

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3165

In the cave, the wind and moon were boundless.

Half a day later.

Yun feiwan got up and grabbed the immortal robe from the ground to cover her enchanting and devil-like figure.

She walked to the side, sat down, and tidied up her makeup.

“I’ve had nothing much to do these past few years, and the palace has been very peaceful.”

“I’ll just teach the people in my clan a lesson. They’re quite capable. Over the years, they’ve produced quite a few true immortals, and there will be more in the future. With my current strength, my status in the palace is not low, and I can use more resources.”

She said as she combed her hair.

“It’s good!”

Tang Hao said.

He knew that the Yun family had always been the one she cared about the most. The reason she had stayed in the sacred beast Palace was for the Yun family.

“Oh right, these are all for you!”

He seemed to have thought of something. He suddenly stood up, took out three boxes, and handed them over.

“What is this?”

She turned around and asked in surprise.

“You’ll know when you open it!”

“This is ... My God!”

She opened them one by one and immediately exclaimed.

Each of the three boxes contained a treasure. Although they were of different types, there were stones and spiritual pearls, but they all emitted the same aura. She recognized that it was connate Qi!

These three treasures were all connate spirit items!

“Are these ... All for me?”

She said in a daze.

These three treasures were too precious!

“Of course!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Then I won’t decline!”

Yun feiwan flicked her sleeve and kept the three boxes.”However, I have to repay you. My good brother, tell me, how do you want me to repay you?”

As she spoke, she pursed her lips and smiled, her tone was a little charming.

“How do you want to repay me?”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Baby, I don’t have anything. I don’t have anything else to repay you with. It seems that I can only repay you with my body.” She chuckled, then moved in front of Tang Hao.

Her pair of beautiful eyes curved into crescents as she smiled, looking a little charming.

Tang Hao was shocked.

Although she usually looked quite mature and dignified, sometimes, she still revealed the heart of a young girl and was somewhat cute.

Three thousand years didn’t seem to have left many marks on her body.

“What are you looking at?”

She was startled when she saw Tang Hao looking at her.

“It’s nothing!”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head.

“Then you lie down first!”

She leaned over and whispered in Tang Hao’s ear.

After she finished speaking, she seemed to feel that she was a little too bold, and two red clouds involuntarily flew up on both sides of her cheeks.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

After reluctantly bidding farewell, she left.

Tang Hao left the place and went to the nearest Immortal City.

“Where are we going?”

Tang Hao looked at the wall next to him when he arrived at the teleportation Hall. The names of hundreds of States were written on the wall, and he could teleport to any of them.

“Heavenly spirit? No!”

“Spiritual Toad, white bones, none of these will do ... How about this side, this heavenly bull tribe continent!”

He considered for a while and finally chose a rather remote state.

Then, he used the teleportation to arrive at this continent.

He had some understanding of the heavenly bull tribe continent.

Previously, he had sent a large number of avatars to various parts of the immortal world. Basically, every continent had his avatar. However, the number of avatars varied for different continents. For example, the three more important continents, Tian Ling, Li Shui, and Ling Chan, he had sent more avatars.

As for this heavenly bull continent, not only was it located in a remote location, but it also had nothing to do with him. Thus, he had sent very few avatars. In total, he only had about 20 avatars in this continent.

However, these twenty clones were enough to obtain the basic information of this continent.

They could find out how many forces there were and how strong they were.

“Let’s go shopping!”

He walked out of the teleportation Hall and started to search around the continent.

Soon, seven days had passed.

He had strolled through half of the continent and inspected many forces. He had also gone to some dangerous places, but he had not found a suitable place.

On this day, as he was traveling, he released his divine sense to scan the surroundings. Suddenly, he saw a bustling place in the distance. A lot of people had gathered in a black mass, forming a circle.

“What happened?”

He mumbled in surprise.

Then, he became interested.

Since he had nothing to do, he might as well go and watch the fun.

He turned into a ray of divine light and headed in that direction.

As he got closer, he heard a deafening rumbling sound. It was like thunder.

“This is ...?”

Then, he showed himself and looked ahead. He saw many immortal warships with countless figures standing on them. These people were all attacking a great formation of the mountain Gate in front of them.

Many people were gathered around, looking and pointing.

Most of them looked resentful, and many of them even shook their heads and sighed.

“Al! It’s really a sin!”

“The Pingtian sect has really gone too far!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

He had some impression of the Pingtian sect.

When he had first entered the continent, he had obtained basic information about the continent through his clone, and the Pingtian sect had been among them.

The Pingtian sect’s strength was similar to that of the divine wonder Palace and the devil Heart sect. Each of them had a golden immortal overseeing them, so they were considered a top-notch force in this continent.

But that was all he knew.

“Fellow Daoist, what’s going on?”

He rushed forward and squeezed into the crowd. After looking around for a while, he asked the people around him.

“Hey! What else could it be? the Pingtian sect was bullying people again! They’ve really gone too far!”

Someone immediately responded with an angry expression.

“It’s that young lord Pingtian again. It’s not like you don’t know that bastard. Just because he has a good master, he’s always acting like a tyrant. No matter if it’s a treasure or a woman, as long as he has his eyes on them, he won’t let them go. Who knows how many people he’s harmed over the years?”

“Al! Why doesn’t the heavens strike down a few bolts of lightning to kill such a scourge?”

Then, the people around them started to talk all at once. They were all somewhat excited.

Tang Hao understood when he heard that.

“What’s wrong this time?” He asked.

“Hey! This time, it was a woman. That scourge had taken a fancy to this family’s disciple and wanted to snatch her away. The other party didn’t agree, so he brought his sect members to smash the mountain Gate, threatening to raze this place and suppress their entire family. ”

Someone said.

“So arrogant?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

This was the first time he had seen such an arrogant fellow since he came to the immortal world.

“If he wasn’t arrogant, would he still be this bastard?!”

The surrounding people all smiled bitterly.

Tang Hao did not ask any more questions. He stood in the crowd and continued to watch.

The bombarding continued ahead.

Most of the attackers were late to middle stage heaven Immortals, and the grade of the great formation of the mountain Gate was not high. Although it could resist for a while, it would not be able to hold on for half a month.

He looked at the mountain Gate again and shook his head slightly.

There were at most ten or so heaven Immortals in the sect, and they were not very strong. They could not stop the people from the fair heaven sect.

Once the formation was broken, they would be finished.
