

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3299

“This kid ...”

Many big Luos smiled bitterly.

They had come here to watch a good show and see fellow Daoist of the primordial chaos beat up the kid. However, the result was good. Even fellow Daoist of the primordial chaos could not suppress the kid.

This battle wouldn't be able to demoralize his spirit, instead, it would greatly boost his arrogance.

“This kid is not easy to deal with!”

Big Luo even sighed, his expression turning serious.

The previous plan to seal him had clearly failed. With this kid's current divine power, it would be several times more difficult for them to seal him again.

In the crowd, ye Futian and the others were all livid.

“Motherf * cker!”

Ye Futian gritted his teeth in anger and cursed. He raised his hand and smashed the side of the ship in front of him.

Not far away, on the ask the heavens battleship, a wave of curses could be heard.

Hearing the discussions from all directions, the primordial chaos boy's tender face flushed red with embarrassment and anxiety.

He was the great chaotic origin Buddha, a well-known old monster of the ancient times. To think that he would die in the hands of a young brat today. He had truly lost all his face!

He gritted his teeth and madly activated the celestial core power and Taoist connotation in his body, trying to suppress the kid.

However, the aura on the boy's body also skyrocketed, blocking him.

"Should I use immortal spirit body?"

His heart sank as he thought to himself.

That was his trump card.

Normally, zenith heavens rarely used immortal spirit bodies in a fight because they were too large and powerful. Once they started fighting, they would cause great damage.

"No! I almost forgot that this kid also has an immortal spirit body, and it seems quite powerful. If he still doesn't win, then he won't even have the last piece of cloth to cover his shame!"

He quickly rejected the idea.

He really didn't dare to take any more risks. If he stopped now, he could still save some face. If he really used the immortal spirit body, he would have no way out.

“Kid, let’s stop together!”

After hesitating for a long time, he unwillingly opened his mouth.

“You’re not fighting?”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“I’m done! As a senior, of course I have to give in to the junior, right?” The primordial chaos boy laughed in embarrassment.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao agreed.

“When I count to three, we will pull back our strength at the same time. One, two, three ...”

“Retreat!” The primordial chaos boy shouted. He suddenly retracted his strength and retreated.

Tang Hao also retracted his strength and retreated about thirty meters.

“Cough! Kid, you’re pretty strong! Senior will only guide you here today. Senior will take his leave first, we will meet again!”

The primordial chaos boy coughed and said.

With that, he lowered his head and turned to leave.

Although these words could ease the awkwardness, he still lost face. He couldn't stay here any longer and had to leave quickly.

He tore open the void and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

“Whoosh!”

After he left, the four sides were in an uproar.

The Great Buddha of origin had actually run away in such a dejected manner. It was truly a huge shock to them.

“How could it be like this!”

In the crowd, a figure gritted his teeth as he watched this scene, his face ashen.

She had thought that everything would be fine once the Lord Buddha made his move. However, she did not expect that even the Lord Buddha would fail. Could it be that this fellow was really undefeatable?

She looked at the white-robed figure in the distance with a dazed expression.

A deep sense of powerlessness surged in her heart.

If even the Lord Buddha couldn't do it, who else could?

As she pondered, she became more and more confused.

“Let’s go! There’s nothing to see!”

Seeing that Buddha Hunyuan had left, many big Luos flicked their sleeves and left.

“Let’s go!”

The three heavenly venerates of the primordial beginning sect looked at each other, sighed, and left.

The other da Luo also left one after another.

On the other hand, the people below were still gathered and discussing enthusiastically, their expressions extremely excited.

If nothing unexpected happened, news of today’s battle would spread throughout the immortal world and cause a sensation.

In fact, this battle could even become a legend that would be passed down for generations.

“Everyone, we’ve finished watching the show. Let’s disperse!”

Tang Hao looked around and smiled.

Only then did everyone come to their senses. They hurriedly bowed and saluted respectfully, then turned around and left.

When they left, they were still in a heated discussion.

Tang Hao looked around again, then retracted his gaze.

Among these people, he saw many familiar faces. There were enemies like ye Futian, and also some individual Immortals from Nantian city.

After most of the people had left, he heaved a sigh of relief and headed into the city.

This battle had not been easy. The Buddha's cultivation base was too high, and his divine body was indeed of a certain standard. If he had not relied on the human wave tactic to snatch many immortal opportunities from various places in the immortal world and improve his strength, he would have lost today's battle without a doubt.

Of course, there was also the contribution of the gods Palace.

The idea of building this Palace came from his immortal mansion.

A long time ago, he had wanted to build a Supreme immortal Palace, and his immortal mansion was built in that direction. But now, the immortal mansion had to bear the weight of the Natal world and couldn't be used. Therefore, he wanted to build another one.

It just so happened that with the ten thousand Dragons Palace and the 100000 man-made energy embryos that he had just refined, he was able to create this extremely powerful gods Palace.

Right now, the gods Palace was not the strongest. It could still be upgraded and kept getting stronger. The more clones there were, the stronger they were, and the more powerful the immortal Palace would be.

Moreover, he could capture ferocious beasts and suppress them. Just like the group of Dragons, they were all subdued by him and became a part of the gods Palace.

“Congratulations, fellow Daoist! You’ve won!”

When they arrived above the Imperial Palace, the country protector Saint flew out and laughed.

“It’s not a great victory, we’re still lacking!” Tang Hao chuckled.

“Al! With the experience of Hunyuan Buddha, a loss was a loss. If this was not a great victory, what was it? Just wait and see. Soon, the news of your great victory will spread throughout the immortal world. ”
The country protecting Saint said.

“Fellow Daoist’s treasure is truly amazing! It’s truly amazing!”

Then, he stroked his beard and sighed.

The ten thousand Dragon Palace from before had already shocked him. Now, this gods Palace was much stronger than the ten thousand Dragon Palace. It was truly unbelievable!

And that man-made immortal spirit body made him even more shocked!

“It’s alright!”

Tang Hao smiled.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re being too humble. If your treasure is only alright, are there any good treasures in this world?” The nation protecting Saint smiled bitterly.

He felt that this person was being too modest.

“This treasure isn’t in its strongest state yet. Wait until I capture some greater demons and great beasts and suppress them. It will become even stronger. The power it possesses might even surpass some Emperor artifacts.”

Tang Hao mumbled as he took out the immortal’s Hall and held it in his palm.

His eyes glowed with a bright light, and his chest was filled with lofty sentiments.

He was very confident that this treasure would become the most powerful treasure he had. It would surpass the ten thousand laws divine mountain and the great void divine furnace to become a true Supreme celestial artifact!
