

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3221

“Bang!”

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, the purple raw stone exploded.

A purple figure charged out and let out a long howl that shook the surroundings.

“It’s a late heaven immortal!”

Sensing the aura, everyone exclaimed in shock.

“Six apertures, late heaven immortal realm!”

On the stage, the old man who was dissecting the stone examined it and shouted.

“Quick, suppress it!”

The heaven Immortals of the rock market, who had been prepared for this, immediately swarmed forward and tied up the origin embryo.

“Six apertures, not bad!”

“Yup! It’s a big profit to cut it out for 15 million!”

Everyone was excited.

To be able to open six apertures was already a stroke of great luck. The previous one with seven apertures was a stroke of great luck. In the entire history of the quarry, there were only a few that had been opened.

“Congratulations, Your Highness!”

The people in the quarry all looked at the eighth prince and congratulated him.

“Hahaha! It’s alright!”

The eighth prince laughed out loud. He was in a very good mood.

The one he had opened was only one aperture worse than the one that the other fellow had just opened. This time, the other fellow had chosen two million raw gemstones. How could he have opened a better origin core than his?

He was definitely going to win!

And that seven-orifice origin core was also in his bag!

“This guy is really stupid, couldn’t he have sold it earlier? Now, we can’t even get a single point!”

“Woof! He really deserves it!”

Behind the eighth prince, a group of people sneered.

They even deliberately raised their voices as if they were afraid that no one else could hear them.

“Young master, we seem to have lost!”

Ji Qiuci muttered.

“Oh, really? It hasn’t opened yet! You might not lose!”

Tang Hao smiled, his expression calm.

He had found something unusual about the two million Yuan raw stone, which was why he had chosen this one.

As for whether or not he could get a higher quality one, he did not have absolute confidence, so he could only take a gamble.

“Hmph! You’re stubborn!”

“What good stuff can come out of this lousy stone?”

The passerby ridiculed without mercy.

Tang Hao ignored him and looked at the old man on the stage.

The old man bowed and walked to the silver raw stone.

He fumbled around and suddenly exclaimed, "something's wrong! Why can't I touch it!"

"What's wrong?"

Everyone asked.

"That's strange. I can't even pinpoint the location of the origin core inside ..." The old man frowned, his face full of confusion.

"How is this possible?!"

Everyone was shocked.

This man was a master of cutting stones. He had cut countless raw stones before. With his experience and knowledge, how could he not be accurate?

"I really can't touch it. It's as if ... The origin core inside is alive. It's moving and avoiding my detection."

The old man reached out to touch it again, and he was even more surprised.

"This ... This is impossible!"

"Yup! How can the origin core inside be alive if it hasn't been dispelled?"

There was a clamor all around, and everyone had a look of disbelief.

They had been watching for many years and had never seen such a situation.

“Forget it, I’ll just open it!”

The old man shook his head and reached out his hand, trying to print on the raw stone.

However, at this moment, the rough stone suddenly exploded, and a shocking divine light burst out. A figure flashed through it and instantly disappeared.

“Eh? Where’s the origin core?”

“How did he disappear?”

Everyone was shocked at first, but when they reacted and took a closer look, they were all stunned.

There was no sign of an origin core in the air.

“This ...”

The old man who was cutting the stone was stunned on the stage, somewhat at a loss.

He had never encountered such a strange situation in all his years of dissecting stones.

“Could it be that the origin core inside has already woken up and developed a complete spirit?”

“It’s possible! This also proves that the origin core inside is extraordinary. It’s probably not of ordinary quality, but one of the legendary top-grade origin cores.”

The crowd discussed excitedly.

Above seven apertures, there were eight and nine apertures.

There were only three types of nine acupores, but there were more eight acupores. All of them were legendary existences and divine items that all the immortals in the world dreamed of.

“A legendary origin core? That’s right! Only an origin core of this grade would have such a phenomenon!”

On the stage, the old man regained his senses and was so excited that his entire body was trembling.

“A legendary origin core?”

On the side, the eighth Prince’s face was filled with disbelief.

What a rare divine item that was!

How could it be found in a raw stone worth two million Yuan?

This ... Was too absurd!

He had spent 15 million Yuan to open a six acupores master, but this guy had spent 2 million Yuan to open a legendary eight acupores master’s origin core. What the hell was this?!

His face twitched a few times, and he had the urge to vomit blood.

“Who says that’s the legendary origin core? it’s gone without a trace. How do you know that’s the legendary origin core? maybe it’s just an ordinary origin core that’s developed a complete sentence in advance. That’s all.”

“That’s right! Our Prince won this bet!”

Behind him, someone stood out and shouted.

“Right! It’s like this!”

The eighth prince also reacted and quickly agreed.

The four sides immediately fell silent.

Everyone’s expression became a little strange.

Indeed, since it had disappeared, there was no evidence. No one could say that it was an eight-orifice nascent embryo, but it was not appropriate to say that the eighth prince had won.

The people in the quarry looked left and right, cold sweat dripping down.

It was their negligence that allowed the origin core to escape.

“Your Highness, how about ... We call it a draw!” Steward Liu wiped his cold sweat and said weakly.

“How could it be a draw? it’s clearly His Highness who won!”

The people behind the eighth prince shouted.

“Yup! It can’t be considered a draw!”

Tang Hao said.

“You’re quite tactful. Since you’ve lost, hand over your origin core!” The eighth prince said.

His heart, however, was filled with ecstasy.

That origin core wouldn’t be able to get far, because the Imperial City was protected by a great formation that sealed off the void. Once he left, he could use his authority to find that origin core and suppress it.

This way, he would have three origin embryos.

One was a six-acupores, one was a seven-acupores, and one was an eight-acupores legendary origin core.

And he had only spent 15 million!

It was really a great profit!

“Wait a moment!”

Tang Hao smiled. Then, his body flickered and he disappeared.

In less than three breaths 'time, he returned with a silver humanoid creature in his hand.

"This is ... The origin core that escaped earlier?"

"You've caught him so quickly?"

Everyone looked over in shock.

After the origin core had escaped, they had all tracked it down but had not discovered it. However, this person had actually captured it so quickly. It was clear how powerful his means were!

"It can't be wrong, he has indeed opened eight apertures!"

"This is the legendary five elements origin core!"

The old man who was dissecting the stone quickly rushed forward and carefully examined the origin core before exclaiming in excitement.
