

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3211

Tang Hao opened his eyes in the hall.

He furrowed his brows and seemed to be in deep thought.

After another seven days of deduction, he already had a general idea on how to open up the Natal world.

He heaved a sigh of relief and looked outside the hall.

“It’s been almost two months!”

He sighed.

He had been in the nightless club for almost two months.

He spent most of his time in the palace and rarely went out. Whenever he walked to the door, the night Immortal King would appear on time.

He was also very helpless. He was completely helpless against an Immortal King expert.

Although he was in the nightless club, he could still find out the news of the outside world by spreading his clones around the immortal world.

The people outside were all discussing him. At first, they were all talking about his golden core of the great path and analyzing how he had created such a rare and wondrous pill. But gradually, the direction of the discussion changed.

Now, they were all discussing the gossip about him and the night Immortal King.

“I have a friend at the nightless club. He saw the night Immortal King and that demon hugging each other. It was simply unsightly! There’s definitely something going on between the two of them!”

“This is an old cow eating young grass! How old was the night Immortal King? that kid was only a hundred years old! How could she do that!”

The world was happy to do this, and some people even went to the nightless club’s vicinity just to inquire about this kind of gossip.

Tang Hao was speechless.

“I have to find a chance to leave this place as soon as possible!”

He sighed.

He couldn’t stay here any longer. The two girls, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci, were still outside, and he also needed to go and take a look at the Pingtian sect.

After a short rest, he resumed his meditation and continued to deduce the secret method to open up the Natal world.

Just like that, another half a month passed.

On this day, his chance had finally come.

One day, as he was deducing the secret technique, he heard a clear shout from outside, ""Ye, get out here!"

He opened his eyes and was immediately overjoyed.

Isn't that the immortal execution King?

Now that she was here, there would be a good show to watch.

"What's going on? Why are you acting so wildly here instead of staying in your own sect!" It was the night Immortal King's voice. It was soft and magnetic.

"Where are they? Hand it over!"

Immortal execution King shouted.

"Who is it?"

"The kid you snatched away!"

"That's because he came here of his own free will, it's none of your business! Besides, he's already lost your Emperor puppet sect's token, so he's no longer one of your people, so you have no right to care!" The night Immortal King taunted.

"Even so, he's not a member of the nightless club. Didn't you hear that he was unwilling to join the nightless club that day?" Immortal execution King coldly shouted.

“Who said that? he’s so happy at my nightless club now.”

“Old man, you’re shameless!”

Immortal execution King gritted his teeth and cursed.

She suddenly recalled the news she had heard these days.

This ye guy must have used some shameless method to keep the kid.

“Yo! What does it matter to you what I do? even if I really did push that kid down, what does it have to do with you? Speaking of which, that kid is quite interesting and I quite like him. Maybe one day, I’ll really push him away.”

The night Immortal King laughed.

As she spoke, she sized up her opponent and shook her head. “Don’t even think about it. That kid doesn’t like your type. It’s too small!”

She even emphasized the word “little.”

“You ...”

Immortal execution King’s eyes widened in anger and were about to spew fire.

“Come out, let’s have another fight!”

She shrieked as her body trembled, and a crazy aura burst out.

In an instant, the sky changed color, and the entire Mountain Gate shook.

“Start fighting! Start fighting!”

In the palace on the main peak, Tang Hao looked up with excitement.

As long as they started fighting, he would have a chance to escape.

“Let’s fight! Who’s afraid of you!”

The night Immortal King shouted as he transformed into a beam of divine light and charged forward.

The two figures rushed up into the sky.

The immortal kings were too powerful. Once they started fighting, even with the protection of the formation, the mountain Gate would be destroyed.

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he saw that.

His chance had finally come!

However, he was not in a hurry. It was still risky to go out now. He had to wait for the two of them to start fighting before he could sneak out.

He sat in the hall and waited patiently.

A moment later, he heard a deafening sound coming from the sky. It was like thunder that spread out and shook the entire universe.

“Let’s go!”

He sprang to his feet and released his divine perception to Scout the area. After making sure that the night Immortal King had not left any tricks behind, he put on his golden fighting robe and quickly left the hall.

At this time, the nightless club’s people were all looking up at the sky. Even if he didn’t wear a golden fighting suit, no one would notice him.

He sneaked out easily.

“Bye!”

He turned around and looked at the mountain Gate. He immediately tore open the void and escaped.

He shuttled through the void non-stop and even used some of the teleportation formations he had left behind. He arrived at the ancient tai Chu land as quickly as he could and hid himself.

At the same time, he paid close attention to the nightless club’s situation through his avatar.

After a day of fighting, the two immortal kings stopped. Nothing happened in the nightless club. The night Immortal King was still in the sect and didn’t chase him. He heaved a sigh of relief.

However, he was still not at ease. He was prepared to stay in this place for a few more days, and then secretly leave.

He abandoned the interrogation at the place where he used to live and stayed there for a few days.

One day, he received a jade talisman from Chun Xuan.

When he opened it, he was stunned for a moment before he smiled happily.

Just a moment ago, the two girls had successfully transcended their tribulation and advanced to golden immortal.

These two girls had already bloomed Five Golden Flowers, and he had also given them a lot of cultivation. This progress was also within his expectations.

“We can go out now to see them!”

“The Saint spirit celestial dynasty? It’s quite far. ”

He rose to his feet and headed for the exit of the ancient tai Chu land.

These two girls had been wandering outside for a long time and had recently been staying in a place called the Saint spirit celestial dynasty. Tang Hao had heard of this force before, which was one of the largest celestial dynasties in the immortal world.

The forces in the immortal world were very complicated. There were great sects, clans, grotto-heavens, pure lands, and naturally, immortal dynasties.

However, there were not many famous ones, only about ten.

The Taiyi celestial dynasty that Princess Zi Yang was from was one of the most famous celestial dynasties.

In terms of strength, this Saint spirit celestial dynasty was even above the Taiyi celestial dynasty, and it had a great reputation. In recent years, it even seemed to be the number one celestial dynasty.

“Blue profound continent!”

He used his own teleportation formation and arrived at the blue profound continent where the Saint spirit celestial dynasty was located in less than a day.

After flying for a few more hours, he entered the territory of the Saint spirit celestial dynasty.

Soon, he sensed the location of the two girls and rushed over.
