

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3255

The spirit Toad continent.

Nantian city.

A beam of divine light swept over and landed nearby.

“Everyone, thank you!”

Tang Hao opened his mobile abode. All the fellow Daoists from Nantian city, including jinkuang, shuiyue, Shangqing, and the others, came out.

In the third round of the test, these fellow Daoists had helped him a lot.

“Ah! No need to be so polite!”

“Yup!”

Everyone laughed heartily.

“These are some gifts of thanks that I’ve prepared!” Tang Hao took out a pile of rings and handed them over one by one.

Everyone declined, but seeing that they couldn’t reject it, they could only accept it.

“President Tang is really polite!”

“We didn’t help much this time, so I’m ashamed to accept it!”

They laughed.

“What are you saying! You’ve helped a lot!” Tang Hao smiled.

After some small talk and a visit to the Shang Qing Grotto-heaven, he left.

The next stop was the Li Water Tribe continent, Holy beast Palace.

He stayed at the sacred beast Palace for a few days before leaving.

In the end, he arrived at the Pingtian sect.

The current Pingtian sect had become quite lively. They had taken in many people, all of whom had been raised from low cultivation levels to have loyalty.

To the outside world, the sect’s reputation had also changed quite a bit. At the very least, it was no longer as notorious as before.

“I’ll leave some more clones!”

He pondered for a while and decided to leave 900 more avatars here.

In his plan, the Pingtian sect was very important. Apart from his first clone guarding the sect, he had lady su manage it personally. He had also thrown the yin corpses that had been useless here.

Since he had many avatars now, he would send more to ensure that this place was impregnable.

“Strange!”

He summoned his clones and had them follow his first clone. Tang Hao looked around the mountain Gate and suddenly frowned. He realized a problem.

He had long predicted that someone would come up, but after so long, there was still no one.

This was very abnormal.

Although he had warned the people of his Haotian Daoist sect to wait before coming up, it had been too long.

All these years, his clone had been guarding outside the immortal court. If someone familiar came, he would definitely know. Even if he stayed in the immortal court, he would still be able to find out.

However, there had not been a single one in all these years.

Not a single one from the Ji family, the Haotian Daoist sect, or the Sacred Realm of Pangu.

As for lady su and little ye, they were not from the Holy region. There was also green tea Zhen and Xuanyuan Hongyi. They were all from the lower worlds.

In the past few years, many people had ascended to the lower realm.

This was also because when the passageway had opened, many true immortals had descended and brought with them many treasures.

“There’s a problem!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows as he pondered.

It had been too long, and he was starting to worry.

Were they too cautious and did not dare to ascend, or did something happen in the lower realm?

“The Holy region is guarded by many genuine Immortals and cultivators. It is also protected by an ancient formation. There shouldn’t be any problem, right?” He muttered to himself as his brows furrowed even more.

He felt that perhaps something had really happened that had delayed the sacred zone’s people. It was most likely the nine-colored race.

The nine-colored clan was backed by the Dragon count divine clan.

With the foundation of the Dragon count divine clan, creating a nine-colored clan at the true immortal level was an easy task.

“It’s also possible that I’m overthinking it. Anyway, I have to find a way to the lower realm as soon as possible and go down to take a look. Only then can I be at ease. Right, I can also find some people who have recently ascended and ask about the situation down there.”

Previously, when lady su and the others ascended, he had asked about the situation in the lower realm’s starry sky, but there was nothing unusual.

Of course, he did not manage to find out anything useful.

This time, he had to find someone to ask about the Ji family's situation.

After telling lady su to take care of the peaceful heaven sect, Tang Hao left quickly.

After he entered the heaven spirit division continent, he went straight to the immortal court.

He landed in the nearest Immortal City next to the immortal court and contacted his clone there to find out more about the people who had ascended from the origin immortal domain over the years.

"There's also one at the great emperor mountain!"

"And Jing Yan Zhai, isn't it in the immortal court? It seems that green tea really took her away."

"There's also the myriad beasts sect and even the star Mountain ... There's quite a number of them!"

He made a list with twenty to thirty names on it.

If it weren't for the true immortals descending to the lower realm last time, there definitely wouldn't be so many.

"Forget it, let's see who we can catch!"

He muttered.

It wasn't good for him to enter the immortal court, so he could only wait here. There would be people coming here sooner or later. This was the immortal City closest to the immortal court. Many people from the immortal court would come here.

After waiting for two days, he finally found a target.

He was a true immortal from the myriad beasts sect, one of the major powers of the origin immortal realm. He was supposed to be a Dao master, but he had ascended so quickly after receiving the power of a true immortal.

The true immortal of the myriad beasts sect entered the city and strolled around. He then entered a restaurant and sat down to drink.

"Fellow Daoist, can we have a chat?"

Tang Hao walked over and sat down in front of him.

"Do I know you?"

The man was startled and asked in surprise.

"I should know him!" Tang Hao smiled.

"Oh?"

The man was surprised. He narrowed his eyes and studied Tang Hao carefully.

In the past few years, many people had ascended from the starry sky below, so they might really be acquaintances.

However, upon closer inspection, it was really unfamiliar.

“May I ask which force you’re from?” He asked tentatively.

“I don’t have much power, but you must know me. My surname is Tang!”

Tang Hao poured himself a glass of wine, took a sip, and smiled.

“Tang?”

The man was stunned at first, then, as if he had thought of something, his hand trembled and the wine glass in his hand fell to the table, spilling the wine all over.

However, he did not feel anything. He just stared at Tang Hao in a daze.

“You ... You’re ... That man!”

He stammered, and his voice was trembling.

His eyes were wide open, filled with shock and fear.

He had a deep impression of the surname Tang!

In the origin immortal realm, this man had done countless great things. Later, he had single-handedly challenged the entire Xuanyuan clan, shaking the entire starry sky.

After that, he even slaughtered Immortals, shocking everyone.

After that, he disappeared. Many people guessed that he had ascended. They also thought that once he ascended, he would die. They all thought that he had already died in the immortal world.

However, when he ascended and heard about it, he was almost scared out of his wits.

He wasn't dead at all, and he was still alive. His strength was growing at a heaven-defying speed. A few years ago, he was still an early golden immortal, but now he was at the peak of the Golden immortal realm, and his combat strength was comparable to that of a Daluo celestial.

Such speed made him feel like he was dreaming.

In the lower realm, everyone was at the Dao master level and only had a few Dao attainment. But now, this person was at the peak of golden immortal and his might shook the entire immortal world, while he was just a little human immortal with dozens of Dao attainment. The gap was like the cloud and mud.

At this moment, such a terrifying and monstrous heavenly venerable rank figure had actually come to find a little human immortal like him. What was the reason?

He trembled more and more.
