

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3253

Tianlan Prefecture.

The sky was filled with divine light, and it was bustling.

These were all xiuzhe that had come from all over the continent.

“Not bad!”

In the main hall of the state capital, Tang Hao retracted his gaze and nodded in satisfaction.

The plan was very successful, and the number of people who came was several times more than he had expected.

The more people there were, the more money they would have to pay.

However, he wasn't worried about this. In any case, he would still have to take it back from the Saint spirit dynasty in the future, and he wouldn't make a loss in business.

“Right now, our tianlan state is the most popular state. No one from the other states is going. We're definitely going to get first place!”

“If this continues, the sky billow continent will become a Holy Land for cultivation. It won't be any worse than the HolySpirit Emperor!”

At the side, Daoist Qingcheng and the others were chatting excitedly.

They were all overjoyed and proud.

The current Grand occasion of the tianlan Prefecture was created by them.

On the other hand, tantai Mingyue was sprawled on the table, looking weak.

The matter of her becoming the sage Emperor was already set in stone, and this also made her particularly vexed.

“Idol, can you please not be so serious next time?”

She tilted her head and looked at Tang Hao.

Tang Hao’s mouth twitched. “What?” he said with a smile. “Isn’t it good to be serious?”

“I’m not saying that it’s bad to be serious, it’s just that ... You’re a little too serious!”

Tantai Mingyue laughed bitterly.

In the previous round, everyone else caught one or two old demons, but he caught a whole nest. In this round, he directly refined eight immortal cities. Oh my God! Who the hell knew how he refined it!

In just half a month, he had refined eight immortal cities. This operation was really suffocating.

Tang Hao looked at her and laughed.

“You’d better think more about how you’re going to become the sage Emperor!”

He jokingly said, then raised his head and looked at the sky in the distance.

There, beams of divine light were sweeping over. They were all golden Immortals.

When they arrived above the prefecture, the divine light stopped, and many figures appeared.

“The third Prince is fatuous and tyrannical. We’ve already severed all ties with him. We’re here to seek refuge with the ninth Prince. Please give us a chance, ninth Prince!”

A golden immortal walked to the front and shouted.

“Woof! This group of old monsters are quite good at sailing with the wind!”

“It can’t be a trap, right?”

Daoist Qingcheng and the others looked up with unfriendly expressions.

“It doesn’t look like it! Let them in!”

Tang Hao said as he shook his head.

Immediately, Daoist Qingcheng rushed forward and unwillingly led them in.

“Greetings, senior!”

“Your Highness!”

When they entered and saw Tang Hao sitting in the hall, they immediately bowed and greeted him with great respect.

This was a person that even heavenly venerate fire spirit had to be wary of, so how could they dare to slight him?

Only then did they dare to stand up and bow towards tantai Mingyue.

“What are you guys doing here?” Tantai Mingyue looked at them and said in an annoyed tone.

“Your Highness, we were blind to support the third Prince before. Now, we’ve come to realize that you’re the most suitable candidate for the throne, ninth Prince. So, we’ve severed our relationship with the third Prince and come to assist you, ninth Prince!”

“Yup! He’s forsaken the dark for the light!”

The group of old monsters laughed and said. Their faces were not red, and their hearts were not beating fast.

Tantai Mingyue only responded with an “Oh” and had a disinterested look on her face.

The group of old monsters looked at each other and cursed in their hearts.

It seemed that because of the previous incident, ninth Prince had a deep prejudice against them!

This was normal. After all, just a moment ago, they were still opponents, so how could ninth Highness be nice to them?

It was time for them to show their sincerity.

“Your Highness, just you wait. We’ll go and tear down the territories of the other princes. I guarantee that you’ll be able to take first place smoothly.”

“Your Highness, just wait for our good news!”

The group of old monsters roared a few times and rushed into the sky as if they had been injected with chicken blood.

Tantai Mingyue’s mouth twitched. She was completely speechless.

Did this group of people think that she was not fast enough?

“Greetings, ninth Highness, and senior!”

Soon, patriarch demonic heart arrived as well.

“Senior, you’re really amazing. Junior’s admiration for you is like The Endless River ... Senior, this is my disciple, Xin Yue. If you don’t mind, you can let her follow you.”

Patriarch demonic heart showered Tang Hao with praises. He praised him to the heavens and even pushed his disciple forward.

He felt that this person was probably hiding his identity, so he addressed him as senior, not daring to reveal his identity.

“F * ck! You’re so shameless!”

Daoist Qingcheng and the others cursed in their hearts.

Even tantai Mingyue was stunned.

“There’s no need for this!”

Tang Hao waved his hands.

This was a demoness with a strange and impermanent temperament. He didn’t dare to take her.

This time, it was just a cooperation.

“I see! It’s such a pity!” Patriarch demonic heart slapped his thigh with a look of pity.

If he could hug onto this thigh, his Devil Heart sect would take off.

“Ninth Prince, don’t worry. The third Prince is done for. He’s gone. Those fellow Daoists just went to the crown prince’s territory. I’ll go and help them. Wait for my good news!”

With that said, patriarch devilheart left in a hurry.

“Fellow Daoist, I’ll be going too.”

Yao Xinyue gave Tang Hao a flirtatious look, chuckled, and followed him.

In an instant, the expressions of tantai Mingyue and the rest became extremely strange.

“Cough! In fact, she is one of us!”

Tang Hao briefly explained the story of the demoness.

Hearing this, everyone was stunned.

This man had already planted a spy in the third Prince’s camp, and he knew all of the third Prince’s movements. This kind of means was too terrifying!

No wonder the third Prince lost so badly!

“This person’s methods are truly amazing!”

They all sighed in their hearts, and their expressions became even more reverent.

Not only was this person powerful and talented, but he was also extremely sinister. He was even more sinister than an old monster who had lived for tens of thousands of years. It was no wonder that this person could live until now.

If it was someone else with two immortal Emperor treasures, they would have been exterminated when they had just entered the upper realm. How could they have survived until now and become a heavenly venerable?

“Third brother ... He’s so miserable!”

Tantai Mingyue muttered with a look of sympathy.

This third brother of his was also considered a genius and was somewhat famous in the entire immortal world. However, in the end, he was completely crushed and was directly pressed to the ground.

How pitiful!

How pitiful!

She sighed.

“It seems that this round of test is almost over!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked at the crown prince’s territory and then at the other territories.

The crown prince’s side was also in a state of disunity. How could they resist a group of old monsters who had been injected with chicken blood? at this moment, it was already a mess. It would not be long before the other princes’ territories would be the same.

This round of the test was probably going to end early.

His premonition came true. Three days later, the sage Emperor's group arrived at the tianlan state.
