

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3163

In the sky above Nantian city, many figures stood.

All of them were gold Immortals.

Their expressions were dazed.

“Three years! It’s only been three years!”

They kept muttering to themselves as if they were possessed.

They still couldn’t believe that the demon was already a late golden immortal!

In all four directions, more figures were tearing through the void and descending.

The moment they arrived, they were all incomparably excited, shouting loudly that they would capture that demon. However, very quickly, they were stunned and became silent.

“Where is he?”

Suddenly, the void split open and a figure stepped out.

His eyes swept around as he shouted.

It was one of the zenith heavens Immortals of the primitive sect, the heavenly Dao Daoist.

Following that, a group of people walked out from behind him. It was ye Futian, sovereign Taixu, and the others.

They were originally a little excited, but when they looked around, they frowned.

From the looks of it, that kid had run away again!

“Trash! You’re all useless!”

Heaven’s path Daoist angrily flicked his sleeve and cursed.

Three years ago, that kid had crossed the Golden immortal tribulation. A group of zenith heaven Immortals had chased him for more than half a month, passing through more than a dozen continents, but they still lost him. He was already full of anger. Now that the kid had appeared again, they were still too late.

“Celestial venerable, you can’t blame us for this. It’s that kid ...” He said.

A golden immortal at the side bowed.

“What’s wrong with that kid? it’s just that he has a few more treasures. In terms of cultivation, isn’t he just a newly advanced golden immortal? I’m not asking you to kill him. Can’t you just keep him here?” The heavenly Dao Daoist snorted angrily.

“That’s right!”

Ye Futian also rebuked coldly.

“Celestial venerable, you’ll never be able to imagine what cultivation base that kid has now ...” The Golden immortal laughed bitterly.

“What’s his cultivation? Isn’t it just an early golden immortal?”

The heavenly Dao Daoist was stunned.

“It’s ... Late-stage!” The Golden immortal paused and said in a deep voice.

“Hahaha! Isn’t it just the late stage? Eh? What did you just say? Late stage? You must be joking!” When ye Futian heard this, he first laughed out loud, but then he reacted and his expression changed.

The expression of the heaven’s path Daoist changed.

“How is that possible?”

He angrily rebuked, feeling that it was extremely absurd.

Only three years had passed, how did that kid go from the early stage to the late stage?

“There were tens of thousands of people here who saw it with their own eyes, it’s absolutely true! And Daoist shenmiao, he personally tested that kid’s cultivation. He’s indeed a late golden immortal. There’s no lie!” The Golden immortal said.

The heavenly Dao Daoist turned around and looked around. He was stunned.

He opened his mouth and looked extremely confused.

It looked like it was real, but it was ... Too absurd and hard for him to believe.

This was not the true immortal realm, but the Golden immortal realm. There was no way to quickly improve it. For example, he had endured it. In the ancient times, he had endured for a long time before he reached the zenith heaven realm.

But this kid only used three years to go from the early stage to the late stage. It was really unbelievable!

“Could it be that he had some fortuitous encounter?”

“But what kind of fortuitous encounter can there be in this world that can allow him to improve so quickly?”

He furrowed his brows, but he could not figure it out.

Behind him, ye Futian, the Taixu sovereign, and the others were all dumbfounded.

This news was like a bolt from the blue, stunning them all.

This was especially true for Supreme Taixu. In the past three years, his cultivation had improved by leaps and bounds with the help of the primordial beginning sect. He was about to cross the Golden immortal tribulation. He had thought that he would be able to catch up with that kid after the tribulation.

But who would have thought that the kid was no longer in the early stage, but the late stage!

‘How the hell am I supposed to chase him like this?’

Supreme Taixu felt depressed and had a strong urge to vomit blood.

“What? Late-stage?”

“I’ve seen a ghost!”

More and more golden Immortals and zenith heavens descended, and they were all dumbfounded by this news.

“I really can’t think of how that kid did it!”

A Grand Luo immortal thought for a long time and said dejectedly.

The other Grand Luo Immortals looked at each other and shook their heads.

“This kid ... Is really too demonic!”

A hint of fear appeared on their faces.

It was already very difficult for them to deal with a late golden immortal. If they were to encounter him alone, they weren’t confident that they could keep him here.

“Does anyone remember that three years ago, the alchemy ranking appeared with a type of pill called the great way golden pill. It immediately topped the alchemy ranking and shocked the entire immortal world.”

Suddenly, one of the Grand Luo Immortals thought of something and exclaimed.

“Pill ranking? I remember! But what does that matter?”

Everyone asked in surprise.

“Do you think that the great path golden pill was created by that kid? And this kind of gold core had the effect of making the cultivation base of a gold immortal advance by leaps and bounds? Hahaha! How is that possible? you’re overthinking it!”

“It is! That kid’s amazing in the Dao of crafts. How could he be so amazing in the Dao of alchemy as well?”

Then, everyone laughed.

This guess was too absurd. There was no possibility at all!

First of all, that kid’s alchemy Dao couldn’t be that powerful. Moreover, there couldn’t be such a heaven-defying pill in this world!

“This ... I was just casually saying.”

The Grand Luo immortal thought about it and shook his head. Even he felt that this guess was too absurd.

In the crowd, only the great void sovereign did not laugh.

His expression was extremely grave.

These people didn't understand that monster. They didn't know that what he was best at wasn't the Dao of crafts, but the Dao of alchemy. When he was in the Holy region, he had created a rare divine pill like the multi-child divine pill.

That celestial of the great all-embracing heaven's guess was very likely to be true!

But he didn't say this out loud, because he knew that even if he did, these people wouldn't believe him. Instead, they would look into his past and find out about his background.

Many of these people were genuine Immortals from planet Qiyuan who had betrayed the human race with Emperor Tianhuang.

Once they found out his identity, the consequences would be unpredictable.

"In my opinion, it's because that kid's luck is too strong. He must have encountered some kind of opportunity that we don't know about, which is why his cultivation has improved so much!"

"That's right!"

After a moment of discussion, everyone agreed with this statement.

"Let's go!"

Then, they shook their heads, stood up, and left.

He had already run away, and they wouldn't be able to catch him.

Many people even began to hesitate whether they should continue to keep an eye on it.

They were a little afraid. That brat was already a late golden immortal. They couldn't bear the consequences of his revenge.

“Forget it!”

Many people considered for a long time and gave up the idea of continuing to get involved in this matter.

As they left, the news of what happened in Nantian city spread.

The news set off a shocking storm.

The entire immortal world was boiling with excitement!
