

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3256

“Why are you so nervous?”

Tang Hao chuckled.

The true immortal from the myriad beasts sect smiled bitterly, his hands shaking.

It wasn't that he was a coward, but the person in front of him was simply too notorious!

“M-fellow Daoist, is there anything I can help you with?”

“Nothing much, I just wanted to ask you about something!” Tang Hao said.

“Oh!”

The true immortal immediately let out a long breath, and his expression eased a little.

“Fellow Daoist, please tell me. I'll definitely tell you everything I know.”

He said respectfully.

“I heard that you ascended three years ago?”

“That's right!”

“Then before you ascended, was there any major event or any strange thing that happened in the lower worlds of the origin immortal realm?”

“Nothing much! All these years, news of ascendance has been spreading everywhere. The great emperor mountain, Jing Yan house, and Star Mountain, all the big shots have ascended. As for the other news, there’s nothing that’s worth paying special attention to. ”

“Is that so? That Azure meteor star, the Ji clan, do you know of them?”

“The Ji family? Oh! I’ve heard of it!”

The true immortal was slightly startled and nodded.

Cang Liu star was the place where this person had first appeared in the origin immortal domain.

There was a Ji family there, and it was said that they had a deep relationship with this person.

“Has there been any movement from the Ji family in recent years?”

Tang Hao asked.

“No, I didn’t! The Ji family is quite low-key, and there’s rarely any news about them. However, a few years ago, many Dao Masters of unknown origins appeared in the origin immortal realm, causing some waves, but they quickly disappeared. ”

The true immortal said.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

Obviously, these unknown Taoist masters were from the Holy region, and they were from the Haotian Daoist sect.

This was because the passage to the divine temple was in another immortal domain. The passage to the origin immortal domain had been opened by him using the Kunlun mirror.

“When did it disappear?”

Dunn asked after a moment of silence.

“I’m not sure about the details, but it was about a year before I ascended! During that period of time.”

“Four years ago?”

Tang Hao said, deep in thought.

Four years ago, which was more than a year after he had entered the Emperor puppet sect.

“It seems that something has really happened in the sanctuary. Perhaps the nine-colored God clan has launched another attack and delayed them all in the sanctuary. I have to find a way as soon as possible to go back and take a look.”

He said to himself.

“Fellow Daoist, do you have any other questions?”

The true immortal asked carefully when he saw that Tang Hao was silent for a long time.

“I want to ask, can you see that immortal jieyin?”

Tang Hao said in a low voice.

“Jieyin immortal?”

The true immortal was stunned, and then his expression changed.

He understood what this person was planning. He clearly wanted to descend to the lower realm!

He smiled wryly. “Fellow Daoist, I’m sure you know that the position of receiving an immortal is very special. Therefore, ordinary people can’t see him and he rarely comes out. It’s impossible to go down through him.”

“That might not be the case!”

Tang Hao smiled.

“Fellow Daoist, it’s strictly forbidden to descend to the lower realm without permission. Once you’re discovered, you’ll be immediately stripped of your position as the welcoming immortal, and you’ll be punished. The risk is too high, and the price is too high.” The true immortal said, “even if we can see him, he won’t agree.”

“Oh, really? What if I give him a condition that he can’t refuse?”

Tang Hao said.

“What condition?”

” 100000 Dao attainment points, three connate spirit items, and ten golden cores of the great Dao!”
Tang Hao enunciated every word.

When the true immortal heard this, he was stunned and his eyes were filled with disbelief.

Oh my God!

100,000 Dao attainment!

With the addition of three connate spirit items, he had already paved the road to gold immortal.

There was also the great Dao golden pill. Wasn't it the number one pill on the pill ranking? it was said that it could greatly improve the cultivation base of a golden immortal. It was a rare divine pill.

“Do you think he will agree to this condition?”

Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

“This ...”

He was a little hesitant, and his heart wavered.

He didn't know if that immortal jieyin could resist such temptation. At least, if it were him, he definitely wouldn't be able to.

The salary of working in the immortal court wasn't high, it was only a few immortal crystals. He had to find time to refine his own treasures and sell them to earn some hard-earned money.

How long would it take for him to reach the peak of heaven immortal, or even the Golden immortal?

If there was such an opportunity for him to become a golden immortal, he would definitely not hesitate. It would be worth it no matter how great the price.

"Of course, if you can successfully persuade him, you will also be rewarded. 50000 Dao attainment. What do you think?"

Tang Hao said.

"Fifty ... Fifty thousand?"

The true immortal shuddered and said in disbelief.

"If you think it's too little, you can add more."

Tang Hao said with a smile.

"No! No need! It's ... It's enough!" He quickly waved his hand.

He did not dare to ask for too much. After all, this person's identity was too terrifying.

"Then 50000. If you need to pull some strings and convince others, it'll be 50000 Dao attainment points for all. What do you think?" Tang Hao said.

"Alright!"

The true immortal hurriedly agreed.

He was really too heroic!

He exclaimed in his heart and was a little excited.

If he succeeded, he would be able to easily become a heaven immortal.

"Here are 100000 Dao attainment points. Take them first!" Tang Hao took out a heaven-earth bag, placed it on the table, and pushed it over.

Now that he had countless skills, he naturally didn't care about this. Even if the negotiation didn't work out in the end, it didn't matter.

"Many thanks, fellow Daoist!"

The true immortal hurriedly accepted it.

"Fellow cultivator, I'll try my best. I'm not sure if it'll work. If it works, I'll inform you immediately!" He took out a communication jade talisman and handed it over.

“Good! Then I’ll be waiting for your good news!”

Tang Hao took the Jade talisman, then stood up and left.

Not long after he left, the true immortal also left and hurried to the immortal court.

Tang Hao went to the place where he rented his cave abode and rented one.

This was the immortal’s cave he had rented when he first came to the immortal world.

He waited quietly for three days, and finally, he received news from the true immortal of the myriad beasts sect.

Soon, he saw the jieyin immortal again in the cave.

However, it was only a clone.

“Greetings, celestial venerable!”

As soon as he entered the cave, immortal jieyin bowed.

“Not yet!”

Tang Hao greeted him with a smile.

“Why not? if you’re not a heavenly venerate, then what are you? everyone in the immortal world is treating you as a heavenly venerate, including the immortal court.” Immortal jieyin stood up and smiled.

He sized up the young man in front of him, his eyes filled with emotion.

He still clearly remembered the situation of this person in the upper realm because it had only been a few years. It had been more than twelve years, almost thirteen years.

In just thirteen years, this person had become a celestial venerable. It was truly unbelievable!

“Just call me fellow Daoist!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Alright!” Immortal jieyin smiled, entered the hall, and sat down.
