

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3242

In the Great Hall of Holy Emperor Palace, people were moving.

“He’s the mysterious golden immortal who convinced the nine Saint mountain to surrender to the two forces?”

Everyone looked at the entrance of the hall, their eyes focused on the man in white.

Their expressions were filled with reverence.

“Fellow Daoist!”

Even the sage Emperor rose from his Dragon Throne and respectfully called out.

This person had convinced the nine Saint mountain to seize a large piece of land for the Saint spirit dynasty. This was enough to make him treat him with such respect.

Tang Hao cupped his hands in salute.

“I heard that the ninth Prince’s side didn’t gain anything this time. What a pity!”

“That’s normal. Capturing those old demons isn’t something that can be done with just strength.”

Everyone in the hall was discussing in low voices.

“Imperial father, this time, your son has not failed you. I have captured five demons on the list and have come to hand them over to Imperial father to deal with!”

The third Prince rushed into the hall and shouted.

As he spoke, he flicked his sleeve and five rays of divine light flew out. After landing, five figures tied up by golden ropes appeared.

“Good! Very good!”

The sage Emperor laughed with a look of relief.

“That’s right. He’s Six-Fingered immortal. He once killed millions of Saint realm cultivators in the Saint spirit dynasty. He’s 139th on the wanted list!”

“This person is patriarch bewitching soul. He once massacred wantonly in the celestial dynasty and stole countless treasures. He is ranked 109th on the earth roll!”

Someone stepped forward to verify their identities and record them down.

“These old demons deserve it!”

“This is really satisfying!”

Everyone in the hall laughed.

“Father, I’ve captured three demons ...”

The eighth prince entered the palace and waved his sleeves. Three figures flew out.

“Your son has caught two ...”

The rest of the princes entered the hall one by one and took out the demons they had captured.

“The Crown Prince and the eighth prince have three. It’s still not enough!”

“Yup! It seems that the first place is without a doubt. The third Prince was second last time, and this time he is first again. His performance is really extraordinary. At present, it seems that he has the greatest hope of ascending to the throne. ”

The courtiers in the hall all began to discuss, their eyes occasionally glancing over at the third Prince.

The sage Emperor looked around the hall, his brow creasing.

“You guys didn’t catch a single one?”

He looked towards tantai Mingyue’s side.

“I don’t think so!”

Tantai Mingyue turned around and shook her head.

“What do you mean by” should “?”

The sage Emperor was stunned, and then he glared.

Did this girl think that this was a game?

“Hahaha!”

The third Prince couldn’t help but laugh.

This little girl wanted to compete with him for the Saint position?

What a joke!

“I’m not sure either!” Tantai Mingyue mumbled.

She didn’t care, and her idol didn’t tell her whether she had caught them or not. But according to her guess, there shouldn’t be any, because the seven old monsters had been out for a few months. When they came back, all of them looked depressed and dispirited.

As for his idol, he had never gone out either.

She was quite happy about this. This way, she wouldn’t really have to ascend to the saint’s position.

“Father, please don’t make things difficult for ninth sister. If she didn’t take it out, it means she doesn’t have it. This is normal. Ninth sister has few people around her. How can she catch those cunning old demons?” The third Prince laughed.

The sage Emperor frowned.

Then, he shook his head helplessly.

That was true. There were still too few people around little 9th. It was indeed very awkward in this round.

He retracted his gaze and was about to announce the result.

“Wait a moment!”

At this moment, a deep voice was heard.

He looked towards the source of the voice and was stunned.

The person who spoke was the mysterious white-robed golden immortal.

“Fellow Daoist, what’s wrong?” He asked in surprise.

Everyone in the hall was also puzzled.

“I almost forgot, I really did catch a few.” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Whoosh!”

The hall instantly burst into an uproar.

This was a huge reversal!

Originally, after the third Prince took the first place, the overall score would be ranked first, but if the ninth Prince's side really caught the person, then the result would be different.

"How is that possible?"

The third Prince's expression changed.

He had a clear grasp of the bright moon Palace's situation. He had clearly not caught a single one.

The other princes' expressions changed as well.

They were also in disbelief. How could the bright moon Palace catch someone with so few people?

"How many are there?"

The sage Emperor hurriedly asked.

"Quite a lot, I didn't count." Tang Hao said.

In an instant, there was another clamor in the hall, and it was somewhat boiling.

This tone was also a little too big!

Was he bragging?

The third Prince, for example, had only caught five of them, and they could be counted on one hand. Yet, this person actually said that there were more than he could count. If this wasn't bragging, what was it?

Those old Devils were all extremely cunning and cunning. It was difficult to find even one, let alone more than five.

"Keep bragging. Take it out and see if you have the guts!"

The third Prince shouted.

He firmly believed that this guy was just bluffing. At most, there would only be two or three.

Tang Hao glanced at him. He flicked his sleeve, and a black shadow flew out. It fell to the ground with a thump and rolled a few times.

Everyone focused their eyes and saw that it was clearly a human head.

"I know him. He's old demon cloud crane. He's a perverted demon who's harmed countless female Immortals. He's an old demon ranked in the top fifty!"

Very quickly, someone recognized it and exclaimed in shock.

Old demon cloud crane was ranked higher than the other old demons.

The higher the ranking, the more powerful they were, and the heavier the sins they committed.

The third Prince's expression changed.

Thump!

At this time, another head flew out and rolled on the ground, causing his pupils to contract and his mind to be greatly shaken.

Another old demon!

When he heard the exclamations from all directions, he knew that this was another famous person who was ranked at the top.

This ... How could this be possible!

When he saw another head fly out, he was completely stunned.

He had tried his best, but he had only caught five. How could this guy catch so many?

Moreover, all of them were top-ranked figures.

Could it be that these old demons were all fools, lining up to be caught by him?

In the beginning, there were still exclamations of surprise in the hall, but gradually, it fell into a dead silence.

Everyone was dumbfounded as they watched the heads fly out one after another and roll on the ground.

One, two ... Ten, then twenty, thirty ...

Soon, these heads were piled up on the ground.

Their eyes were dazzled. They really couldn't count how many there were.

Clang! Clang!

Many people unconsciously let go of their hands, and the things in their hands fell to the ground one after another. However, they did not realize it. They only widened their eyes and stared at the heads that rolled on the ground.

“My Tiangang Gu!”

Even the Saint Emperor almost lost his balance. His legs trembled and he almost fell to the ground.

His heart trembled and his mind went blank.

The scene in front of him was too shocking!
