

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3249

Tianlan state capital.

Tang Hao sat in the hall. He was playing with a jade talisman in his hand.

It was from the demoness.

“Heavenly Lord fire spirit, huh?”

He mumbled to himself with a look of disdain.

He had seen this old monster before. He was one of the people who had tried to kill him in the territory of Emperor puppet sect.

With his current strength, he really wasn't afraid of this old monster.

“If he dares to come, I'll give him a surprise!”

He snorted lightly, and a fierce look flashed in his eyes.

As long as he made some preparations, even if a great eternity immortal came, he would be defeated.

He contacted his clones in the various immortal cities. After understanding the situation in each city, he began to make preparations.

At this moment, somewhere on the continent, on a floating island.

A red-robed old man flew out.

Not only was his immortal robe red like rolling flames, but even his hair, eyebrows, and beard were red. He had a square face, thick eyebrows, and big eyes, giving off a strong and wild aura.

He was none other than heavenly venerate fire spirit!

One of the great eternity Celestials who shocked the celestial world!

“The ancient Immortal City ... Interesting! I have to go and take a look!”

He muttered, feeling an unbearable itch in his heart.

Just like his title, he was most skilled in fire-type mantras. He had cultivated fire all the way up to his current position. He was most interested in alchemy and blacksmithing, especially blacksmithing, which was his most passionate area.

Hence, the moment he heard that the ancient Immortal City might have been created by an Immortal King, he couldn't hold it in anymore.

“To be able to make my disciples feel so troubled, this immortal City must be extraordinary.”

He chuckled and dashed out.

“Chuan 'er, your master is here!”

He took out a jade talisman, entered a message, and made the call.

Then, he turned into a divine light and rushed away.

Since they were all on the same continent, there was no need to take the teleportation array. He headed straight for the tianlan continent.

“Master has set off!”

In the tianlan state, the eighth prince, who had been waiting for a long time, received the Jade talisman and exclaimed in joy.

In an instant, everyone cheered.

“The fire spirit Cave isn’t far from here. With the speed of a Grand Luo immortal, two hours should be enough!”

“Almost!”

They discussed excitedly, their faces full of anticipation.

They couldn’t wait to see the old monster run away in a sorry state.

Soon, two hours had passed.

They became more and more excited as they raised their heads and looked at the sky.

At this moment, a ripple appeared in the void not far from the sky Horizon State. The celestial venerable fire spirit walked out.

“The tianlan Prefecture is right in front of us. I wonder where the immortal cities are. Let me see!”

His eyes blinked, and a dazzling divine light burst out, sweeping forward.

Soon, he had a harvest.

“Waa!”

When he saw the true appearance of the immortal City, he couldn't help but widen his eyes and exclaim.

He had never seen such a strange Immortal City!

Just this unique design alone was enough to strongly attract him.

“So beautiful! It's a perfect piece of art!”

He looked at it carefully, and his eyes became more and more heated.

“Hahaha! Sure enough, he didn't make a wasted trip! When I take this immortal City, no, all the immortal cities here will be mine. I'll take them all back and study them.” He stroked his red beard and laughed heartily.

“As for the old monster Chuan ‘er mentioned, I’ll take care of him. How dare he make things difficult for my disciple? You really don’t know what’s good for you!”

As he spoke, he moved and was about to use his divine power to fly towards the immortal City.

However, at this moment, he suddenly sensed that there seemed to be someone staring at him from behind, making him feel like there was a dagger at his back.

He quivered and almost jumped up.

Who was this person?

How could someone approach him without him noticing?

He immediately turned around and looked over.

In the next moment, his entire body trembled, and he was dumbstruck.

Behind him was a beautiful and seductive face. Her full and seductive red lips were slightly lifted with a faint smile. A pair of long and narrow Phoenix eyes were slightly narrowed and staring at him without blinking.

In his eyes, there was a bit of playfulness and a bit of coldness.

“Little fire spirit, where are you going?”

She said in a low voice, the smile on her face deepening.

Heavenly venerate fire Spirit's eyes widened as his body began to shiver.

His eyes were filled with intense shock and fear.

Of course, he recognized this face!

"Greetings ... Greetings ... Greetings ... Night Immortal King!"

He hurriedly bowed. Because he was too nervous, he stuttered.

Of the two immortal kings in the immortal realm, the night Immortal King was the most terrifying.

"What a ... What a coincidence! I didn't expect to run into senior here!"

"Oh, really? I also think it's quite a coincidence. I wonder what you're doing here?" The night Immortal King said quietly.

"Oh! My disciple tantai Chuan is the eighth prince of the Saint spirit dynasty. He's currently fighting for the Saint position with someone, but he seems to have encountered a troublesome opponent, so he asked me to help. "

"I didn't want to come at first, but I heard that that person has a few very strange immortal cities, so I came to take a look and help my disciple deal with that person. My own disciple was humiliated, and as her master, I have to express my gratitude, right?"

Primogenitor fire spirit hurriedly replied.

His expression was extremely respectful, and he didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

"By the way, I wonder what senior Immortal King is doing here? Are you just passing by?"

Then, he asked again.

"I'm here to find someone." The night Immortal King glanced at the sky billow Prefecture and said faintly.

"Looking for someone?"

Heavenly venerate fire spirit was stunned."Have you found it?"

"I've already found it." The night Immortal King sighed."But I don't know what to do. This kid is so annoying. I want to keep him by my side, but I'm afraid I can't. What do you think I should do?"

Heavenly venerate fire spirit was stunned.

Then, with a hiss, he gasped.

He wasn't stupid. Of course, he understood who this so-called little fellow was. He was definitely the heaven-defying monster from before!

Back then, this person had taken that demon away in front of the world.

Could it be that the demon had already escaped?

Furthermore, it's in the vicinity of the Saint spirit dynasty?

Wait, something doesn't seem right!

Suddenly, his mind trembled as if he had thought of something. He broke out in a cold sweat.

"Chuan 'er said that the old monster is freakishly powerful. Not only did he deal with the nine Saint mountain, but he also captured a bunch of old demons on the wanted list and conjured eight powerful immortal cities ... Could this guy be that monster?"

"Isn't that monster a God? It's said that his artifact-making style is extremely unique. Such an Immortal City can only be built by him!"

"We're finished! It's finished! This evildoer is the night Immortal King's exclusive property. If I touch him, I'll be dead!"

"This evil disciple wants my life!"

Heavenly venerate fire spirit quickly understood what was going on and cursed in his heart.

He was so close to being finished!

Fortunately, he had realized in time and stopped himself from causing a disaster!
