

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3202

“What? You’re saying that the guy is that kid?”

The other three celestial Venerables of the Xuanyuan clan all cried out in shock.

They looked at Xuanyuan Zheng in disbelief.

Then, they turned around and looked at the scene. They were all in a daze.

In all four directions, people continued to discover it, and waves of exclamations rang out.

They all had the same reaction. At first, they couldn’t believe it, and then, they were shocked.

They all thought that the kid had been suppressed, but they didn’t expect that not only was he not suppressed, but he had also become so powerful that he could compete with a zenith heaven immortal with his golden immortal cultivation base.

“This kid ... Is too demonic!”

From time to time, some people were speechless.

They looked at the huge immortal spirit body and felt their scalps go numb.

Other than Yao, they really couldn’t think of a more powerful word to describe this kid.

When he advanced to the Golden immortal stage and easily left the group of zenith heaven Immortals in the dust, they were already amazed. After that, he broke through to the late golden immortal stage in just three years, shocking the world even more.

At that time, they all felt that that was the peak.

This was all there was to a demon.

But now, this kid had once again broken their understanding!

“He does have the strength of a Daluo!”

“This is a young celestial venerable!”

Many people exclaimed in surprise.

In the celestial world, only those at the zenith heaven realm could be called celestial Venerables. Although this kid’s cultivation had not reached the zenith heaven realm, his strength had reached the level where he could be called a celestial venerable!

Such a young celestial venerable had never appeared before.

This was the first, and would probably be the last.

“He is indeed worthy of this title!”

When the celestial of the great all-embracing heaven heard this, he was stunned at first, then his face showed a bit of bitterness and emotion, and his heart was filled with mixed feelings.

Being caught up by such a young brat, he did not feel good.

“That immortal spirit body is very strong, so he can fight against the celestial of the great all-embracing heaven, but he’s not a celestial of the great all-embracing heaven after all. There are three opponents, so he’s definitely no match for them. Why is he stalling here? can’t he just run away?”

There were also great eternity Immortals who observed for a moment and asked.

Looking at the situation, the kid had a chance to escape before they arrived. However, he didn’t. He stayed here and fought with the three old monsters of the primitive sect.

Didn’t he know that if this continued, he wouldn’t be able to leave?

“He’s just stalling for time to refine the Golden Immortals in his body. Previously, he killed a golden immortal and became so powerful after devouring him. Just now, he devoured five golden Immortals, and all of them are in his stomach!”

Someone replied.

“Refine to death? Devouring?”

Hearing this, the celestial of the great all-embracing heaven was stunned.

Then, his mind was greatly shaken and he was extremely shocked.

This kid was too crazy!

At this time, he still wanted to take the risk to refine gold immortal. Wasn't he afraid that he would be suppressed by the group of zenith heaven Immortals?

"That's too ruthless!"

When he came back to his senses, he shook his head and laughed bitterly.

With five golden Immortals in his body, it was no wonder this brat didn't leave. Even if he left, they would easily catch up with him. It was better to stay here and take a risk. Besides, if there were more people, they might not be United, and the threat would be less.

For example, they had not made a move yet and were waiting for the Yuanshi sect to make a move, while they would reap the benefits later.

"Fellow Daoists, we can't let this brat succeed. It only took him half a day to refine and devour a golden immortal. If we delay any longer, the five golden Immortals will die, and the brat's strength will become even more terrifying."

A moment later, a Grand Luo immortal stood out and shouted.

"Then what do you think we should do?"

Someone responded.

"Of course we'll work together to suppress this brat first. As for how to distribute the treasures, it'll naturally be calculated according to how much effort we put in. Whoever puts in the most effort will get the biggest share." The Grand Luo immortal said.

No one responded for a while.

The group of Grand Luo Immortals had different expressions.

Although that brat had many treasures on him, there were only a few of the best. On the other hand, there were too many of them. It was simply too little.

“If we don’t make a move now, it’ll be too late. When that kid really refines that person to death, we won’t be able to suppress him anymore!” The great eternity immortal shouted anxiously.

“That’s right! We should work together to suppress this kid first, then we can talk about the treasure!”

The Xuanyuan clan’s people spoke.

Xuanyuan Zheng looked around and shouted, “let the Xuanyuan clan take the lead!” Everyone, just follow me and attack!”

“Alright!”

Everyone pondered for a moment, then nodded.

However, they all had their own plans.

“Fellow Daoists from the primordial beginning sect, we’re here to help!”

Xuanyuan Zheng laughed out loud, then brought the other three to the center of the battlefield.

In all four directions, the group of great eternity Immortals had a tacit understanding and swept forward.

From their bodies, a vast aura exploded and pressed down on the field.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Pillars of light shot up into the sky and stood between heaven and earth.

Each pillar of light represented a great eternity immortal.

“What are you guys trying to do?”

“This kid is from our primordial beginning sect. Don’t even think about touching him!”

The three people from the primordial beginning sect looked around in shock and anger.

“My fellow Daoists, it’s not that we’re not giving you a chance, but look at how long it’s been, and you still haven’t taken down this kid. We’re worried for you.”

“That’s right. If you guys can’t take it down, we’ll do it. Isn’t that normal?”

The group of Grand Luo Immortals laughed and teased.

Even though that kid was indeed a little slippery and had used his void super power to the extreme, it was still embarrassing that the three zenith heaven old monsters could not take down a young kid after fighting for so long.

“You guys ...”

The three people from the primordial beginning sect were embarrassed.

“Alright! If you want this kid, then let’s see if you have the ability!” The heavenly Dao Daoist gritted his teeth and roared.

After being pestered by that kid for so long without being able to take him down, he was already holding back his anger. At this moment, he exploded.

“Fellow Daoist Tiandao, it’s been a long time since we’ve sparred. Why don’t we have a sparring today and see how much your divine arts have improved over the years?”

One of the four Holy Masters of the Xuanyuan clan laughed and shot out a beam of divine light toward Daoist Tiandong.

Among the other Immortals, many of them attacked tacitly and shot out divine light at the other two Immortals of the primitive sect.

The remaining ones were all aimed at the immortal spirit body.

“You guys are looking for death!”

The two Immortals of the primordial beginning sect were furious.

They didn't care about the kid anymore. They all turned around and activated their treasures to meet the attack.

The celestial Spirit body's body shook and disappeared.

The next moment, when he reappeared, he was already behind the group of zenith heaven Celestials. The Nine Eyes on his body opened and at the same time, he waved his giant palm and ruthlessly slapped.

A chaotic battle instantly erupted.
