

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3180

“The celestial King disappeared?”

When the disciples heard this, they frowned.

“It’s just disappeared, it’s nothing!” Princess Zi Yang said.

For example, the immortal King of their Emperor puppet sect had disappeared and had not appeared for a thousand years.

“That’s right!”

Everyone nodded in agreement.

Elder di shook his head. “The disappearance I mentioned isn’t as simple as a disappearance. According to the rumors, those who disappeared at that time were most likely dead!”

“Fallen?”

The disciples were shocked.

In their eyes, celestial Kings were unparalleled mighty figures with unimaginable power. How could such a figure have fallen?

“Elder, what about our sect master?”

A disciple asked hurriedly.

“Our sect master is different, it’s fine! He’s just disappeared, but he’ll be back soon.” Elder di said.

When the disciples heard this, they immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

“Then, elder, how did those celestial Kings disappear and die?”

“Yup! How can an Immortal King die?”

Then, they asked.

“This ... How could I know? these are just rumors.” Elder di shook his head and said with a bitter smile.

He was only a puny golden immortal, how could he possibly know such ancient secrets? he only knew the general idea and not the details.

“The celestial King ... Disappeared?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. His brows were furrowed.

He didn’t understand. Celestial Kings were so powerful that they couldn’t die so easily. At least, it was difficult to kill people of the same level, unless it was Emperor Tianhuang. But why did he kill so many celestial Kings?

“Don’t tell me you want to rebel against him?”

His expression changed.

However, on second thought, this reason was not very convincing.

These immortal kings had betrayed the human race with Emperor Tianhuang and founded the immortal world together. How could they rebel against him so easily? besides, it was only a few immortal kings. How could they have the courage to rebel against an immortal Emperor?

“Forget it, it’s none of my business! It’s just a rebellion of the human race, and it’s just a dog-eat-dog fight!”

A moment later, he snorted and stopped pondering.

“You guys can just listen to these things. Who knows what happened in ancient times?” Elder di smiled and said, “the most important thing now is that you should hurry and set off. You must get there before the nightless club.”

“As for the leader, I’ll leave it to you!”

He turned around and looked at Tang Hao.

“Me?”

Tang Hao was stunned.

“Yeah! You!” Elder di said, “you are the only one who can convince the public. You are the best candidate!”

“Yeah! Brother Qin, we will only submit to you!”

All the disciples looked over and shouted.

“Brother Qin, please don’t decline! Who else can be number one in this year’s competition other than you!”

Princess Zi Yang said.

Tang Hao was stunned. He did not say anything.

He was a little dazed. He was clearly here to be a hooligan at the beginning. How did he become the number one of this year’s competition?

Moreover, it was the loyalty of thousands of people!

Fuck!

“F * ck!” Tang Hao cursed.

He only wanted to be a hooligan!

He didn’t want to be the first in this year’s competition!

“Brother Qin, we are also very excited! Last time, you fought alone and helped the sect win the competition, but this time, we’ll help you. If we work together, we’ll definitely defeat our opponents again!”

A disciple said excitedly.

“Yup!”

All the disciples nodded, their expressions excited, as if they were on steroids.

Excited, your sister!

Tang Hao’s face twitched.

He raised his head and looked at the sky. His heart was filled with melancholy.

The situation before his eyes was completely different from what he had originally expected!

Forget it!

He had already taken so many things from Emperor puppet sect, so he would just treat it as repaying them!

Tang Hao sighed to himself.

If he had not relied on the primordial divine wood, his cultivation would not have risen so quickly and he would not have so many connate spirit items. He did owe the Emperor puppet sect a lot.

“Alright!”

He looked at elder di and nodded.

“Then you guys should hurry up and go to the nearest Immortal City. Teleport there and use this immortal boat. It’s faster.” Elder di came forward, took out a small Golden Boat, and stuffed it into Tang Hao’s hands.

“Brother Qin, let’s go!”

All the disciples came forward and said excitedly.

Tang Hao glanced at them and smiled wryly.

“Let’s go!”

Then, he took the lead and turned into a divine light, heading out.

They rushed to the nearest Immortal City and took the teleportation formation to the kuimu continent. Then, they took out the immortal boat and quickly left.

“This immortal boat is pretty good!”

Tang Hao praised after flying for a while.

The immortal boat under his feet was at its maximum speed, and even its void-piercing speed was faster than ordinary immortal boats. He carefully examined the internal structure and the refining method. It should have been made by an Immortal King.

Behind him, the disciples were gathered in twos and threes, all of them looking excited.

“Brother Qin!”

Princess Zi Yang walked over and stood at the bow of the ship.

“Brother Qin, what are you busy with when you stay in the cave dwelling? Are they really sleeping like they said?” She looked over with a hint of resentment in her eyes.

She had tried to look for him several times, but he had never opened the door.

This was hard for her to accept.

With her qualifications and status, if she revealed even the slightest intention, who knew how many people would rush over and ingratiate themselves to her. However, this person was still unmoved.

She was starting to wonder if there was a problem with her charm or with this man.

“Cough! That’s right! If I’m bored, I’ll just sleep and refine some pills!”

Tang Hao cleared his throat.

He knew what this person was thinking. The main purpose was to win him over. He didn’t like people who were too utilitarian, so he didn’t want to have too much contact with them.

Of course, it wasn't to say that he hated him. This person was born in a celestial dynasty and was a member of the royal family. He was definitely different from those who came from sects and was more utilitarian.

"Oh!"

Princess Zi Yang replied.

Then, she just stood there, not knowing what to say.

This Brother Qin was so cold that it made her doubt her life!

"We're here!"

After half a day, an Immortal City appeared in front of them.

That was Shiji city!

According to the news, the celestial King's relic had appeared in this area, which had triggered a fight.

Tang Hao looked around and saw many divine lights.

Obviously, they had also come for the celestial King's relic.

"What's that?"

As they got closer, they saw a pillar of light that shot up into the sky in the center of the immortal City.

The disciples looked over and exclaimed.

“It’s a passageway! It should lead to the immortal King ruins.”

Tang Hao narrowed his eyes as he looked at it.

“I can’t be wrong. It should be the appearance of the celestial King’s relic. After a struggle, no one could monopolize it, so it opened in the Celestial City.” Princess Zi Yang said, “we have to hurry. The nightless club must have entered before us!”

Tang Hao nodded, then sped up.

When they arrived above the immortal City, he put away the immortal boat and led the way down. After understanding the situation, he entered the pillar of light.
