

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3276

Ripples appeared in the sky.

Figures walked out of the immortal warships one after another.

There were also beams of bright divine light that rushed over from all directions like comets.

By the lakeside, Tang Hao could see the cultivation base of most people. Most of them were earth Immortals and heaven Immortals. Occasionally, he could see a few golden Immortals with faint shadows of the Golden flowers of the great path.

Occasionally, the aura of the Daluo level would flash, but it would disappear very quickly.

“Still not opening? It seems like there are many treasures inside!”

Tang Hao retracted his gaze and looked at the immortal Palace.

It had been half a day since the immortal Palace appeared, but the defense array was still there, showing no signs of dissipating.

Obviously, the celestial King behind them didn't want to leave so soon and wanted to wait for more people to arrive.

Tang Hao did not mind that. He had nothing to do anyway, so he did not mind waiting a little longer.

He simply closed his eyes and began to meditate.

After about half an hour, he suddenly heard a familiar voice among the noise around him.

When he opened his eyes, he saw a group of people flying over from the immortal Palace.

There were about 20 people, all of whom looked quite young. One of them was wearing a gorgeous dress, and she was a dream-like beauty.

Upon closer look, it was Feng Qingyan.

The sky-seeking Pavilion, the president Feng of the spirit Toad continent's headquarters.

Tang Hao was familiar with the dress that she was wearing. It was the only one in the entire immortal world that he had designed and crafted.

“The people from the heaven seeking sect!”

He then looked at the others and frowned.

These people all had the symbol of the heaven seeking great sect on their bodies.

He didn't have a good impression of the heaven seeking sect. Back when he was undergoing the Golden immortal tribulation, the heaven seeking sect had sent a heavenly venerate to deal with him. The heaven seeking sect had also sent a heavenly venerate to deal with him at the Emperor puppet sect.

He took another look at Feng Qingyan and then looked away.

Although he once had some friendship with this person, it had been so many years since they last met and the friendship had long faded. In addition, because of the relationship with the sky seeking sect, it was not convenient for him to acknowledge him.

“Junior Sister! Let’s go over there and sit down! It seems that the immortal Palace won’t open so early!”

A group of people directly flew over.

In front of them, a man in white stood next to Feng Qingyan and spoke to her warmly.

This person was handsome and had an extraordinary temperament. One look and one could tell that he was a top-notch demon.

The people behind him weren’t bad either. They were all outstanding, but they were still far from this person.

“Alright!”

Feng Qingyan nodded, but her expression was a little cold.

The white-robed man did not mind. He smiled warmly and led the group to a rock not far from Tang Hao.

“This immortal Palace is strange! I heard that it’s been half a day and it’s still closed!”

“Yup! However, this is a good thing. Since it hasn’t opened for so long, it means that there are many opportunities inside. We will also have a share later!”

After the group sat down, they looked at the immortal Palace in the center of the lake and discussed it.

“By the way, what’s going on? In less than two months, the immortal world has become so chaotic!”
Suddenly, a female disciple asked with a confused expression.

“Yup!”

The disciples of the heaven seeking sect nodded in agreement.

In the past, the immortal world was so peaceful and peaceful. When the immortals saw it, they were all harmonious. But now, it was a mess. All kinds of great evils and great demons had appeared.

In less than two months, many true immortals had already fallen.

“This is a good thing!”

The man in white smiled and said, “I heard from my master that this was arranged by the immortal kings to benefit the immortal world and make it stronger and more prosperous. As for those who died, they were unlucky. They were too weak. Who can they blame?”

As he said that, he revealed a mocking expression.

He was an outstanding disciple of the great all-embracing heaven and the heaven seeking sect. How could he put those puny human Immortals and earth Immortals in his eyes?

They were just ants, so it didn’t matter how many of them died.

Hearing this, Feng Qingyan frowned a little, but she didn't say anything.

"Senior brother is right. Those people deserved to die. They were too weak!"

"Yup! They can't blame anyone for not working hard!"

Many disciples echoed with a mocking expression. Their words were filled with a sense of superiority.

Tang Hao opened his eyes again and looked at the screen.

His eyes were cold.

Were these the so-called disciples of the great religion?

It didn't seem like much. He didn't have any pity for the weak. Not only did he have sympathy, but he also mocked them in every way possible and tried to find a sense of superiority. This kind of heart was really unbearable. It was too selfish and too arrogant.

"What are you looking at!"

As if sensing his gaze, a few of the disciples looked over and raised their hands to poke him.

Tang Hao glared at them coldly, then looked away.

He couldn't be bothered with such people.

“Swish!”

Seeing that he wasn't looking anymore, those few people sneered, revealing a somewhat proud look.

They felt that this guy must have seen their clothes and recognized their identity, so he was afraid. This was very normal. No matter where they went, the situation would be the same.

The name of the heaven seeking sect had spread throughout the immortal world, and no one dared to provoke them!

Among the crowd, Feng Qingyan turned her head and looked over.

When she saw Tang Hao, she was slightly surprised. She felt that the figure was somewhat familiar.

But then, she laughed and thought to herself, what a coincidence.

She shook her head and looked away.

“You're right, senior brother. This is a good thing. In just a short month, my cultivation has improved by a lot. I think I have a chance to reach the peak golden immortal realm soon!”

“What's the big deal about the peak golden immortal? if I can grasp it well, I might even be able to break through to the zenith heaven realm!”

The group of sky seeking sect's disciples started discussing again.

“The zenith heaven realm is definitely not a problem! It’s said that this time, celestial Kings will be born. If we seize this opportunity, we might even have a chance to become celestial Kings!”

The white-robed man said.

As he spoke, he clenched his fists tightly and his face was filled with excitement.

“Immortal King? Really?”

“This is incredible!”

The disciples were all speechless.

“Senior brother, you have to make good use of this opportunity and advance to the zenith heaven realm as soon as possible, so that you can bring honor to the sky seeking sect.”

“It is! The people in the immortal world only knew of that surnamed Tang or something. They even called him a young heavenly venerate and worshipped him. He was nothing! If he didn’t rely on women, he would have died long ago and might even have fallen into the hands of our heaven seeking sect.”

“That’s right! What was there to flatter about that kind of trash! He’s just trash!”

As they spoke, they revealed mocking and disdainful expressions.

In the past, this group of heaven’s chosen from the heaven seeking sect was quite famous and had attracted the attention of the world. However, ever since that fellow surnamed Tang appeared, they had become dull and no one paid attention to them anymore.

This also made them extremely unhappy.
