden immortal at the age of a hundred and had single-handedly created the clear sky Association!

“It’s him!”

“He’s back!”

The commotion spread, and more people rushed over. Half the city was in an uproar.

“He’s the president?”

In the restaurant, a figure stood for a long time, looking at the white-robed figure outside with an extremely dazed expression.

Then, he was so excited that his whole body trembled, and he could not control himself.

“Demon, just you wait!”

At this time, the gray-robed old man and the others waved their hands and shot out beams of divine light, all of which were communication Jade talismans.

The Jade talisman instantly tore open the void and entered.

They heaved a sigh of relief when they were done with the Jade talismans.

The news had already spread, and soon, all the Golden Immortals and even the great eternity Immortals would rush over to encircle Chi Zi. What they needed to do was to delay this child as much as possible and buy time for the seniors.

With their strength, this was not difficult.

“Go!”

They looked at each other and nodded in unison.

In the next moment, their bodies trembled and their auras exploded.
