

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3257

“Fellow Daoist, you also know that the risk of going down to the lower realm is very high. However, fellow Daoist, you’re giving me too much, and I can’t refuse, right?”

Immortal jieyin smiled. “This kind of thing can only be done once. You can’t do it again in the future.”

“Don’t worry, just this once!”

Tang Hao said.

“Alright then! Although the immortal court is strict, it’s unlikely that we’ll be discovered this time. We just have to be careful when the time comes.” Immortal jieyin said.

“Is there anything to be particular about?”

Tang Hao asked.

“A little.” Immortal jieyin nodded. “When the time comes, you’ll have to hide on my body. You’ll have to conceal your aura as well. You can’t be discovered by any means. When you enter the realm and leave, you’ll have to be careful and not make a single sound.”

“Because the celestial pool is a strange treasure. It has a recording function and is used to monitor me.”

“As long as you pass this stage, everything will be fine. When you return in the future, you can hide in the body of another person who has ascended, and you can easily go up to the upper realm.”

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

This was simple. He was very good at hiding his aura, so he wouldn't be discovered.

"Then it's decided!"

He took out an immortal ring and handed it over. Inside the ring were the treasures he had prepared.

When immortal jiejun opened it, his eyes couldn't help but light up and he was a little excited.

With these treasures, so what if they were discovered!

He didn't do it before because the risk was greater than the reward.

"How many people still know about this?"

Tang Hao said to the true immortal from the myriad beasts sect.

"Two!"

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded. He took out another universe bag and handed it to her.

"Fellow Daoist, when are you going down? Because I don't know when someone will ascend from the lower realm, you have to follow me to the immortal court some time earlier. "

“It’s better now. There’s basically one person who ascends every ten days. If it was in the past, it would take a few years for one to ascend. That would be terrible.”

Immortal jieyin said.

“In a few days! I still have something to do!” Tang Hao said after some thought.

“Good! Then let me know when you’re done!”

After immortal jieyin finished speaking, he stood up and left with the true immortal of the myriad beasts sect.

“I have to make a trip to extreme Sky Island first!”

Tang Hao stepped out of the cave abode and looked into the distance. His eyes were filled with killing intent.

Back then, the old Daoist helped ye Futian set up a trap to kill him. He still remembered this.

He retreated from the immortal’s cave and quickly headed for extreme Sky Island.

Extreme Sky Island.

In a Palace on the central island, Daoist skyscraping, who was sitting cross-legged and meditating with his eyes closed, opened his eyes.

He frowned slightly and a look of worry appeared on his face.

Just now, he had a sudden impulse and had an ominous premonition.

This feeling was very strong.

“What’s going on? Could it be that something bad is really going to happen?”

He mumbled, deeply worried.

For xiuzhe, many times, this kind of sudden premonition had a basis. The higher the cultivation, the higher the possibility.

However, this was just a premonition. He did not know if it would happen or what it would be.

He pondered for a long time, but he didn’t have any clues.

Not long after, there was a sound from outside the hall.

“Master, senior Nan Yue has arrived!”

“There are also a few other seniors who will be arriving soon.”

Then, a voice was heard.

“We’ve arrived! Good, good, good!”

Daoist skyscraping immediately stood up and laughed out loud, instantly throwing that premonition to the back of his mind.

“Fellow Daoist Nanfeng, you’ve finally come!”

He saw a green-robed old Daoist when he arrived at the hall.

“Fellow Daoist!” The old Daoist also smiled and returned the greeting enthusiastically.

“Come, come, come. Have a seat. The other fellow Daoists will be here soon.” Daoist skyscraping invited him to a garden and sat down.

On the table in the garden, celestial wine and various celestial fruits had already been prepared.

He loved liveliness the most, and he would invite some fellow Daoists every few days to talk about heaven and Dao. He also held the extreme heaven Grand meeting because he loved liveliness.

It was a pity that the extreme heaven Grand meeting could not be held after that incident, and the extreme Heaven Island was no longer as lively as before.

In the past, he was able to hold the Emyrean terminus assembly and invite all the forces of the immortal world because he had good relations with people and a wide network. He also did not get involved in any grudges. However, that incident had almost completely destroyed his relations and reputation.

Therefore, he could only invite a few fellow Daoists he was familiar with to make the island livelier.

“Long time no see, fellow Daoist!”

“Fellow Daoist!”

From time to time, divine light would sweep over from the horizon and land on the island.

Soon, twenty to thirty people gathered in the garden. They were all golden immortal old monsters.

The group of old monsters drank and chatted. It was very lively.

“Al! Old man extreme heaven, are you really not going to consider holding the extreme heaven Grand meeting again?”

As they were drinking, an old monster suddenly said.

“Yup! It’ll be a pity to lose such a lively event.” Then, some old monsters echoed.

“Hey! It’s not that I don’t want to, but I can ‘t.”

Old Daoist Ji Tian shook his head and sighed.

“That’s true! The impact of that incident is quite big!” Some old monsters nodded and sighed.

“You can’t blame Dao friend skyscraping for this! That was the Yuanshi sect’s fault. Besides, you have a good reason to do so. That kid killed so many of our people down there, shouldn’t we kill him? This is called acting on behalf of the heavens!”

“It is! That brat should have died long ago! It’s really a pity that you didn’t manage to keep him that time, fellow Daoist skyscraper. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have to see him so smug now. What young heavenly venerate? he’s just bragging to the heavens!”

“Hmph! If the night Immortal King hadn’t appeared in time, that kid would’ve been dead. In the end, he’s just a pretty boy who relies on women. What’s there to be proud of?”

The old Monsters in the Garden all spoke out.

When they talked about that kid, their tone was extremely sharp, and their faces were full of displeasure.

Now, the young man was a young celestial Lord whose name shook the immortal world. His status had far surpassed them, the old golden Immortals. Furthermore, he was favored by the night Immortal King, which made them very jealous.

What right did that kid have to have such a high cultivation and be famous all over the world at such a young age, while they were still slowly cultivating in the Golden celestial stage at their age?

“The night Immortal King is over ten thousand years old, while that kid is only a hundred years old. It’s really an old cow eating young grass!”

“Hahaha! I’m starting to suspect that the kid won’t do. He won’t be able to satisfy the night Immortal King!”

Then, the group of old monsters laughed again, their faces full of evil interest.

“Shh! Silence! Be quiet!”

There were also old monsters who looked scared and hurriedly shouted, "that's a mighty Immortal King. If she hears it or even a little bit of news reaches her ears, we're all finished!"

"Hey! What are you afraid of?"

One of the old monsters waved his hand and continued to speak in a carefree manner.

However, there were also many old monsters who shut their mouths and didn't dare to say anything else.
