

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3264

“My Lord!”

When they landed on the creation divine boat, Tang Hao saw many familiar faces.

Yin Feng, Yun Rong, Zao Huazi, the Taoist priest, and the others were all present.

“My Lord, mistress and the others are in a safe place, you can rest assured.” Daoist yinfeng bowed.

“Alright!” Tang Hao nodded.

Xiangyi and the others weren't good at fighting, so it wasn't suitable for them to be here.

“You're a golden immortal now, Tang brat?”

The old locust tree shook its branches and leaves as it laughed.

“Peak golden immortal!” Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

The old locust tree's figure immediately stiffened, clearly also shocked.

After a long while, he let out a bitter laugh and said helplessly, “peak golden immortal ... It seems that I've underestimated you!”

“I just happened to have some opportunities!”

Tang Hao smiled and looked at Yin Feng, Zao Huazi, and the others to learn more about the development of the Holy region and the Haotian Daoist sect over the years.

He was quite satisfied.

Thirteen years had passed, and the Haotian Daoist sect had made great progress. Not only did they have more disciples, but their overall strength had also increased a lot. The number of sages was uncountable, and a large number of ninth tribulations had emerged.

Among the three great powers, the demon God clan had developed the most. Their population had increased several times and they had countless 9th tribulation experts.

“We’re already in the immortal realm! That’s good!”

He looked at Yun Rong, Jiang Yang, and the others. Most of them had already advanced to the realm of true immortality.

Originally, he had wanted them to break through in the celestial realm so that they could ascend to the celestial world.

However, now that he had bribed the jieyin immortal, he could take them to the upper realm as he pleased. It would be fine.

“There’s no other way. Otherwise, we won’t be able to stop the nine-colored tribe! They have too many true God level experts!”

Fairy yunrong said with a wry smile.

“I’m fine!”

Tang Hao nodded at them.

The group chatted for a while more, and the battle outside gradually subsided.

The nine-colored tribe didn't have many true gods left. Naturally, they couldn't stop the many true immortals on their side. They were all slaughtered.

Tang Hao and the others from the divine temple returned to the divine temple first.

He briefly explained the situation in the immortal world.

"Is the immortal world really so huge?"

"There are so many golden Immortals? There are also so many great eternity Immortals. This celestial realm is truly terrifying!"

Supreme Xuan Hong and the others were shocked when they heard this.

Tang Hao asked about Liu heihu and Dao Qi.

"I'm not sure about Liu heihu. He left Pangu a long time ago and went to the immortal realm over there. I heard that he even went to the territory of the nine-colored tribe. No one knows where he is now."

"As for fellow Daoist Ji and the others, it was indeed Dao Qi who took them away. That was seven or eight years ago. At that time, no one expected the nine-colored clan to make a comeback and launch a large-scale attack. So, many people left with them, and they were all monstrous geniuses."

Supreme Xuan Hong said.

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

Dao Qi obviously had many secrets. He was not very worried about Xuan Mei and the others.

“These things are for the divine temple!”

Tang Hao took out a ring and handed it over. It was filled with the things he had prepared for the divine temple. There were a large amount of cultivation, various immortal materials, immortal-level plants, and a large number of immortal artifacts.

“We’d better stay in Pangu!”

“There must be someone guarding this place! I’m not going!”

When he asked if he wanted to go to the immortal world, everyone from the divine temple shook their heads.

The immortal realm was indeed tempting, but as members of the divine temple, protecting Pangu was their first duty.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao did not try to persuade him anymore.

The Dao attainment in the ring was enough to cultivate many peak heaven Immortals, and he had also placed nine connate spirit items in it, which were enough to cultivate three gold Immortals.

He planned to leave another five hundred gold immortal avatars in his Daoist Rite temple, which would be enough to protect Pangu.

Even though the Dragon count divine clan was powerful, they couldn't enter Pangu. They could only nurture the nine-colored race, and nurturing great Luo level figures was extremely difficult. The Dragon count divine clan might not be willing to do so, so Pangu would be fine for a long time.

After chatting for a long time and meeting with the Ji clan and ye clan, he returned to his own training hall.

“Little Tang, you're back!”

As soon as he landed, he saw sis Xiangyi, Qing Xue, Ling Wei, and the little Phoenix.

Tang Hao had a good gathering with them.

He only had time to consider the Haotian Daoist sect after half a month.

He had originally planned to take quite a few people with him, but now that he thought about it, Pangu world might be the safest place, so he decided to only take a few people with him to help develop the Pingtian sect.

“The old crocodile, the old silver Dragon, and Mo hun. These three can all be brought up.”

After much thought, he only decided on these three.

Then, he took out a large number of treasures and distributed them, which could produce many golden Immortals for his vast heaven Daoist sect.

“I heard that you’ve reached the peak golden immortal realm!”

A few days later, someone came to visit. It was the old demon desolate evil.

He was a little displeased. He had just reached the true immortal realm, and this brat had already reached the pinnacle of the Golden immortal realm. The gap between them was getting bigger and bigger.

“I also heard that you’re going to bring some people up? Count me in! You just need to bring me up there, you don’t need to care about my life or death.” The old demon desolate evil mumbled.

If it wasn’t for the fact that he was already a true immortal and couldn’t ascend, he wouldn’t have put down his face and come over to beg this kid.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao agreed.

A few days later, more people came to visit. Some wanted to go to the immortal realm outside, while others wanted to follow them to the immortal world. Tang Hao agreed to all of them.

He was only helping to bring her to the upper realm. As for the rest, he would not care.

He took a few days to accompany sis Xiangyi and the others to the Kunlun planet and to visit earth.

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed since he descended to the lower realm.

He had already done what he needed to do. He had also arranged all the development matters of the Haotian Daoist sect.

On this day, he bade farewell to everyone, passed through the passage, and arrived at the Ji family.

“Holy ancestor!”

“Master,” Ji juechen greeted him respectfully.

“Divine ancestor, these are the elites of the Ji family. They’re not afraid of death. They can follow you to the upper realm and help you with your work.” He pointed to the thousands of clansmen behind him.

Tang Hao gave him a meaningful look, then nodded.

Since Ji Ruyin was going to the upper realm, she could use the Ji family’s people to help him manage the Pingtian sect.

He opened a mobile immortal’s cave and kept these people inside.

“Are you ready?”

He turned around and looked at Ji Ruyin.

Ji Ruyin nodded.

“Good! Then let’s go!”

Tang Hao also entered the mobile abode and handed the token to Ji Ruyin.

This trip required her to knock open the gate of immortality and ascend to the higher realm. At the same time, she needed to bring him and the many people on him to the immortal realm.

Ji Ruyin kept the token and rushed into the sky. She summoned the immortal gate outside Cangliu star and knocked on it.

Soon, he successfully ascended to the immortal world.
