

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3295

“Hunyuan old man?”

In the immortal world, in a certain void, an immortal Palace was floating.

Dragon King Tian sat cross-legged in the palace Hall. In front of him, a treasured mirror floated.

The mirror reflected the situation in the sacred Spirit Imperial City.

“That’s weird! Why did this old man also look for that kid? Could it be that there’s enmity between us?”

Dragon King Tian touched his chin and was a little surprised.

This primordial chaos boy was not simple. He was one of the most famous Monsters in the ancient times. Not only was he talented, but his luck was also excellent. He had once integrated all the major Daoist Scriptures and Buddhist scriptures in the world to create his own primordial Ruyi skill, which was extremely magical.

He had fought with him before and suffered quite a loss.

He didn’t believe that this old man just didn’t like that kid. He was afraid that he would also have enmity with him.

“This kid is too arrogant! Origin and Wentian, they all want to suppress him and peel his skin and pull out his tendons. Now, he has provoked an old Hunyuan and they are all fighting at his door.”

He pondered and was a little speechless.

Even he did not dare to provoke people of the same rank. Among the many zenith heavens, there were only one or two who could be considered enemies. However, this kid had a bunch of enemies. He was only short of a few, and he would have provoked all of the zenith heavens.

“Hmph! This stinky brat was really courting death! You’ll die sooner or later after making so many enemies!”

He snorted, gloating.

“A month later? Good! I’ll just go and join in the fun and see how that kid gets abused. Maybe if I’m lucky, I’ll even find an opportunity to snatch back my clansmen!”

“Once I get my clansmen back, I’ll slaughter the entire Saint spirit dynasty. Let’s see if you still dare to provoke me in the future!”

He looked at the Saint spirit Imperial City in the mirror and laughed coldly.

“Primordial chaos boy? He’s attacking the Royal capital?”

“That’s weird! When did that kid provoke this old monster?”

At this moment, many zenith heavens in the immortal world had noticed the situation in the sacred Spirit Imperial City.

In order to detect the movements of that monster, they had all used spell techniques to pay attention to the movements of the Imperial City.

They were all surprised to see the primordial chaos boy.

However, they didn't care too much. The reason wasn't important at all. As long as it was that kid's enemy, it could be considered as their helper.

"This origin child is very strong. Even Dragon King Tian is afraid of him. Once he makes a move, that kid has no chance of winning at all. It's a good time for him to make a move and dampen that kid's spirit. Otherwise, he really thinks he's invincible and doesn't put us old seniors in his eyes."

"Yup! Ever since that kid advanced, his momentum has been too strong. First, he defeated Xumi and the dark night, and then he scared off Dragon King Tian. It's time to dampen his spirit."

The zenith heavens were overjoyed.

Recently, that kid's limelight was really too great.

The more famous that kid was, the more embarrassed they, the older heavenly venerates, were. They had all become the kid's foil, which made them very unhappy.

However, they didn't want to fight either. After all, they were experienced. An old monster who had lived for tens of thousands of years challenging a little kid who was just over a hundred years old. If he won, the world would take it for granted. If he lost, it would be over, and he would become a joke.

Xumi and dark night were the examples.

Now that the primordial chaos boy had taken action, it was a great help to them.

When the time came, they only needed to watch.

At that moment, they all waited with peace of mind, ready to watch the big show in a month's time.

When the news spread, all parties in the immortal world were shocked again.

"It's that guy again. I really can't stop. I've just scared off Dragon King Tian, and now an even more powerful Buddha of origin has come."

"I've heard of this primordial chaos Buddha before. He's also a powerful figure. It's said that he's extremely talented. I wonder if he's more devilish than celestial venerable Tang!"

"Hey! That goes without saying. Of course, celestial venerable Tang is more demonic. No matter how demonic that Hunyuan Buddha is, how could he have become a celestial venerable at such a young age?"

The people of the world were discussing this matter with great excitement.

A month later, there would be another great show to watch.

Many people were counting the days and looking forward to it.

In the blink of an eye, a month had passed.

During this time, many immortal opportunities had appeared in various continents, causing intense competition.

However, this did not cause much of a stir, and the people were already used to it.

When the time limit of one month was almost up, people from all over the immortal world began to move towards the sacred Spirit dynasty.

They were going to witness the excitement with their own eyes.

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

“Let’s go to the Saint spirit dynasty and see how that guy will suffer!”

In the Yuanshi sect, ye Futian had long been ready. He boarded the ship with sovereign Taixu and headed for the sacred Spirit dynasty.

The group was in high spirits, and the atmosphere on the ship was extremely cheerful.

On the other side, people from the heaven seeking sect, Xuanyuan clan, and other forces all stood up and rushed to the Saint spirit dynasty.

Soon, the sky above the Saint spirit dynasty was filled with countless divine lights. They were all immortal warships and huge birds from all over the immortal world.

When they arrived near the Imperial City, the divine lights stopped and began to wait.

“Samantabhadra, you’re here!”

“Isn’t this Daoist Dafan? Long time no see!”

In the higher void, the zenith heavens met one after another.

They recognized each other's aura and greeted each other.

Very quickly, twenty zenith heavens appeared in the void.

They greeted each other, then looked down at the sacred Spirit Imperial City.

The last time so many zenith heavens had gathered, it had been at the Emperor Xun sect. At that time, they had almost taken down this demon, but in the end, he had escaped.

Now that they thought about it, they all felt a little regretful.

If they had been more United back then, there would not have been such trouble.

"This is fate. At that time, this kid's life wasn't meant to end yet."

A big Luo sighed.

"Fate? Perhaps! This time, fellow primordial chaos Daoist, let's first dampen his spirit and then suppress him so that he can't grow. There'll be an opportunity to take care of him eventually."

"That's right! This upheaval is our chance!"

The rest of the zenith heavens said.

They discussed in a low voice. The way they looked down became cold with murderous intent.

Big Luos also arrived one after another. Some appeared and joined in, while others hid in the void gaps and concealed their tracks.

Below them, there were even more people who had arrived. They were densely packed and surrounded the Imperial City.

Once there were more people, it became noisy and lively.

The humans were not the only ones who had arrived. In the distance, some powerful auras flashed from time to time, looking at the Imperial City from afar.

These auras were all from the wilderness.

This lively scene had attracted them to come and take a look.

“They’re here! It’s primordial chaos Daoist!”

After waiting for more than half a day, the zenith heavens saw a golden divine light speeding over from the distant sky. It had an astonishing momentum and exuded a strong Buddhist aura. Without a doubt, it was one of the main characters of this lively scene, the origin Buddha.
