

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3267

Tang Hao's body stiffened, and a bitter smile appeared on his face.

This familiar soft feeling ...

He didn't need to think to know who had come!

"I haven't seen you for so long, did you miss me?"

A moving and seductive face appeared from behind him and whispered in his ear.

Her tender red lips moved slightly, exhaling a warm and fragrant breath that tickled his cheeks.

"How did you get in?"

Tang Hao tried his best to pull his attention away from his back and said seriously.

"This is very simple! I've done something to your body." She laughed, her tone soft and charming, tugging at one's heartstrings.

Tang Hao's expression changed.

Subconsciously, he examined his body and thought about where the problem was. Was there something on his body and in his ring that he didn't know about?

"Don't even think about it, you won't be able to find it!"

She chuckled with a smug and cunning look on her face.

Tang Hao furrowed his eyebrows.

Indeed, there were some methods that were difficult to detect. For example, his heavenly eye divine power could lock onto someone without leaving any traces. This type of treasure and spell technique was the most difficult to guard against.

The night Immortal King's cultivation level was far above his, so it wouldn't be difficult for him to do so.

"You want to take me back?"

Tang Hao said.

"How is that possible? I'm not an unreasonable person who would randomly arrest people. Since you don't want to stay in my nightless club, I won't force you." She said softly.

"Then what are you doing here?"

"What, I can't come and see you if I have nothing to do?" She squinted her eyes with a hint of resentment.

"Alright!"

Tang Hao smiled, but it was a forced smile.

The night Immortal King was a demoness, and he didn't dare to offend him.

"I'm just curious. Where did you go previously? I couldn't sense you no matter what." She said in a low voice as she looked over with a burning gaze.

"Oh! He's going to the absolute beginning land!"

Tang Hao was shocked, but his expression did not change.

"The land of absolute beginning?" She was stunned for a moment before she nodded. The doubt in her eyes gradually disappeared.

If it was that broken place, it was indeed possible.

"Is there anything else?"

Tang Hao said.

"Of course, I have to congratulate you on successfully opening your Natal world. Soon, you will be promoted to zenith heaven! At that time, you will be the youngest great eternity immortal in the immortal world!" The night Immortal King laughed.

"Many thanks!"

"Okay," Tang Hao replied calmly.

The title of the youngest had no appeal to him, nor did he care.

“Also, I’m here to remind you that in the next few years, there will be a great change in the immortal world. There will be many opportunities for you to take. If you grasp them, you may be able to advance to the immortal King realm easily.”

She said.

“What?”

Tang Hao was shocked.

Advance to the immortal King realm?

This person must be joking!

The time it took to advance from the zenith heaven realm to the celestial King realm was far longer than it was to advance to the zenith heaven realm. It was not so easy.

Also, he clearly remembered that this person had warned him not to attempt to break through to the immortal King realm.

“I can only tell you that in the following period of time, many reclusive celestial Kings will come out and cut off their own cultivation in order to create more celestial Kings. Such an opportunity is not available every year, so you have to seize it!”

She said.

“Didn’t you say ...” Tang Hao hesitated.

“That was before. The situation is different now. If you can really reach the celestial King realm, I will help you.”

“Alright, that’s all I have to say. I should go! I have to go and make some preparations!”

After she finished speaking, she let go and her figure swept back, disappearing.

Tang Hao turned around to look. His brows were still furrowed.

A Celestial King severing his own cultivation to nurture his descendants?

Why does this sound so unbelievable!

If it was in Pangu, this might be possible, but in the immortal world, how could it be possible? were those immortal kings so noble?

If he were so noble and selfless, he would have stayed in Pangu long ago, instead of betraying the immortal Emperor.

“Forget it, it’s none of my business. It’s such a good thing. I’ll just stroke them as hard as I can. It’d be best if I stroke them bald one by one!” He mumbled softly.

He sat quietly in place and pondered for a long time.

This was, of course, a great opportunity. If he could grasp it well, he could ride the wind and quickly reach the celestial King realm.

But at the same time, it was also a crisis.

The birth of an Immortal King and the rapid advancement of many people's cultivation levels were not good news for him.

After all, he still had many enemies.

The major forces such as Yuanshi and Xuanyuan, as well as people like ye Futian and green tea Zhen, were all great enemies.

"It seems that I have to make some preparations!"

He muttered with a solemn expression.

"I have to reach the zenith heaven realm as soon as possible. Once I reach the zenith heaven realm, I won't have to worry too much!"

With his current cultivation level, he had no power to resist an Immortal King. However, if he were to reach the zenith heaven realm, he would be able to protect himself.

A moment later, he shot out a jade talisman and summoned Ji Ruyin.

After giving her a few instructions and some treasures, he stood up and left the Pingtian sect.

He went to various immortal cities and swept through them.

At the same time, he was also looking for some evil Immortals to kill and seize their cultivation.

He had killed many and accumulated a lot of Taoist connotation. But after he came to the lower bound, he had distributed a lot to the divine temple and his Haotian Daoist temple. He had also given a lot to the old silver Dragon.

If he hadn't been given so much, the Taoist connotation in his body would have been enough for him to pass the Tribulation.

A few days later, he heard a piece of news that a Celestial King's remains had been found in a certain continent. A large amount of Taoist connotation had appeared inside, which caused a crazy struggle. It also caused many forces to fight each other. The situation was tragic.

"It's starting!"

Tang Hao immediately understood.

The great change that the night Immortal King had mentioned had already begun.

The so-called ruins were deliberately set up by the immortal King.

This was only one, and there would be more similar ruins appearing in the future.

Just as he had expected, a similar incident occurred two days later.

This time, the entire immortal world was shocked.

Although the last time was a bit sensational, it didn't attract too much attention. They only felt that it was an accidental event, just like the remains of the feather Immortal King. But it happened twice in a row, so they couldn't help but be suspicious.

By the third time, they all realized that something was wrong. This was not a coincidence, but someone was manipulating it.

At this time, there were still people guessing the intentions of the person behind this and were somewhat vigilant.

However, by the fourth and fifth time, more and more Taoist connotations and treasures appeared. No one cared about their intentions anymore. Everyone went crazy. In their eyes, there were only opportunities and treasures.

Soon, this fanatical momentum spread throughout the entire immortal world!

The situation in the immortal world changed drastically.
