

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3275

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in the middle of a barren mountain.

His eyes were tightly shut, and countless images flashed through his mind.

He was deducing a cultivation technique.

Huge Golden Palms were formed one after another. They were covered in golden divine lightning and had the power to destroy the world.

His palm continued to fall, over and over again.

After it was repeated a thousand times, the scene began to change. A purple divine light emerged and merged with the Golden divine lightning, gradually condensing into a giant palm.

However, it only existed for a moment. Before it could land, the palm exploded.

Following that, purple light and golden lightning appeared as the fusion continued.

Just like that, he repeated it over and over again.

It was unknown how many times it was repeated. Finally, the purple light and the Golden lightning merged perfectly. They continued to expand until they covered the sky and slammed down.

“It’s done!”

Tang Hao opened his eyes and smiled.

He had fused the heaven destroying Emperor's spell with the ancient Dao Emperor's treasure. It could be said that he had combined the strengths of the two emperors to create this spell.

"Self, world extinguishing Thunder, and ten thousand spell divine light ... The power of this handprint is a little terrifying!"

Just thinking about it made him speechless.

He was the only one who could come up with such a luxurious configuration.

In front of his handprint, the so-called Sky Fox hand was just trash.

"How about ... I add a little more, including the Taixu divine fire. Lightning Plus fire, the power will be even higher!"

He pondered for a while and continued to deduce and perfect it.

A few days later, he opened his eyes and got up excitedly.

Buzzzzzz!

Ten thousand laws divine mountain flew out and shook slightly, spreading out endless purple light.

He let out a breath and slowly reached out his palm.

In an instant, his body trembled violently. With a boom, a shocking lightning gushed out, followed by fire. The lightning and fire fused together and surged forward madly, blending with the purple divine light.

Very quickly, a violet-gold Palm formed and began to expand.

Weng Weng Weng!

The void around them began to tremble violently and gradually distort, as if it could no longer withstand such a powerful force.

Tang Hao held back his strength and thrust his palm forward.

BOOM!

There was a loud bang.

As the giant purple-gold Palm fell, the entire mountain range was annihilated in an instant, turning into nothingness. Then, the earth continued to crack, and the cracks spread in all directions at an extremely fast speed.

“Not good!”

Tang Hao quickly retracted his strength and shook the palm away.

The power was too strong, and it had exceeded his expectations.

Even though he had only used 10% of his strength from the start, the power that he had unleashed was still too strong. It was impossible to display it here.

“Hu!”

He heaved a sigh of relief and rejoiced.

Fortunately, he had stopped in time. Otherwise, some innocent people around him would have been hurt by him.

He didn't try again. That move just now had already proved that he had succeeded.

“What should I call it? Why don't we call it the “Sky Destroyer palm imprint” and “ten thousand laws destruction palm imprint”?” He thought for a moment and came up with a simple and crude name.

This spell was the combination of the heaven destroying Emperor, great void God, and ancient Dao Emperor. However, if he used all of them, the name would be too long, so he only chose two.

“From now on, this will be my most powerful divine ability!”

He smiled in delight.

Then, his figure moved and he left the place.

Half a month had passed since he transcended the Tribulation.

During this half a month, the celestial world was extremely lively. More and more celestial opportunities appeared, causing people from all the major continents to fight for them. Whether it was true Celestials or golden Celestials, they were all fighting to the death. Even great eternity Celestials appeared.

From time to time, auras of immortal tribulations could be sensed in various parts of the immortal world. Most of them were undergoing golden immortal tribulations, and occasionally, there were also auras of zenith heaven tribulations.

After him and killer heavenly venerate, two more people had successfully passed the Tribulation and advanced to the zenith heaven realm.

“It’s really lively!”

Through his clone, he understood the situation and couldn’t help but sigh.

“Let’s go back to the fair heaven sect and take a look!”

He didn’t immediately go look for the immortal encounter. Instead, he headed to the Pingtian sect.

Now that the immortal world was in chaos, he was worried about the safety of the Pingtian sect.

A few hundred early golden immortal avatars were simply not enough to stop those terrifying old demons and monsters. He had to set up a new formation and upgrade it to the zenith heaven level.

“Young master!”

He met Ji Ruyin in the Great Hall of the Pingtian sect.

“You’ve reached the zenith heaven realm?”

When she heard him talk about lifting the formation, she couldn’t help but be shocked.

Tang Hao nodded.

“Congratulations, young master!” Ji Ruyin hurriedly bowed in congratulations, her face full of joy and joy.

Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled. “You’ll have to work hard for the time being. Restrain your disciples and be careful. The current situation is too chaotic. Of course, you don’t have to lock them all up. You can go out and find some opportunities.”

“I’m going to talk to Yin long, old crocodile, and the others to let them go out and make a living. As long as they don’t bring trouble to the sect, it’ll be fine. ”

“That’s true!”

Ji Ruyin nodded.

Although the current situation was dangerous, it was also a good time to train.

After chatting for a while longer, Tang Hao went to see the old silver Dragon and the others and drove them out.

Then, he began to refine the formation again.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

He had refined all of the formations of the Pingtian sect, and with the immortal veins underground, he wouldn't be afraid even if a great eternity immortal attacked.

After making all the necessary arrangements, he left the fair heaven sect.

He took out his spirit truth Magic Eye and began to explore the surroundings.

In just half a day, he had some gains.

On the other side of this continent, a majestic divine light fell. It was clearly another immortal encounter.

He immediately tore open the void and rushed over.

This time, it wasn't a divine mountain, but an immortal Palace. It was suspended in the sky above a Lake, emitting a shocking divine light.

When he arrived, there were already countless figures gathered around the immortal Palace.

"What's going on?"

"Why can't we go in?"

People surrounded the immortal Palace and made a lot of noise.

Everyone was a little puzzled.

In the past, the immortal encounter could be taken at will. Whoever arrived first could take it first. However, this immortal Palace was actually enveloped by a defense array, blocking them all outside.

“This is a Celestial King-level formation. It’s not something we can break. Let’s just wait!”

“I think so too. Don’t blow it up. What if this immortal Palace has a spirit and someone hates it?”

After observing the defense array of the immortal Palace for a while, no one dared to make a move.

They sat down in the four corners and began to wait.

Tang Hao landed on the ground and looked around. He then looked at the immortal Palace, but he did not make a move. An Immortal King’s formation was not that easy to break, and he did not want to waste his energy on it.

He came to a place by the lake, found a rock, and sat down.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. Immortal warships, immortal’s caves, palaces, and giant birds of all colors covered the entire area. They were so densely packed that they blocked out the sun.

All around, it was a hubbub of voices.
