

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3292

In the void, a divine light rushed by in a panic.

After a long time, he finally stopped and turned around, his face still filled with fear.

“Where did this old monster come from?”

At this moment, he was filled with doubts.

He had heard of most of the ancient figures, but none of them matched his name.

“In just a few days, you’ve refined such a powerful celestial artifact. Your means are really terrifying! Also, he actually wanted to refine me, isn’t he too brutal!”

He mumbled to himself with a regretful expression.

If he had known that the Saint spirit dynasty was able to invite such an old monster, he definitely wouldn’t have gone. But now, he didn’t get the treasure, and a bunch of his clansmen were captured, and he even had to run away. He had lost all his face.

“Damn it, old man Xianling, I’ll remember this. I’ll make sure your Saint spirit dynasty suffers in the future!”

He stared in the direction of the sacred Spirit and said through gritted teeth, “and you, old freak! When I advance to the immortal King realm, you’ll be the first one to die!”

As soon as he finished speaking, his expression changed. He had sensed a gaze sweeping over from that direction.

“Not good! It must be that old monster!”

Dragon King Tian let out a low cry and revealed a look of fear again.

He had already run so far away, but that old monster was still chasing him. Did he really want to suppress him?

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

He turned around and continued to run.

Soon, he was far away, and no one could see him.

Meanwhile, in the sky above the capital, Tang Hao retracted his spirit truth Magic Eye.

Then, he laughed.

He was just saying it casually to scare that guy. He didn’t expect that guy to take it seriously. He was so scared that he turned around and ran away, which made him dumbfounded.

He had just advanced to the zenith heaven realm, while that guy was a veteran zenith heaven immortal. How could he have the ability to suppress him?

“I was just joking, and he actually ran away!”

He looked at the nation protecting Saint and smiled.

The nation protecting Saint opened his mouth and was stunned.

Was this person joking?

Just now, he had thought that this person was serious. After all, his aura was too strong.

However, thinking about it, no matter how monstrous this person was, his cultivation base was still not enough. Even he could not suppress him, let alone a powerful figure like Dragon King Tian.

“If this old Demon Dragon knew about this, he would probably vomit blood!”

He laughed in spite of himself.

“Fellow Daoist’s treasure is truly extraordinary!”

Then, he looked at the Golden immortal Palace in Tang Hao’s palm in admiration.

To be able to build such an immortal Palace in three days, he was truly impressed by this person’s craftsmanship. It would not be an exaggeration to call him the number one craftsman in the immortal world.

If this was a ten-thousand-year-old monster, it would be considered normal. However, this was only a young man who was a little over a hundred years old. This was very abnormal.

A monster!

What a monster!

He sighed to himself.

“It’s alright! It’s not powerful enough yet. If we can catch some more true dragons, that will be the real treasure!” Tang Hao smiled. “I’d like that old demon to do it again!”

“Hahaha! How would he dare! At the very least, he won’t dare to come to our door for a while. ”

The nation protecting Saint laughed.

“Let’s go! Go back! Fellow Daoist, you’ve captured so many true dragons. Let’s celebrate this great victory. ” Then, he called out to Tang Hao and headed toward the city.

“Dragon King Tian ... Has run away?”

At this time, the people in the city were still unable to react.

The dignified Heavenly Dragon King, a great demon whose might shook the immortal world, actually ran away just like that?

This really surprised them!

“Who is that?”

“Yup! With just one move, he scared away a figure like Dragon King Tian. He’s too powerful!”

The crowd looked at the figure and discussed.

“I think he’s the young celestial venerable Tang. It’s said that he was the one who supported the bright moon Saint Emperor’s ascension to the throne. And he just happened to advance to the zenith heaven realm not long ago.”

“That makes sense!”

After a round of discussion, everyone had guessed it.

At the same time, they were even more excited.

A few days ago, he had just suppressed the two heavenly venerates, Xu mi and an ye, and shocked the immortal world. Now, he had scared off Dragon King Tian with one move. Such a battle record was too impressive.

Soon, the immortal world would be in an uproar again.

He went back to the Holy Spirit Palace and drank with the others for a while, then returned to the bright moon Palace.

The old monster had just left, so he couldn’t leave in a hurry. If the old monster came back, it would be troublesome.

Therefore, he was prepared to stay in the Saint spirit dynasty for a while.

As for the immortal encounter, he had a new idea.

There were too many immortal opportunities now, spread across hundreds of continents. It was impossible for him to make it all by himself, so he thought of the Golden immortal avatars in his body.

He had made three thousand of them before. One hundred of them had been given to tantai Mingyue, nine hundred had been kept in the Pingtian sect, and five hundred had been sent to guard the Pangu world. So, he had one thousand and five hundred left.

If all of them were sent out, each continent would get a few. If all of them rushed to join in the fun, they would be able to pick up a few Dao beads.

If he picked up a few of them in one continent, the total sum would be very impressive.

Moreover, this also saved time and effort. He didn't need to run around, and had a lot of time.

"1500 is not enough. Mobilize those we sent out before. Although their cultivation is low, we can still pick up one or two if we are careful."

He thought about it and felt that it was not enough.

Since he was going to use the human wave tactic, he had to do it to the extreme and mobilize all the power he could.

Now, this opportunity was hard to come by, and he definitely couldn't miss it.

He flicked his sleeve, and rays of divine light flew out and landed in the hall, revealing figures of various appearances.

"Greetings, fellow Daoist!"

They all bowed and greeted him with a smile.

“Go!”

Tang Hao waved at them.

“Don’t worry, fellow Daoist!”

“Fellow Daoist, we’ll leave now. Wait for our good news!”

All the clones rose up and rushed into the sky.

After they left, Tang Hao sat down cross-legged and closed his eyes. He contacted his clones that were scattered all over the immortal world.

Soon, the clones hiding in various places in the immortal world began to move and search for immortal encounters.

“Let’s refine some more!”

Tang Hao opened his eyes and pondered for a moment. He still felt that it was not enough.

It was better to have as many clones as possible.

“I still have 100000 immortal stones. I’m just a little lacking in materials, but it’s not a difficult thing to do. I can ask for some from the Saint spirit dynasty, and then use my connections to buy some. Although

I have a grudge against the sky seeking sect, the sky seeking Pavilion isn't controlled by them alone, so there shouldn't be any problems. ”

“Besides, the heaven seeking Pavilion isn't the only Chamber of Commerce in the immortal world. There are also Wan Hai, Hong Tu, and others!”

After a moment of silence, he stood up and went to look for tantai Mingyue and the Saint. Then, he left the palace and went to the various Chambers of Commerce in the city to make a big order.

When these goods arrived, he would be able to start refining.
