

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3266

“Yuanshi, what are your thoughts? Speak!”

Everyone looked at him and asked.

“Since we can’t hide,” the white-robed man said, “we can only think of some ways to reduce the risk of being selected, which is to create a few more celestial Kings.”

“Immortal creation King? This ... Is a little difficult!”

Everyone frowned.

It was extremely difficult to cultivate to the immortal King realm. How could it be so easy to do so?

“Yup! There aren’t many Grand Luo Immortals in the entire immortal world! There aren’t many with high cultivation levels, so how are we supposed to build one?”

The Golden-robed, white-haired man said.

To create an Immortal King, there must be many great eternity Immortals.

“It’s actually not difficult. As long as we’re willing to, we can create it,” the white-robed man said.

Hearing this, everyone’s expression changed.

What this person meant was for them to cut off a part of their cultivation and use it to create an Immortal King.

In theory, this was naturally feasible.

However, in order to create a group of immortal kings, they would have to cut off a lot of their cultivation base, which would greatly damage their cultivation base.

“Everyone, once we’re chosen, we’ll be dead. Do you want to try your luck? Only by following my plan and creating more celestial Kings can we reduce our own risks. ”

“At that time, we’ll hide. I’m sure the heavenly Dao won’t waste any effort to find us. It’ll choose those newly advanced immortal kings.”

“This ...”

When the others heard this, they all revealed expressions of interest.

This person’s words made sense. It was a good deal to lose some cultivation in exchange for his safety.

“Then we should also create more great eternity Immortals! At that time, it won’t just be immortal kings that will be sacrificed, there will also be great eternity Immortals. With more great eternity Immortals, we can create more immortal kings. ”

“That’s right!”

Everyone was discussing.

“Of course, no matter if it’s a great eternity immortal or an Immortal King, we have to create more. The more great eternity Immortals there are, the higher the chance of survival for our own people.” The white-robed man said.

“Then let’s do it this way. We’ll each cut off a part of our cultivation and use our own methods to give it away. The fated one will get it.”

After a short discussion, everyone came to a consensus.

After the white-robed man finished speaking, he took the lead and left.

“Woof! This old man Yuanshi is quite interesting to think of such a way. What fated person, aren’t they just some pigs! Fatten them up, and they can die for us!” The Golden-robed white-haired man sneered.

“Pig? It could be considered so! But aren’t we the same!”

The medicine Immortal King glanced over and said coldly.

The Golden-robed man’s face froze and he was a little startled.

Then, he flicked his sleeves and left quickly.

The other figures also disappeared one after another.

“Celestial creation King? Interesting!”

The night Immortal King chuckled, his face full of interest.

Then, he turned around and left.

At the Pingtian sect.

Tang Hao sat cross-legged.

In his body, in his dantian’s sea of Dao, the immortal abode hung high.

In the immortal abode, there was a towering giant tree that was surrounded by a Golden Ocean.

These were all Taoist connotations, countless Taoist connotations.

His immortal abode could no longer contain these Taoist connotations. They had all surged out and covered the entire sea of the path.

He had killed too many Immortals and extracted countless Dao attainment, including dozens of gold Immortals. After they were refined to death, all the Dao accumulations were taken and refined by him.

“With the wood of the great Dao and the connate Golden Flower as the foundation, and the Taoist connotation as the tool, you can open up a world. This is called the opening of the Natal world. Once the Natal world is formed, you will be at the half-step zenith heaven realm.”

“I’ll wait for my Natal world to evolve and mature. Then, I’ll be able to pass the Tribulation and advance to zenith heaven. ”

Tang Hao mumbled, his expression solemn.

He raised his hands and clapped his palms together. Then, he quickly changed his hand seals.

In an instant, the endless ocean in his sea of the path surged and gradually shrank toward the tree of Dao.

The ancient Immortals had created many ways to open up the Natal world, each with their own methods and characteristics. After studying all the methods, he integrated them and combined some of his own knowledge and ideas, finally creating his own method.

His method was somewhat similar to the creation of the spiritual void realm. He first condensed a seed and then exploded it.

The difficulty was very high, but once he succeeded, as long as his Taoist connotation was enough, his Natal world could expand rapidly at a speed that was far faster than other methods.

Soon, a fruit grew out of his tree of Dao.

This was the seed!

The fruit continued to grow. Then, with a bang, it exploded and turned into a circle of divine light that spread in all directions.

“Tsk!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows in disappointment.

After the fruit exploded, it dissipated directly. It did not condense its Taoist connotation and turned into a complete world.

“It’s still a little difficult!”

He took a deep breath and continued to try.

When he opened up the spiritual void realm, what he controlled was the spiritual awareness. But now, what he controlled was the Taoist connotation, which was thousands of times more difficult.

“No!”

“Still no!”

He just sat there and tried again and again.

He did not know how many times he had tried.

On the tree of Dao, another fruit formed, growing and then exploding.

But this time, it didn't dissipate directly. The Taoist connotation from all four directions was drawn by a force and rushed over quickly. In an instant, half of the Taoist connotation from all four directions was sucked in.

What followed was another huge explosion.

The endless Taoist connotation exploded, giving out an extremely bright light.

In this light, a vast void appeared. At first, it was blank, but soon, a star was formed, and then another one was formed.

The Taoist connotation in all directions started to surge in again.

This newly-born world was like a whale, greedily devouring the Taoist connotation in his body.

"It's done!"

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

Then, his spiritual will moved, and the great void divine furnace appeared in his sea of the path. A large amount of Taoist connotation gushed out of the furnace.

"It's not enough!"

He flicked his sleeve again, and Jade bottles flew out one after another.

These were all the Taoist connotation he had saved up before. He opened his mouth and sucked, swallowing all of them into his sea of the path and then absorbed by his Natal world.

About two hours later, all the Taoist connotation in his body had been absorbed.

His Natal world had also stopped growing.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao looked at his Natal world carefully and smiled.

He made a comparison. His current Natal world was equivalent to one-tenth of the origin immortal domain. However, although the space was large, there were very few stars inside, only 99.

With this size, it could actually hold tens of thousands of stars.

“I don’t need to expand it for the time being. I just need to absorb some Taoist connotation and condense some stars. Then I’ll have enough confidence to pass the Tribulation.” He muttered.

He smiled and was about to get up to get more Taoist connotation.

However, before he could get up, his expression changed. He felt ripples in the void behind him, and a familiar laughter came.

Then, a pair of snow-white arms wrapped around his neck.

Behind her, there was a pair of voluptuous breasts that were sticking close to her.
